DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

I. Systematic Theology and Apologetics

The object of this school of the curriculum is to present a comprehensive treatment of Systematic Theology, incorporating, in addition to the usual treatment of the subject, the more extensive demands of the premillenarian interpretation of the Scriptures. Including the Prolegomena eleven major divisions of the subject are recognized, and the entire discipline is consummated in an intensive analysis of one hundred and eighty doctrines. The supreme aim of the course is to ground the student in the teaching of the Scriptures under each of these divisions and doctrines. The lecture method is followed, combined with comparison of classroom instruction with collateral matter from standard works on theology. The student has before him also printed copies of extensive analytical questionnaires prepared by the professor.

101 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY I.

- (1) PROLEGOMENA. Nature and sources of theology.
- (2) BIBLIOLOGY. Seven aspects of the subject are considered.
- (3) THEOLOGY PROPER. This subject is divided into two main divisions: (a) Theism; (b) Trinitarianism.
- (4) ANGELOLOGY. Under a threefold treatment the entire revelation concerning the angels of God is investigated, including Satanology and Demonology.
- (5) ANTHROPOLOGY. The subject takes a fivefold analysis. Prescribed, first year, six hours.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD, first semester.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER, second semester.

102 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY II.

- (6) SOTERIOLOGY. Because of the importance of this division in its bearing upon intelligent gospel preaching, an entire semester is devoted to its study. This subject is treated under two major divisions: (a) The Savior, including that which He wrought both in His death and resurrection; (b) Salvation, including the divine undertaking and its result.
- (7) ECCLESIOLOGY. This division includes much not generally treated under this subject. The aim is to examine exhaustively the second Pauline revelation, namely, the doctrine of the true Church, which occupies a large place in the structure of Christian truth.
- (8) ESCHATOLOGY. This course contemplates all in the Scriptures which was predictive at the time of - its utterance. Together with the broader treatment of ecclesiology, as outlined above, this course covers that which is necessary for an untrammelled method in Biblical exposition.

Prescribed, second year, six hours.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER, first semester.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD, second semester.
- 103 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY III.
(9) CHRISTOLOGY. The doctrine of Christ unabridged, that is, not restricted to His person but incorporating also His work and its consummation.
Prescribed, first semester, third year, two hours.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD.
(10) PNEUMATOLOGY. The doctrine of the Holy Spirit, unabridged, incorporating both His person and His work in this and all ages.
Prescribed, second semester, third year, two hours.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD.
- 104 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY IV.
(11) DOCTRINAL SUMMARIZATION. In this course one hundred and eighty doctrines are treated, analytically, spiritually, and pedagogically.
Prescribed, third year, four hours.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.
- 105 CHRISTIAN EVIDENCES. General introduction to the subject, with special consideration of definitional matter and the various classes of evidence. Textbook assignments with lectures by the professor.
Prescribed, third year, first semester, one hour.
PROFESSOR R. T. CHAFER.
- 106 APOLOGETICS. Speculative theories of science and philosophy have pushed the older arguments of atheism and deism to the background. A text which treats of these modern problems is employed together with lectures by the professor.
Prescribed, third year, second semester, one hour.
PROFESSOR R. T. CHAFER.
- 107 BIBLICAL HERMENEUTICS. Throughout the course the following threefold thesis is maintained:
(a) That the Bible is a self-interpreting book, throwing light upon its own great themes and disclosing the divine purpose in relation thereto; (b) that these inherent laws of interpretation are discoverable; (c) and that compliance with these laws in Bible study is necessary to a true understanding of the divine revelation. The course follows a syllabus prepared by the professor.
Prescribed, first year, first semester, one hour.
PROFESSOR R. T. CHAFER.

- 108 SPIRITUAL LIFE. The aim of this course is to furnish a working knowledge of the revealed spiritual laws which govern the Christian character and service.
Prescribed, first year, two hours.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.

Electives

- 111 HAMARTIOLOGY. The doctrine of sin, with attention to the divine permission of it, its origin in heaven, its transmission to earth, its four-fold effect upon humanity, its peculiar character when committed by Christians, and its only cure through the death of Christ.
Elective, two hours, 1939-1940 and 1942-1943. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.
- 112 JUDAISM, ITS SOTERIOLOGY AND ESCHATOLOGY. An analytical investigation into the character of Judaism, its scope, its application, its relationships, its provisions, its obligations, its service, its provisions for restoration, its way of approach to God, and its future hope; special and constant attention being given both to the vital similarities and dissimilarities between Judaism and Christianity.
Elective, two hours, 1939-1940 and 1942-1943. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.
- 113 A SURVEY OF BIBLICAL PROPHECY. The entire field of Biblical prophecy is considered as to the nature and value of prophecy, its major themes in both the Old and New Testaments, the two-fold divine purpose, and the consummation of all things both in heaven and on earth.
Elective, two hours, 1937-1938 and 1940-1941. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.
- 114 DOCTRINE OF GRACE. A comprehensive analysis of the doctrine of divine grace, with its major divisions—saving grace, keeping grace, and the believer's life under grace. Elective, two hours, 1937-1938 and 1940-1941. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.

- 116 OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGY. Elective, two hours, 1938-1939 and 1941-1942. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.
- 115 NEW TESTAMENT THEOLOGY. This course aims at a comprehensive investigation into the distinctive elements of the New Testament revelation, embracing a study of the purpose, scope and character of the present unforeseen age, the present position before God of Israel. Pertinent features of Christology, the character of the four Gospels, the new divine purpose in the Church, and the doctrinal features of the epistles. Elective, two hours, 1938-1939 and 1941-1942. Thesis required (5 M words).
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.

III. New Testament Literature and Exegesis

This department endeavors to train the student to do careful exegetical work in the Greek New Testament. In the first half of the undergraduate course great stress is laid on the mastery of forms and the acquisition of a working vocabulary; in the second half, on the study of syntax and work in exegesis. Use is made of the new light shed on the Greek of the New Testament by the papyri, the ostraca, and the inscriptions. Such works as Deissmann's Bible Studies and Light from the Ancient East, Milligan's Here and There Among the Papyri and Selections from the Greek Papyri, and Moulton and Milligan's Vocabulary of the Greek New Testament are available in the library.

An adequate training in the elements of Greek is a prerequisite for full standing as a Junior. Matriculates deficient in this requirement will take Course 300, Elements of Greek, eight hours, without credit, in the place of Course 302, Greek I, four hours. Such students catch up with their class in the Greek course by devoting a sufficient number of hours from elective Greek courses to complete the requirements in Greek for graduation.

Beginning with the Fourteenth Annual Session (1937-1938) all candidates for the Master of Theology degree in the regular course will be required to read the entire Greek New Testament during the four-year period of the course.

- 300 THE ELEMENTS OF GREEK. This is an introductory course and is intended for the student who has had no Greek or who needs a review in the elements of the language. Davis' Beginner's Grammar of the Greek New Testament is the text used.
Prerequisite year, eight hours, but not credited toward a degree.
PROFESSOR SIEGEL.

- 301 INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT. The formation, history and extent of the canon; introduction, including date, authenticity, authorship, etc., to the books of the New Testament; textual criticism; New Testament archæology.

- 302 GREEK I. During the first semester a thorough review is made of the elements of Greek. This is followed by more advanced work in Dana and Mantey's Manual Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the second semester. John's Gospel is read with care.
Prescribed, first year, four hours.
PROFESSOR SIEGEL.
- 303 GREEK II. The Lucan writings are studied in this year, the Gospel in the first semester and the Acts in the second semester. Syntax is continued with Dana and Mantey as a text.
Prescribed, second year, four hours.
PROFESSORS HARRISON and SIEGEL.
- 304 GREEK III. The first semester is given up to the exegesis of First Corinthians. The Prison Epistles are studied in the same way in the second semester. The work in syntax is based largely on Robertson's Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the Light of Historical Research.

It is possible for men in the regular course to cover many of the books by taking sufficient elective work in the Greek department.

IV. Sacred History

In this school of the curriculum the method of instruction is largely by means of lectures and recitation, together with assigned reading of standard works on the various subjects. An outstanding feature of the work in this department is that, in the interpretation of the history of the visible Church, the truth regarding the unique nature and calling of the New Testament Church is at no time obscured. This is of vital importance, as failure to recognize the purpose of God in this dispensation has resulted, and necessarily so, in a wrong interpretation of Church History.

Prescribed, first year, two hours.
PROFESSOR NASH.
- 402 CHURCH HISTORY II. From the close of the Apostolic Age to the Reformation.

Text: History of Christian Doctrine, Fisher.
Prescribed, third year, four hours.
PROFESSOR NASH.
- 405 MISSIONS: (a) HISTORY, (b) FUTURE. The aim of this course is not only (a) to give a comprehensive view of the history of Christian missions, but also (b) to emphasize the large place missions holds in God's purpose to the end of the present age. In purpose and outlook our Seminary has been intensely missionary from the beginning. With a view to an expanding preparation for missionary service this course is prescribed, embracing the following: (1) Faith missions—their history and achievements; (2) Hebrew missions in the - homeland and abroad; (3) missions, today and tomorrow; (4) appraisal of the missionary attitude and ideals of the Seminary, a study of the missions under which our graduates are serving, and the particular contribution they are making in these fields. PROFESSOR SPANGLER.

- 406 COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS, AND CULTS. At no point in this course is the Christian faith compromised by this comparative study, but rather its unique character as the only revealed truth of God, distinct from all religions, is kept inviolate before the mind of the student. Prescribed, third year, one hour, second semester.
PROFESSOR SPANGLER.

PROFESSOR NASH.
- 416 ORIGIN OF RELIGION. In view of the discoveries made by specialists in this department of anthropology, a new emphasis must be placed upon "first things" in man's earliest conception of God and in man's early attitude toward God. This necessarily includes the only sane conception of the origin of the world and of man; the origin of primitive worship, prayer and sacrifice; the origin of belief in immortality; the origin of social ethics as seen in the family and its correlates. The Bible is employed as a most important adjunct, along with authentic, available helps in Hebrew literature.
Prescribed, fourth year, one hour.
PROFESSOR SPANGLER.

Prescribed, one hour.
PROFESSOR SPANGLER.
- 711 THE PHILOSOPHY OF THEISM. This course offers a sufficient explanation of the universe and an adequate theory of truth and life. The thesis is that the Bible provides the only adequate metaphysics in respect to man in all of his relations.
Elective, four hours.

Elective, four hours.
PROFESSOR SPANGLER.

BRIEF HISTORICAL STATEMENT

In response to a wide-spread desire amongst conservative Christian leaders for a ministerial training which should at once retain the values of a standard theological course and combine with these a thorough training in expository preaching and teaching of the Word of God, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, then of New York City, in the winter of 1921 invited Dr. Alex. B. Winchester, Pastor Extramuros of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, and Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, late professor at Oxford University, England, and Wycliff College in Toronto, a noted Anglican scholar and minister, to meet at Atlanta, Georgia, to consider the possibilities of such a school. As a result of the conference it was decided to make known the plan and seek a location for the start of the work.

In 1923, while Dr. Chafer was holding a Bible conference at the First Presbyterian Church of Dallas, he broached the plan to the pastor, Dr. William M. Anderson, who at once called together a temporary board with the determination of starting the school the following fall. In May, 1924, Dr. Rollin T. Chafer was engaged to organize the work for the opening on October 1. Beginning with a student body of twelve men, in rented quarters on Hughes Circle, the Seminary has had a steady yearly growth. In 1929 the school was reorganized on a broader basis, by amendment of its State charter, the control passing from the original Board of Trustees to a body of wider representation, known as the Board of Incorporate Members which in turn is divided into two smaller boards, namely, Board of Regents, controlling the faculty and educational features, and Board of Trustees, concerned with the finances and physical equipment of the Seminary.

In 1926 a goodly portion of the present site was purchased by Dallas friends and the following year the first building was erected with funds provided by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davidson in memory of Mr. Davidson's mother and known as the Lidie C. Davidson Hall. The next year the members of the Bible classes of the late Rev. Daniel Miner Stearns of Philadelphia erected a dormitory known as the D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall. In 1929 Mr. George T. Bisel of Philadelphia completed the campus site, adding the full frontage of the Swiss Avenue block by the purchase of a large apartment house, now used for married students, and two residences, one known as the White House, used as an overflow dormitory, the other being used as the home of a faculty member. The full capacity of the present equipment was reached three years ago, and more extended quarters are badly needed.

LIBRARY

The reference and general theological library of the late W. H. Griffith Thomas, D.D., selected with discriminating care by him through a long term of years and comprising about 4,500 bound volumes and 1,500 pamphlets, was purchased and presented to the Seminary soon after Dr. Thomas' death by Mr. William Nairn of Dundee, Scotland. This became the nucleus of the growing Seminary library, to which was added in 1925 as a gift from the owner the valuable private library of Perry Wayland Sinks, S.T.D. Other substantial gifts to the library have come from Professor H. A. Ironside, Dr. Howard Kelley, and many other smaller collections. The present working library of about 12,000 volumes is much more valuable than its numbers would indicate, for, unlike many seminary libraries, it has been so carefully selected it contains very little "deadwood." It is being increased as rapidly as possible. The leading theological reviews of America and Europe, as well as much popular current literature, are available in the reading room.

TERMS OF ADMISSION

It is the aim of the Seminary to maintain a high standard of reverent scholarship. Students planning to enter the Christian ministry are urged to complete, whenever practicable, a regular classical course at some accredited college or university. An applicant for admission to matriculation and enrollment as a student in the Seminary must present to the Registrar the following credentials:

1. A student applying for admission by letter and not known by any member of the faculty should present the names of pastors or others of known Christian standing, to whom inquiries may be sent concerning the following: Evidence that the applicant is born again, is yielded to the will of God, is endowed with ministry gifts, and agrees essentially with the system of doctrine taught in this Seminary.

2. A college diploma or an equivalent certificate of the completion of a regular academic course. Exceptions to this rule, necessarily few in number, are confined to experienced Christian workers who give evidence of possessing the natural gifts and literary proficiency required for a satisfactory pursuit of a course in theology. The number of such admissions will be determined by available room space, but shall not exceed four each year. In all cases a transcript of record of work done in college or other institutions must be submitted.

DIPLOMAS, CERTIFICATES AND DEGREES

On completion of the prescribed four-year course of study with satisfactory grades students who hold the degree of A.B. or its academic equivalent receive a diploma carrying the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). The few allowable students deficient in college work and admitted to this course as exceptions, receive, upon satisfactory completion of the work, a certificate without degree. A student who takes a part of this course, passing the required grades, may receive a certificate specifying the work completed. A graduation fee ($10.00) is charged, which covers the cost of diploma, cap and gown, hood and other incidentals.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Courses of study leading to the degrees of Master of Theology (Th.M.) and Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) are provided. Men who have had both regular academic and seminary training and hold the degrees of A.B. and B.D., or their respective academic and theological equivalents, may be candidates for the graduate course degrees provided in all cases such candidates have included in their theological training courses satisfying standard requirements in Hebrew and Greek. Applicants for admission to these courses must submit transcripts of record of work done in institutions in which former courses were pursued, accompanied with a formal application on a blank form furnished on request addressed to the Registrar.

Master of Theology Degree

Besides the prescribed four-year course leading to the Master of Theology degree (Th.M.), the following schedule is offered to students who have completed the work leading to the Bachelor of Divinity degree, or its equivalent, in other standard seminaries: Thirty semester hours of classroom and thesis work are required for the completion of the course leading to the Th.M. degree, apportioned as follows: twenty semester hours to be devoted to a major subject in the general field of one of the following departments of the curriculum: namely, Systematic Theology, Semitic Languages and Old Testament Exegesis, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and Sacred History. These twenty hours apportioned to the major shall be divided into a minimum of fourteen semester hours of classroom work and six semester hours to be credited for a satisfactory thesis on a subject chosen from the field of the major. The thesis, which must be characterized by literary excellence, shall contain not less than 10,000 words. Minor subjects covering not less than ten semester hours shall be chosen from any major departments of the curriculum not related to the major subject. The thesis, which must be typewritten and bound, must conform strictly to the standards described in the Manual of Instructions for the Preparation of Graduation Theses and Dissertations, and shall become the property of the Seminary.

Doctor of Theology Degree

Candidates for the degree of Th.D. must meet the following requirements:

1. The applicant must hold an A.B. degree, or its academic equivalent, and the B.D. degree, or its theological equivalent. His transcripts of record, recommendations and other credentials will be reviewed by the Credits Committee of the Faculty. His eligibility to pursue the work will be passed upon by this committee. Undergraduate students of Dallas Theological Seminary who plan to pursue the graduate work leading to the Th.D. degree may file an application for such study during the Senior year to be passed upon by the Credits Committee.

2. The applicant who holds these prerequisite degrees must complete a minimum of three years of additional work before receiving the Th.D. degree, two years of which must be taken in residence with the privilege of taking the third year in absentia.

3. A minimum of one year must be devoted to resident study in the Graduate School of the Dallas Theological Seminary, during which time sixteen semester hours must be devoted to a major subject, and eight semester hours divided between two minor studies. Transfer credits from standard orthodox seminaries will be accepted, subject to the approval of the Credits Committee, to satisfy the residence requirements other than the minimum of one year required by this Seminary.

4. An exhaustive oral examination will be required in the field of the major subject conducted before a committee of the Faculty by the professor in whose department the work is taken. Satisfactory written examinations shall satisfy the requirements of the minor subjects.

5. In addition to completing the courses leading to the oral and written examinations, each applicant is required to write a dissertation of not less than 50,000 words. The subject shall be chosen by the applicant in consultation with the major professor, and its development must show thorough preparation and excellent literary form. The dissertation must be filed with the major professor by April first prior to the granting of the degree. Two typewritten copies of this dissertation, properly bound, must be filed in the archives of the Seminary. The dissertation must conform strictly to the standards described in the Manual of Instructions for the Preparation of Graduation Theses and Dissertations, and becomes the property of this institution. Should the applicant desire to publish his dissertation, he will be allowed to do so on approval of the Administration Committee. The copyright of the published dissertation, however, shall be the property of the Dallas Theological Seminary.

6. The major study and subject of the dissertation may be chosen only under the rules governing this course. Minors shall be chosen from the elective courses of any of the other main divisions of the curriculum not related to the major.

7. No candidate for the degree of Doctor of Theology shall be allowed to receive this honor from the Seminary who does not hold the system of truth essentially as set forth in the Doctrinal Statement of the Seminary.

EXPENSES

There are no tuition fees. Dormitory rooms are furnished rent free, the student being required to furnish bed linen and towels only, although it is well for each student to furnish one or two extra blankets for use in the coldest weather. A small charge covering the room laundry work is made. A nominal charge for rooms will be made for occupancy during the summer vacation to cover the public service costs. Twelve rent-free apartments ranging from two to four rooms with private baths are available on the campus for married students. Academically regular students are given first choice of rooms and apartments, others being accommodated only in case of vacancies. This order also obtains in the assignment of student-help positions.

The Seminary conducts a refectory under the management of a competent steward, excellent board being furnished at $5.25 a week. The cost of textbooks the first year is about $25. After the first year the expense of textbooks is less.

Bibliotheca Sacra

A Theological Quarterly

Founded in 1843

This 128-page theological review became the organ of the Dallas Theological Seminary in January, 1934. Each of the quarterly numbers contain enough material to make a fair-sized book. The following averages of contributions during the last four years in each volume (four quarterly numbers) have been: twelve editorials, thirty major articles and installments, and ninety-four book reviews, many of the latter comprehensively treated. This mass of literature, covering a great variety of subjects, forms a large volume worth far more than the subscription price. No minister or instructed layman can afford to be without this literature at this price. Sample copies are sent out with the understanding that they will be returned should the recipient not care to subscribe.
