and Graduate School of Theology

DALLAS 4, TEXAS

"The purpose of the Dallas Theological Seminary is to provide and maintain the highest standard of theological instruction . . . to teach and defend that body of conservative truth which has been held by evangelical Protestantism, believing in the inerrant authority of the Scriptures, which are interpreted according to the premillennial system of doctrine as set forth in the doctrinal statement of the Seminary . . ."

FACULTY AND STUDENT BODY 1943-1944

The Highest Standard

By President Lewis Sperry Chafer

Expository preaching, which alone fulfills the Apostle's injunction to preach the Word, cannot be realized apart from a complete working knowledge of, and great familiarity with, the whole text of the Sacred Scriptures. A student who has had a full introduction to the Bible, who has a right method for its interpretation and who gives unrelenting study to its text may hope as years pass by to render worthy service as an expositor of God's Word. The responsibility is overwhelming and the most extensive and careful preparation—such as may be gained in a lifetime of effort—will be no more than is required.

This in brief is the ideal toward which all courses of study in the Dallas Theological Seminary are made to converge. It was because such ideals were not even feebly attempted in usual courses of ministerial discipline and because the expository form of preaching is so vitally essential that the Dallas Theological Seminary was founded. It was then believed, as it is now demonstrated by experience, that the ground preparation for true and worthy exposition can be laid in the seminary classroom. It cannot be done in a three-year curriculum. It was discovered early in this experiment that four required years are the minimum of classroom work if the high ideal was to be realized; hence in 1936 the Seminary took this unprecedented step of prescribing four years for the standard seminary training.

While some men have by tireless study become really great Bible teachers who were deprived of the knowledge of the original languages, it has been determined by all concerned that the full ground training requires a basic knowledge of Hebrew and Greek which, if pursued through after years, will make the student an exegete in his own right. Careful investigation has demonstrated that no less than five years discipline in New Testament Greek, with the requirement that the whole Greek New Testament be translated, and three years in Hebrew are necessary if the student is to be fitted to continue a self-directed course of language study. The English Bible must itself be approached both in exegetical study for accuracy and analytically for spiritual values. Both of these lines of study are given large representation in this discipline. All exegetical work is done in the original languages and the entire Bible is analyzed from the English text during the four years.

The equivalent of six years of Systematic Theology is compressed into the four years which theology, that it may account for all the Sacred Text, follows a true dispensational and premillennial interpretation. In this course of study the Scriptures are not merely employed to provide proof texts for theology; theology is so taught as to throw light upon the Scriptures.

No seminary has met its responsibility when commendable courses are offered and executed. It is imperative that the preacher shall be a man of God, a man of faith, a man of prayer, and he shall understand the great Pauline doctrines which enter into a vital spiritual life and power. He should know these both for his own personal spiritual well-being and that he may teach others also.

The Dallas Theological Seminary attempts to meet this high challenge by providing courses in the spiritual life and through a highly stimulated exercise of prayer and faith along with classroom studies. This procedure has resulted in fully sixteen per cent of the alumni going to foreign mission fields and the remainder as definitely in the will of God in taking service at home. Added subjects, common to all standard seminaries, are not neglected—sacred history, homiletics, hermeneutics, a Christian view of philosophy, introduction, apologetics, etc.,—but are given their rightful emphasis. The Seminary is closing its twentieth year and is long past the experimental stage. The character of the work offered is drawing the finest college men from all parts of the United States, Canada, and foreign countries.

General Information

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE SEMINARY

Before the founding of the Dallas Theological Seminary, the need had been often expressed for a ministerial training which should retain the values of a standard theological course, but should include in addition a thorough training in expository preaching and teaching of the Word of God. Facing the challenge of this need, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, then of New York City, in the winter of 1921 invited Dr. Alex B. Winchester, Pastor Extramuros of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, and Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, a noted Anglican scholar and former professor at Oxford University, England, and Wycliffe College, Toronto, to meet with him at Atlanta, Georgia, to consider the possibility of founding such an institution. After much prayer, it was decided to make known the plan and seek a location.

In 1923, while Dr. Chafer was conducting a Bible conference at the First Presbyterian Church at Dallas, the proposed plan was presented to Dr. William M. Anderson, at that time pastor of this church. Realizing the need of such an institution, Dr. Anderson at once called together a group of interested men to form the first temporary board. Dr. Rollin T. Chafer was engaged in May, 1924, to organize the work, and the institution was formally opened the following fall. The Seminary was incorporated in Texas, February 16, 1925, under the name Evangelical Theological College. The first year of work began in rented quarters at 1521 Hughes Circle, Dallas, with twelve students enrolled. In the years that followed a steady growth was realized, the hand of God being evident in the supply of the faculty, student body, and the temporal support required.

On December 11, 1929, the Seminary was reorganized on a broader basis by amendment of its state charter, the control passing from the original Board of Trustees to a body of wider representation, known as the Board of Incorporate Members which in turn was divided into two smaller boards, the Board of Regents, controlling the faculty and educational interests, and the Board of Trustees, concerned with the finances and physical equipment of the Seminary.

In 1926, the first portion of the present site was purchased by Dallas friends, and the following year the first building was erected with funds provided by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davidson in memory of Mr. Davidson's mother, the building being known as the Lidie C. Davidson Hall. In 1928, the members of the Bible Classes of Rev. Daniel Miner Stearns of Philadelphia erected a dormitory known as the D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall. In 1929, Mr. George T. Bisel of Philadelphia completed the campus site, adding the full frontage of the Swiss Avenue block by the purchase of a large apartment house, now used for married students, and two residences.

In 1935 an important step was taken when the Seminary pioneered a standard four-year course for graduation, leading to the degree of Master of Theology. Incorporating all essential theological courses, the new curriculum gave additional emphasis to Systematic Theology, Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis, Greek and New Testament Exegesis, and English Bible Exposition, these courses being particularly essential to proficient and accurate handling of the Word of God.

In 1936, the name of the Seminary was changed from Evangelical Theological College to its present name, Dallas Theological Seminary and Graduate School of Theology, and its charter was changed accordingly on July 24, 1936.

The history of the Seminary reveals the constant faithfulness of God in sustaining its testimony. Relying entirely on divine supply, the operation of the institution has continued on a faith basis. The doctrinal position of the Seminary as contained in the Doctrinal Statement adopted in 1924 has been rigidly maintained. Faculty and members of the Boards are required to endorse the doctrinal statement annually, and students must evince essential agreement with it. The distinctive features of the Seminary which called it into being have been preserved and improved with the passing years.

BUILDINGS

The Seminary property is situated in the 3900 block of Swiss Avenue, extending the entire frontage from St. Joseph Street to Apple Street in a residential section of Dallas within a mile and one-half of the downtown business district. Dallas, a city of 350,000 population, affording all the advantages of a large city, is served by nine railroads, all major air lines in the South, and transcontinental U. S. highways.

The center building on the campus is Lidie C. Davidson Hall, containing the chapel, executive and faculty offices on the first floor; four large classrooms on the second floor; and a spacious library on the third and fourth floors including reading rooms, stacks, and all needed library equipment. The Seminary Book Room is located in the office of the Library.

D. M. Stearns Hall is located immediately to the south of Davidson Hall and contains single rooms for fifty students, each equipped with lavatory and modern steel furniture. In addition, there are guest rooms available for visitors, and a large lounge and reception room adequate for all social activities of the Seminary.

An apartment house with twelve apartments is situated across the campus from Stearns Hall. These apartments are furnished rent-free to married students in order of application. On the corner of Swiss and Apple Streets a residence known familiarly as "The White House" is located, being used by members of the staff and as an overflow dormitory. To the north of this building another residence is owned by the Seminary, which is used by a member of the faculty.

A large athletic field is situated back of Davidson Hall, and due to favorable climatic conditions it makes possible many outdoors sports during most of the Seminary year.

The entire property is valued at more than $250,000, and is free from mortgage. In recent years, because of a growing student body, it has been necessary to place two students to a room in some of the rooms of Stearns Hall, and to require some married students to rent their own quarters outside. In the will of God it is anticipated that provision will be made for an additional dormitory in the space now occupied by the apartment, with new and more adequate quarters for married students.

LIBRARY

In 1925 the personal library of the late W. H. Griffith Thomas, D.D., formerly principal of Wycliffe College, Oxford, comprising 4500 bound volumes and 1500 pamphlets, was purchased by Mr. William Nairn of Dundee, Scotland, and sent to the Seminary. Other substantial gifts of books have been received from Dr. H. A. Ironside, Dr. Perry Wayland Sinks, Dr. C. O. Martindale, Dr. Carl Armerding, and many others.

The religious section of the library of Ewing College, Ewing, Illinois, has been purchased and will yield approximately 1500 additional titles. Other purchases have brought the total up to 20,500 volumes.

Close to 100 religious periodicals are received regularly, including nearly all the substantial theological and Biblical periodicals of the world in English, and some other languages. A special periodical department has been set up on the west mezzanine floor, which now contains nearly 2000 volumes of religious periodicals, bound and unbound, representing around 350 titles.

A combined periodical index system has been established, by which selected titles can be indexed for ready access in research work. When developed, this card index will prove a great aid to Biblical and theological research.

The Griffith Thomas Sermon Text Index is one of the unique features of the library. Dr. Thomas for years had his secretaries index his periodicals. Some work has been done on the index since, and it now contains around 50,000 references to sermons and sermonic outlines. From one to a dozen or more sermons and sermon outlines can be located readily on any text in the Bible that is subject to homiletic treatment.

A microfilm reading machine has been purchased for the library by the Class of '44, and a fund has been established for the purchase of microfilmed material. Practically any material on file in the libraries of the United States becomes available by this process. It has been the policy of the library to purchase books which would constitute a definite contribution to the work of the student, avoiding accumulation of books of little actual value.

The physical property of the library is more than adequate for present and future needs, the entire third and fourth floors of Davidson Hall being used for this purpose. The book stacks, now situated in the main reading room and reference room, cover about 600 square feet of floor space with room for expansion to about double the present size. The library maintains its own bindery for repair and re-binding of books.

The Seminary Book Room, a student supply store, is located in the office of the library. The profits from the sales of textbooks and other supplies are used to purchase books for the library.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Seminary is ideally located for all types of Christian service. In the city of Dallas itself, many opportunities are open for Christian testimony in churches, missions, jails, street meetings, young people's organizations, and radio ministry. Numerous rural preaching points are open to students, affording opportunity for experience and service. All the students have opportunity for a varied practical experience during their period of study. While advanced students are able in some instances to fill pastorates while continuing their study, new students should not expect to secure pastoral appointments, rather giving their time to their studies and other activities.

EXPENSES

To enable the student to secure a thorough seminary training as inexpensively as possible, every effort is made to lower the cost to the student. To this end no tuition is charged. Dormitory rooms are furnished rent free, the student being required to furnish bed linen and towels and extra blankets for colder weather. A charge of $1.00 a month is made for laundering bed linens and towels, regardless of quantity.

Twelve rent-free apartments ranging from two to four rooms with private baths are available on the campus for married students. Application can be made upon being accepted as a student or upon being married, whichever occurs last. First-year married students frequently must rent their own quarters until a vacancy occurs. Academically regular students are given first choice of rooms and apartments, others being accommodated only in case of vacancies. A limited amount of student employment is available for accepted regular students, single students being given preference.

The Seminary conducts a refectory under the management of a competent steward, and excellent board is furnished at a nominal cost. The present rate for board is $5.95 a week.

Textbooks are sold through the Seminary Book Room at a discount. Cost of books during the first year is less than $25.00.

The experience of students has indicated that single students can meet all necessary expenses including personal items for approximately $300.00 a school year. Married students will require from $75.00 a month up, depending on the size of their families, whether they rent their own quarters or use Seminary apartments, and personal expenditures. Small furnished apartments can be rented for approximately $40.00 a month and up, depending upon the nature of accommodations.

Curriculum

COURSES OF STUDY

Three principal courses of study are offered in the Dallas Seminary: (1) the basic four-year course leading to the degree of Master of Theology or a Certificate of Graduation; (2) the one-year course leading to the degree of Master of Theology for students previously graduated from a three-year seminary course; (3) the two-year course leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology for those presenting a degree of Master of Theology for entrance. The latter two courses are offered in the Graduate School of the Seminary.

DISTINCTIVE PURPOSE

The Dallas Seminary was founded with the explicit purpose of training expository preachers. To this end, attention is given to the courses which provide material and method for "preaching the word." Extensive courses are offered involving four years of Systematic Theology, four years of Greek, four years of English Bible, and three years of Hebrew. These courses, in addition to the other standard courses of a seminary curriculum, provide a training second to none, in fact, in terms of credit, twice the usual amount offered in seminaries generally.

THE CENTRAL PLACE OF THE BIBLE

In fact as well as theory, the Bible is the central subject of the curriculum. As the very Word of God, the only inspired revelation of truth, the Bible is necessarily central in theological study for the novice as well as the scholar, demanding, in addition to all natural acumen, the illumination of the Holy Spirit. Each of the principal courses has its important place. Theology approaches the Bible as the source of revealed truth, setting forth in systematic doctrinal statement what the Bible teaches. The original languages of Scripture, Hebrew and Greek, provide the door to direct exegesis of the text in the original. The thorough English Bible courses provide study of every book of the Bible and much important collateral material. A staff of special lecturers visit the Seminary each year and give concentrated attention to pivotal books of the Bible. Other courses of study are approached from the standpoint of the Scriptures.

EMPHASIS ON THE SPIRITUAL LIFE

Full recognition is given the important place of the spiritual life in determining the quality of a minister's work. From the beginning, an important part of the required curriculum has been the course in Spiritual Life, taught by President Lewis Sperry Chafer. The need of a life filled with the Holy Spirit for fruitful service is early impressed upon the student. Daily chapels, frequent student body prayer meetings, missionary prayer bands, and Christian activity generally combine to make the campus a hallowed spot in the spiritual experience of graduates.

TERMS OF ADMISSION

General Requirements. The Dallas Theological Seminary was founded to provide the highest standard of theological instruction, teaching and defending the faith of evangelical Protestantism from the viewpoint of the premillennial system of doctrine as set forth in its doctrinal statement. To attain this end, the student body is limited to men who show evidence that they are born again, are yielded to the will of God, are endowed with necessary gifts, and who agree essentially with the system of doctrine taught in the Seminary. The courses of study are planned specifically for those who have completed a regular academic course leading to a college diploma or its equivalent and including the usual features of a standard four-year course. Exceptions to the scholastic requirements for entrance are necessarily few in number and are subject to limitations placed upon them by the faculty.

Greek Requirements. Students entering the four-year course are expected to have a working knowledge of Greek sufficient to enable them to pass the entrance Greek examination which is required of all regular and irregular students. A special course of study is provided for those who are unable to pass this examination or who have had no previous Greek training. The necessary additional language work to remove the entrance deficiency is not credited toward graduation.

Application Procedure. Applicants for all courses of study must file with the Registrar a formal application on the blank furnished upon request. An official transcript of all college and seminary work or other significant achievement must be filed as a part of the application papers. Early application is advisable in all classifications. There is no registration fee.

Credits from other standard seminaries are accepted at full value to the extent that they can be articulated into the usual requirements. No credit is given on any undergraduate courses completed in college or other institutions below seminary grade. In the event any of these courses are clearly duplicate to prescribed courses of the curriculum, permission may be given to substitute other courses to avoid needless duplication.

WAR-TIME ACCELERATED PROGRAM

To facilitate the training of theological students during war time and in cooperation with the Selective Service recommendations, the Dallas Seminary for the duration of the war will admit college students who have completed three academic years of college training provided they agree to complete the remaining college courses leading to degree before graduation from seminary.

Pre-theological students in college can obtain deferment from military service up to twenty-four months to enable them to complete the college work required by seminaries for entrance. Activity and Occupation Bulletin No. 33-6 as amended effective February 15, 1944, prescribes the following rules and regulations regarding deferment of pre-theological students:

1. Quotas have been determined for the deferment of undergraduate pre-professional students. The quota for pre-theological students is "50 per cent of the total average number of students in schools of . . . theology in the years 1938-1939 and 1939-1940."

2. A student in the pre-theological field should be considered for occupational deferment if he is a full-time student in good standing in a recognized college or university, and if it is certified: (a) By the institution that he is pursuing a course of study in one of the pre-professional fields and if he continues his progress he will complete such pre-professional course of study within 24 months from the date of certification; (b) By a recognized theological school that he is accepted for admission and will be admitted to undertake professional studies upon completion of his pre-professional work; and (c) By the National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel of the War Manpower Commission that the certification of the institution as to his course of study and competence, and as to his prospective date of completion is correct to the best of its knowledge and belief, and that his deferment, if granted, will be within the quota for such pre-professional students.

3. The National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel of the War Manpower Commission will certify to requests for occupational deferment of students as follows: Request for occupational deferment of a registrant in pre-theology will be prepared by the institution in which the registrant is a student and will be forwarded to the National Roster. The National Roster will, if such is the case, certify on the request that the statements of the institution as to the course of study and competence and prospective date of completion of the registrant are correct to the best of its knowledge and belief and that the registrant's deferment, if granted, will not exceed the quota established for such students. If the National Roster cannot truthfully make such certification, it will not certify to the request. The National Roster will return the request for occupational deferment of students, whether certified to or not, to the institution which prepared the request.

4. Requests for student deferment. The institution in which the registrant is a student will file requests for the occupational deferment of such student with the local board as follows: (a) For a student who has reached his eighteenth birthday but has not reached his twenty-second birthday, in duplicate on DSS Form 42 Special; and (b) for a student who is 22 years of age or older on DSS Form 42.

Certificates will be issued by the Dallas Theological Seminary to bona fide pre-theological students stating that they are accepted for admission and will be enrolled to undertake their professional studies upon completion of three academic years of college work (twenty-four months of accelerated study). To qualify for the certificate, a student should submit application on form supplied by the Dallas Theological Seminary, submit a transcript of such college work as is already completed, and a certificate from the college in which he is enrolled indicating when he will have completed three academic years of college training.

Even a freshman in college, by taking available summer school work, can complete the necessary college credits to equal three academic years within twenty-four months from the date of certification required by law. Application may be made for occupational deferment as a pre-theological student at any time prior to induction.

Information concerning any change in these regulations can be obtained by addressing inquiry to the Registrar.

SUMMER SEMESTER

To facilitate graduation of seminary students as rapidly as possible, a summer semester will be provided in 1944 and succeeding summers as long as necessary. The summer session is intended primarily for those who are already in session and it is expected that new students will normally enter in September, as previously, unless some special arrangement can be made in individual cases. For details on courses offered see war-time accelerated curriculum for 1944-1945.

FOUR-YEAR COURSE OF STUDY

Regular Students. Men who are enrolled for the four-year course leading to the degree of Master of Theology are classified as regular students. A college diploma or its equivalent is required for admission as a regular student, and it is necessary to maintain a full course of study leading to degree to remain in this classification. Regular students have full privileges in respect to dormitory or apartment space and student employment.

War-Time Irregular Students (Candidates for Th.M. degree). Applicants who will have completed at least three academic years of college training for entrance and who agree to complete their remaining college work leading to degree before graduation from seminary are eligible for admission as war-time irregular students. Those in this classification must follow the necessary program to complete requirements for both college and seminary degrees within the four academic years required for the Th.M. degree. War-time irregular students shall have the full privileges in respect to dormitory and apartment space normally allowed regular students, and are considered candidates for the Th.M. degree. This classification is provided only for the duration of the war to facilitate rapid training of students for the Gospel ministry and for service in the armed forces as chaplains.

Standard Irregular Students (Candidates for certificate). Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degrees and who cannot meet the requirements for war-time irregular students are eligible for enrollment as standard irregular students. Students in this classification are enrolled in the same course of study as regular students and are entitled to a certificate without degree upon completion of the four-year course. Not more than four standard irregular students are enrolled each year in the entering class, and admission is on a strict selective basis. Applications may be received and given preliminary approval at any time. All approved applications are examined by the Credits Committee in late spring of each year and selection is made of applicants who can be enrolled as standard irregular students for the following fall semester. Qualifications considered include maturity, educational background, experience, and promise. Normally, standard irregular students must be at least twenty-five years of age, and preference is given those who have the best educational background. It is necessary to maintain a full course of study leading to graduation and make satisfactory progress to remain in this classification. Standard irregular students are given dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular and war-time irregular students are accommodated.

Special Students. Students who are not eligible for classification as regular or irregular students may make application for enrollment as special students. This classification is intended principally for local pastors who desire to enroll for special courses of study. Regular or irregular students who do not maintain a full course of study or who do not make satisfactory progress are subject to reclassification as special students. The Credits Committee is empowered to enroll other than local pastors as special students when, in its judgment, unusual circumstances justify consideration of the applicant as a special case. Missionaries on furlough are encouraged to make application under this classification if not eligible for any other. Application for admission as a special student follows the same procedure as that of an irregular student. Special students are given dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular and irregular students are accommodated.

Graduate Students. Graduates of both college and seminary with appropriate degrees are eligible for admission to the Graduate School.

For particulars, see the description of courses of study in the Graduate School.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

The prescribed course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology requires four years or eight semesters of resident study with a minimum total of 130 semester hours. Included in the total are 120 semester hours of prescribed studies, and 10 semester hours of electives.

A major must be selected by the student in one of the following departments: Systematic Theology, Semitic Languages and Old Testament Exegesis, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, or Sacred History. A major is constituted by completion of six semester hours of elective credit in the field of the major in addition to prescribed requirements, and the writing of a thesis of not less than 10,000 words in that department. Two copies of the thesis properly typewritten and bound shall be presented, conforming strictly to the standards outlined in A Form Book for Thesis Writing, by William Giles Campbell, and to the additional instructions authorized by the faculty. A graduation thesis becomes the property of the Seminary upon presentation even if the thesis is found unsatisfactory. A syllabus of approximately 1,000 words is required to be filed with Registrar on or before Tuesday of the seventh week of the semester before the final semester, of the academic year preceding graduation, and the completed thesis is due on Tuesday of the seventh week of the final semester preceding graduation, with a penalty of one per cent in grade for each day late, unless graduation is postponed to the following year.

In addition to completion of the required semester-hours of credit, candidates for graduation from the four-year course are required to read the entire New Testament in the Greek language either in course or in private study.

Regular students completing the four-year course of study receive a diploma carrying the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Irregular students upon satisfactory completion of the course receive a certificate without degree and are eligible to receive the degree of Master of Theology at a later date without further study if they can present an acceptable college degree. A graduation fee of ten dollars is charged, which includes the cost of diploma, rental of cap, gown, hood, and other incidentals. A fee of five dollars is charged for exchanging a certificate of graduation for a degree.

Description of Courses

I. SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY AND APOLOGETICS

LEWIS SPERRY CHAFER, Professor
JOHN F. WALVOORD, Associate Professor
JOHN HENRY BENNETCH
CHARLES ASHWORTH NASH

The object of this department of the curriculum is to present a comprehensive treatment of Systematic Theology, incorporating, in addition to the usual treatment of the subject, the more extensive demands of the premillennial interpretation of the Scriptures. Including the Prolegomena, eleven major divisions of the subject are recognized, and the entire discipline is consummated in an intensive analysis of one hundred and eighty doctrines. The supreme aim of the course is to ground the student in the teaching of the Scriptures relating to each doctrine. The lecture method is used, combined with outside reading in standard works of theology.

101. Systematic Theology I. Fall semester: Prolegomena, an introductory consideration of the nature and source of theology; Bibliology, which considers the essential facts concerning the Bible in seven divisions: (a) Revelation; (b) Inspiration; (c) Vivification; (d) Illumination; (e) Interpretation; (f) Preservation; (g) Authority; Theology Proper, the doctrine of the Person of God considered in its two aspects: (a) Theism, a study of the arguments for the existence of God, His attributes, decrees and names, and (b) Trinitarianism, the doctrine of the Trinity with consideration of each Person of the Godhead. Spring semester: Angelology, an extensive investigation into the revelation concerning the angels in its three divisions: (a) The Angel of Jehovah; (b) the unfallen angels, their rank, titles and ministries; (c) the fallen angels, including an extended examination of the doctrine of Satan; Anthropology, considered in five divisions: (a) The Biblical doctrine of the creation of man; (b) the trichotomous nature of man; (c) the origin of man's body, soul, and spirit; (d) the fall; (e) sin, its character and penalty, and the doctrine of imputation. Prescribed, first year, three hours both semesters. Professor Walvoord, fall semester; Professor Chafer, spring semester.

102. Systematic Theology II. First semester: Soteriology, treated under two major divisions: (a) the Savior, including that which He wrought both in His death and resurrection; (b) salvation, including the divine undertaking and its result. Second semester: Ecclesiology, including much that is not usually taught in this field—the second Pauline revelation, the doctrine of the true Church, carefully examined, as well as the truth related to the organized church and the walk of the believer; Eschatology, contemplating all the Scriptures which were predictive at the time of their utterance. The entire second year of theology exceeds by far the usual investigation into these fields, and forms an important part of the doctrinal teaching of the Seminary. Required of all graduates. Prescribed, second year, three hours both semesters. Professor Chafer, first semester; Professor Walvoord, second semester.

103. Systematic Theology III. First semester: Christology, the doctrine of Christ including consideration of both His Person and His work and its consummation. Second semester: Pneumatology, the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, including His Person and His work in all ages. Prescribed, third year, two hours both semesters. Professor Walvoord.

104. Systematic Theology IV. Doctrinal Summarization: one hundred and eighty doctrines are treated analytically, spiritually, and pedagogically. Prescribed, fourth year, two hours both semesters. Offered spring and summer, 1945. Professor Chafer.

106. Apologetics. General introduction to the subject, with the main thesis: Scripture, the inspired revelation of God. The modern problems of the speculative theories of science, philosophy and liberalism are given major consideration. Prescribed, second year, two hours. Doctor Bennetch.

107. Biblical Hermeneutics. A consideration of the laws of interpretation of the Bible based on a threefold thesis: (a) that the Bible is self-interpreting; (b) that the inherent laws of interpretation are discoverable; (c) that compliance with these laws in Bible study is necessary to a true understanding of divine revelation. Text: The Science of Biblical Hermeneutics, by Rollin T. Chafer. Prescribed, first year, fall semester, one hour. Professor Nash.

108. Spiritual Life. A study of the revealed spiritual laws which govern true Christian character and service, emphasizing the sufficiency of the divine provisions, the heart conditions which qualify holy living, and spiritual power in preaching. Prescribed, first year, fall semester, two hours. Professor Chafer.

Electives

111. Hamartiology. The doctrine of sin, with attention to the divine permission of it, its origin in heaven, its transmission to earth, its fourfold effect upon humanity, its peculiar character when committed by Christians, and its only cure through the death of Christ. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1945. Professor Chafer.

112. Judaism. Its Soteriology and Eschatology. An analytical investigation into the character of Judaism, its scope, its application, its relationships, its provisions, its obligations, its service, its provisions for restoration, its way of approach to God, and its future hope; special and constant attention being given both to the vital similarities and dissimilarities between Judaism and Christianity. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, two hours, summer semester, 1945. Professor Chafer.

113. A Survey of Biblical Prophecy. The entire field of Biblical prophecy is considered as to the nature and value of prophecy, its major themes in both the Old and New Testaments, the twofold divine purpose, and the consummation of all things both in heaven and on earth. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, one hour both semesters, 1943-1944 and 1946-1947. Professor Chafer.

114. Doctrine of Grace. A comprehensive analysis of the doctrine of divine grace, with its major divisions—saving grace, keeping grace, and the believer's life under grace. Extended attention is given to divine grace as it is disclosed in the Jewish covenants, and its unconditional character and eternal magnitude as the present supreme purpose for the heavenly manifestation of its unmeasured riches. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, one hour both semesters, 1943-1944 and 1946-1947. Professor Chafer.

115. New Testament Theology. This course aims at a comprehensive investigation into the distinctive elements of the New Testament revelation, embracing a study of the purpose, scope and character of the present unforeseen age, the present position before God of Israel. Pertinent features of Christology, the character of the four Gospels, the new divine purpose in the Church, and the doctrinal features of the epistles. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, two hours, summer semester, 1944. Professor Chafer.

116. Old Testament Theology. A systematic rather than a mere Biblical or historical theology of the Old Testament, with particular emphasis upon the origin of all things, the precise nature and purpose of the great covenants, the chosen earthly people, the Messianic hope, and the essential doctrines of the First Testament. Thesis of 5,000 words required. Elective, two hours, fall semester, 1944-1945. Professor Chafer.

120. Theology of Charles Hodge. A study of the three volumes of his theology. The method of study will include lectures, oral reports, class discussions, and a paper on some aspect of the subject. Assignments will include reading selected portions of this theology and a survey of his other writings. Prerequisite, one year of theology. Elective, two hours. Professor Walvoord.

121. Theology of William G. T. Shedd. A study of the three volumes of his theology. Method of study will include lectures, oral reports, class discussions, and a paper on some aspect of Shedd's system of theology. Selected portions will be assigned for special study. Prerequisite, one year of theology. Elective, two hours. Professor Walvoord.

122. Theology of John Calvin. A study of the theology of John Calvin as revealed in his works. Institutes of the Christian Religion, 1936, American edition of the translation by John Allen, as well as the extensive collection of Biblical commentaries by John Calvin, available in the Library, will be used as source material. Of principal importance will be the study of the influence of John Calvin upon Protestant theology. Method of study will include lectures, oral reports, class discussions, and a paper on some aspect of the subject. Elective, two hours, summer semester, 1944. Professor Walvoord.

123. Eschatological Problems. A topical study of problems of interpretation in the field of Eschatology. Method of study will include lectures, reports on assigned problems, and class discussions. Elective, one hour both semesters, 1943-1944. Professor Walvoord.

II. SEMITICS AND OLD TESTAMENT

CHARLES LEE FEINBERG, *Professor

CULLEN I. K. STORY, Instructor

The aim of this department is to give the student a comprehensive and accurate foundation in Hebrew grammar, syntax, and exegesis, so that his expositions of the English Bible will reflect this sound basis of interpretation. Thus, the department aims, not to be exhaustive, but rather directive in the matter of further independent study from the original text. To this end the first semester of the course lays emphasis on a thoroughgoing knowledge of the basic elements of Hebrew grammar. Emphasis is directed in the second semester to the acquisition of a workable vocabulary through reading in Genesis. In the third semester stress is continued on the matters of grammar and vocabulary, especially with reference to syntactical laws. The last three semesters, covering Zechariah in its entirety and Isaiah in numerous passages confine themselves to Hebrew exegesis. All exegesis in these semesters is based on the Hebrew text and that alone.

201. Introduction to the Old Testament. A study of the history of the text of the Old Testament, the versions, the formation and extent of the canon, the critical attack on the Old Testament with particular reference to Pentateuchal criticism, the authenticity of the Old Testament, the introduction to the separate books, and Old Testament archaeology. Prescribed, first or second year, three hours. Mr. Story.

202. Hebrew I. The elements of Hebrew, essentials of grammar, with readings in Genesis. Prescribed, first or second year, eight hours. Mr. Story.

203. Hebrew II. Advanced Hebrew. Further study in grammar and syntax with selected readings for the first semester. In the second semester a detailed exegesis of the prophecy of Zechariah. Prescribed, second or third year, four hours. Mr. Story.

204. Hebrew III. This course includes not only an accurate study of the text of the book of Isaiah in the light of its historical background and style, but will deal with the fullness of the Isaianic contribution in the field of Messianic prophecy. Prescribed, third or fourth year, six hours. Mr. Story.

Electives

211. Old Testament Textual Criticism. A study of the Massoretic notes, the parallel passages and the versions, with a view to explaining, as far as possible, how variations have occurred. Elective, two hours, summer semester, 1944. Mr. Story.

212. Advanced Hebrew Reading. Selected portions of the Hebrew text, with emphasis on rapid reading. Prerequisite, two years of Hebrew study. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1945. Mr. Story.

213. Biblical Aramaic. A study of the grammar, with reading in Daniel and Ezra. Elective, two hours. Professor Feinberg.

214. Reading of Selected Psalms from the Hebrew Text. Particular emphasis is laid upon the devotional and practical values. Elective, two hours both semesters. Professor Feinberg.

215. Messianic Prophecies in the Old Testament. A study of the Messianic prophecies in their progressive unfolding, on the basis of the Hebrew text. Elective, two hours both semesters. Professor Feinberg.

216. Advanced Archaeology. A study of the archaeological research in Biblical lands with a view to the confirmation of the accuracy of the Scriptures. Elective, two hours, 1943-1944. Mr. Story.

217. Hebrew Seminar. Old Testament problems. This course is given only for those who have had at least two years of Hebrew, preferably three, in order to allow independent work in some chosen phase of the Old Testament field. Credit will be based on the amount of work and thesis, by sliding scale. Fall semester, 1944-1945. Mr. Story.

III. NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE AND EXEGESIS

BERT BLAINE SIEGEL, Professor of Greek Grammar

JOHN HENRY BENNETCH, Acting Professor of Greek Exegesis

This department endeavors to train the student to do careful exegetical work in the Greek New Testament. In the first half of the course great stress is laid on the mastery of forms and the acquisition of a working vocabulary; in the second half, on the study of syntax and work in exegesis. Use is made of the new light shed on the Greek of the New Testament by the papyri, the ostraca, and the inscriptions. Such works as Deissmann's Bible Studies and Light From the Ancient East, Milligan's Here and There Among the Papyri and Selections From the Greek Papyri, and Moulton and Milligan's Vocabulary of the Greek New Testament are available in the library.

An entrance examination is provided for all new students entering study in Greek (see calendar). Matriculants deficient in Greek are enrolled in the special course of study provided for such cases (see prescribed curriculum for students deficient in Greek). Matriculants who present Greek credits for entrance but are unable to pass the entrance examination may be allowed to proceed with the regular Greek course if they are able to pursue satisfactorily a special review course, Greek 300A in addition to Greek I (302).

All candidates for the degree of Master of Theology in the four-year course are required to read the entire Greek New Testament either in class or in private study before graduation.

300. Elements of Greek. An introductory course intended for the student who has had no Greek or who needs an extensive review in the elements of the language. Text: Davis' Beginner's Grammar of the Greek New Testament. First year, eight hours, not credited toward degree. Professor Siegel.

300A. Greek Review. Special course required of all students who fail to pass the Greek entrance examination, but who evince sufficient proficiency to make it unnecessary to enroll in Elements of Greek (300). Students who enroll in this course may also enroll in Greek I (302). First year, one hour, fall semester, not credited toward degree. Professor Siegel.

301. Introduction to the New Testament. The formation, history and extent of the canon; introduction to the books of the New Testament, including date, authenticity, authorship, etc.; textual criticism; New Testament archaeology. Prescribed, first or second year, three hours. Doctor Bennetch.

302. Greek I. Reading of the Gospel of John, fall semester, and the Gospel of Mark, spring semester, giving especial attention to verb forms. Text: Dana and Mantey's Manual Grammar of the Greek New Testament. Prescribed, first or second year, four hours. Professor Siegel.

303. Greek II. Reading of the Gospel of Luke, fall semester, and the Acts, spring semester, with continued work in syntax. Prescribed, second or third year, four hours. Professor Siegel.

304. Greek III. Exegesis of First Corinthians, fall semester, and the Prison Epistles, spring semester, with continued work in syntax. Prescribed, third year, four hours. Doctor Bennetch.

305. Greek IV. Exegesis of the Epistle to the Romans, fall semester, and the Epistle to the Hebrews, spring semester. Prescribed, fourth year, four hours. Doctor Bennetch.

Electives

The graduate department is designed to aid men who wish to make more extensive study of the Greek New Testament than is possible in the prescribed course. The chief emphasis is on exegesis. It is expected that the candidate for the degree of Doctor of Theology will study all the New Testament books in class. It is possible for men in the regular course to cover many of the books by taking sufficient elective work in the Greek department.

311. The Gospel of Matthew. Reading of the book, discussion of methods of interpretation, and word studies of the most important words. Special problems assigned for research. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1943-1944. Doctor Bennetch.

312. Greek Seminar. Flexible as to material, includes advanced grammar, selections from the papyri, and some special problems of the Greek New Testament. Admission by consent of the professor. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1945. Doctor Bennetch.

313. The Eschatological Epistles and the Revelation. A study in the Greek of 1, 2 Thessalonians and 2 Peter, fall semester, and the Revelation, spring semester. Papers on assigned subjects required in addition to class work. Elective, two hours, summer and fall semesters, 1944-45. Doctor Bennetch.

314. Galatians. A detailed exegesis of the epistle, with an examination of the historical problems raised in the book. Elective, one hour, summer semester, 1944. Doctor Bennetch.

315. Second Corinthians. A detailed exegesis of the epistle, with the use of Greek commentaries. Elective, two hours, fall semester, 1943-1944. Doctor Bennetch.

316. General Epistles. Reading and exegesis of James, 1 Peter, 1, 2, 3 John, Jude. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1945. Doctor Bennetch.

317. Pastoral Epistles. Exegesis of 1, 2 Timothy and Titus. Elective, one hour, spring semester, 1945-1946. Doctor Bennetch.

318. The Septuagint. A survey of the origin and nature of the Greek Old Testament, with reading of selected portions and comparison with the Hebrew text. Elective, one hour, spring semester, 1943-1944. Doctor Bennetch.

319. Rapid Greek Reading. Reading of the Gospel of Matthew, 2 Corinthians, Galatians, 1 and 2 Thessalonians, and James in the fall semester; and reading of the Gospel of Mark, 1 and 2 Peter, Jude, Philemon, 1 and 2 Timothy, Titus, and Revelation during spring semester. Elective, two hours, in two consecutive semesters. Two years of New Testament Greek required as a prerequisite. Professor Siegel.

IV. SACRED HISTORY

CHARLES ASHWORTH NASH, Professor

JAMES THOMAS SPANGLER

In this school of the curriculum the method of instruction is largely by means of lectures and recitation, together with assigned reading of standard works on the various subjects. An outstanding feature of the work in this department in the interpretation of the history of the visible Church is that the truth regarding the unique nature and calling of the New Testament Church is at no time obscured. This is of vital importance, as failure to recognize the purpose of God in this dispensation has resulted, and necessarily so, in a wrong interpretation of Church History.

401. Church History I. A survey of the entire field of Church History and the study of the Church in the first six centuries. Prescribed, first year, two hours, spring semester. Professor Nash.

402. Church History II. From Gregory I through the Protestant Reformation. Prescribed, second year, four hours. Professor Nash.

403. Church History III. The era of modern denominationalism including Church Polities. Prescribed, third year, two hours. Professor Nash.

404. History of Christian Doctrine. The doctrine of the early Church fathers; the Greek apologists and the later Greek and Latin fathers, the Nicene and Post-Nicene theology; mediæval theology, the rise and development of scholasticism; the Reformation and Counter Reformation, the formulation of the creeds, Protestant and Roman Catholic; the modern influence of philosophy and scientific research upon theology. Text: History of Christian Doctrine, Fisher. Prescribed, fourth year, four hours. Professor Nash.

405. Missions. First semester: A comprehensive view of the history of Christian missions with study of related problems. Second semester: a study of the large place missions holds in God's purpose to the end of the present age. In purpose and outlook, the Dallas Seminary has been intensely missionary from the beginning. With a view to an expanding preparation for missionary service, the following fields are examined: (1) Faith missions, their history and achievements; (2) Hebrew missions in the homeland and abroad; (3) missionary principles and ideals; (4) appraisal of the missionary attitude and ideals of the Seminary, a study of the missions under which Dallas graduates are serving, and the particular contribution they are making in these fields. The spring semester also includes a study of cults in contrast to the revealed truth of God which is distinct from all religions. Prescribed, third year, two hours both semesters. Professor Spangler.

Electives

411. Early Church History. The expansion of Christianity and its conflict with Judaism and paganism in the first five centuries of our era based upon the study of selected patristic writings, in translation. Courses 401 and 402 or their equivalent are a prerequisite for this course. Elective, two hours, fall semester, 1944-1945. Professor Nash.

412. History of the Reformation. An intensive study of this period, dealing with the causes of the Reformation and tracing the history of the movement in the various countries of Western Europe. Elective, one hour both semesters. Professor Nash.

413. History of the Doctrine of the Atonement. A seminar course. Prerequisite Course 404, or its equivalent. Elective, two hours, spring semester, 1945. Professor Nash.

415. Modern Religious Liberalism. Lectures and assigned reading. Prerequisite, one year of seminary training. Elective, two hours, summer semester, 1944. Professor Nash.

416. Origin of Religion. A study of the only sane conception of the origin of religion; the origin of primitive worship, prayer and sacrifice; the origin of belief in immortality; the origin of social ethics as seen in the family and its correlates. Elective, one hour both semesters. Professor Spangler.

417. Presbyterian History and Advanced Polity. A seminar course, with classes at stated intervals. Prerequisite, Course 403. Elective, two hours, fall semester, 1944-1945. Professor Nash.

V. HOMILETICS AND PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

CHARLES ASHWORTH NASH, Professor

LEWIS SPERRY CHAFER

JAMES THOMAS SPANGLER

501. Homiletics I. Instruction in the preparation and delivery of sermons based on textbook and lecture, including text analysis and outline development. At least one written sermon is required each semester. Prescribed, first year, four hours. Professor Nash.

502. Homiletics II. A study of the principles governing effective expository preaching combined with practice preaching. Prescribed, second year. Class meets two hours with one hour credit in consecutive semesters. Professor Nash.

503. Practical Theology. A study of the fundamental principles and practices of pastoral service, with special attention to the Biblical foundation in addition to study of texts on the subject. Prescribed, third year, two hours. Professor Spangler.

505. Evangelism. An exhaustive treatment of the principles governing effective evangelism, both public and personal in its threefold division: (1) the messengers; (2) the message; (3) the method. Prescribed, first year, one hour, spring semester. Professor Chafer.

Electives

511. Public Speaking and Reading. A special course for those desiring additional training in public speaking and public reading. Attention is given to the public reading of the Scriptures, hymns, etc. Elective, one hour. Professor Spangler.

512. The History of Preaching. A survey of the art of preaching during the Christian centuries. Prerequisite, one year of seminary training. Elective, two hours, fall semester. Professor Nash.

VI. ENGLISH BIBLE EXPOSITION

Resident Faculty

CHARLES FRED LINCOLN, Professor

CHARLES LEE FEINBERG

Special Lecturers

ROY L. ALDRICH

CARL ARMERDING

HENRY A. IRONSIDE

JOHN G. MITCHELL

This school of the curriculum offers a thorough training in the English Bible. In preparation for or in coordination with the study of the Sacred Text itself, a number of preparatory and survey courses are offered by the resident faculty, in addition to which four visiting teachers, each a specialist in the portions assigned to him, teach twenty pivotal books of the Bible to a combined class of the entire student body. The latter are seriatim courses of fifteen lectures to each period and, in the eight semesters which comprise the full course of study, there are sixteen such series. During the course, all of the sixty-six books of the Bible are taught as required subjects for graduation, part by the resident professor with the assistance of other members of the staff, and part by the special lecturers. Below are the teaching schedules of the visiting Bible lectures and of the resident faculty:

Bible I

601A. Special Bible Lectures by Visiting Teachers as outlined above.
 601C. Contemporary Secular History of Bible Times and Chronology and Outstanding Historical Facts and Factors of the Bible. In the first portion of this course, the main facts of the history of surrounding nations are considered in order to show how they correlate with the history of the nation Israel and how they affect the message of the Prophets. In the second division, a study is made of the factors which enter into the chronology of Biblical and contemporary history and of the Old Testament writings. Prescribed, two hours for eleven weeks in the first semester. Professor Lincoln.
 601D. Covenants, Dispensations, and Related Subjects. Introductory to the general study of the Scriptures, this course is a comprehensive presentation of the major divisions of the Bible, a knowledge of which is essential to a right understanding of the Divine Revelation. Prescribed, two hours for eleven weeks in the second semester. Professor Lincoln.

Courses 601A, 601C, and 601D constitute the Bible I Course and the total credit for the year is six hours.

Bible II

602A. Special Bible Lectures by Visiting Teachers as outlined above.

602B. Bible Exposition. This course comprises a detailed analysis and exposition of the following books of the Old Testament: Joshua, Judges, Ruth, I and II Samuel, and I Kings, chapters 1-11. Prescribed, two hours for eleven weeks in the second semester. Professor Lincoln.

602C. Geography, Topography, Climate, and Map Study of Bible Lands, and Habits, Customs, and Usages of Bible Lands and Peoples. The first portion of this course comprises a study of Bible lands, and of Palestine in particular, in order to make the student familiar with the events, places, and characteristics of the countries which provide the scenes of Biblical history. The second division has to do with the domestic, social, civil, and religious life of Bible peoples, especially of the people of Israel. Prescribed, two hours for eleven weeks in the first semester. Professor Lincoln.

Courses 602A, 602B, and 602C constitute Bible II Course and the total credit for the year is six hours.

Bible III

603A. Special Bible Lectures by Visiting Teachers as outlined above.

603B. Bible Exposition. This course consists of a detailed analysis and exposition of the following Old Testament books: I Kings, chapters 12-22, II Kings, I and II Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, and the Minor Prophets, through Obadiah. Prescribed, three hours for eleven weeks in each semester. Professor Lincoln.

Courses 603A and 603B constitute the Bible III Course and the total credit for the year is eight hours.

Bible IV

604A. Special Bible Lectures by Visiting Teachers as outlined above.

604B. Bible Exposition. This course is made up of a detailed analysis and exposition of the following Old and New Testament books: The Minor Prophets from Jonah to Malachi, Mark, Luke, Philipians, I and II Thessalonians, II Timothy, Titus, Philemon, James, I and II Peter, I, II, and III John, and Jude. Prescribed, three hours for eleven weeks in each semester. Professor Lincoln.

Courses 604A and 604B constitute the Bible IV Course and the total credit for the year is eight hours.

Electives

611. Analysis of Bible Books. In this course each student, independent of all helps, is required to prepare an analysis of selected books of the Bible, present his analysis orally in class, and defend in free discussion his conclusions. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

612. Bible Themes and Connected Series. In this course the student is required to do the actual teaching in practice periods. He is to set up a series of Bible lectures, formulate, outline, discuss, and defend his work. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

613. The Life of Christ On Earth. This course is not designed primarily for interpretation and exposition, but rather it is designed to familiarize the student thoroughly with the course of the Lord's ministry, as recorded in the Gospels, in order that he may instantly relate any portion of the Gospel records to the place, time, and circumstances of the Lord's service on earth. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

614. Bible Difficulties and Problems. This course aims to correlate, classify, and study the difficulties and problems which have perplexed Bible students as evinced by Bible study magazines, books, questionnaire meetings et cetera. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

615. Apocryphal and Pseudepigraphic Books. This course is a study regarding the date, general contents, writers, defenders, rejectors, and reasons for exclusion from the canon of these classes of books. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

616. Types and Parables. A particular and extended study of the types and parables of the Old and New Testaments. Elective, four hours. Professor Lincoln.

617. The English of the King James Version. A study of the archaic words, forms, grammar, figures of speech, and general characteristics of the King James Version of the English Bible in order to enable the minister to explain more readily these peculiarities of the Sacred text. Elective, two hours. Professor Lincoln.

618. The Ancestry of the English Bible. This course is intended to familiarize the student with the principal versions of the Scriptures and especially with the text and features of English Translations. Elective, two hours. Professor Lincoln.

619. The Bible As Literature, Its Character, Forms, and Masterpieces. In this course a study is made, extending beyond the mere chapter and verse divisions of the Scriptures, and beyond the present typographical arrangement of our usual versions, for the purpose of distinguishing the real literary forms and characteristics of the various compositions which constitute Holy Writ. Elective, two hours. Professor Lincoln.

VII. PHILOSOPHY

JAMES THOMAS SPANGLER, Professor

711. Philosophy of Theism. The quest of Theism is to find a rational and adequate ground for the universe, and as a correlative, the rational and only legitimate ground for truth as well as the apprehension, analysis and comprehension of truth. The testimony of conscious experience, logic, reason, science, philosophy, and theology are examined in their united declaration of a Supreme Being. Elective, four hours. Professor Spangler.

712. Philosophy of the Christian Religion. Based on the assumption that monotheism was man's original conception of deity as is now revealed in the traditions of most, if not all, existing tribes of mankind, even the most debased. This course deals legitimately with all the heart, soul, and moral and spiritual experience of mankind in sin, salvation, and righteousness. Elective, four hours. Professor Spangler.

713. Christian Ethics. A study of the first principles and psychology of ethical theory, a survey of the several schools in general ethics to discover their untenableness and inadequacy for the "walk" of the saint. The Bible, especially the Prophets and the New Testament, is set forth as the one sufficient rule of life. Elective, one hour. Professor Spangler.

Graduate School

TERMS OF ADMISSION

General Requirements

The Graduate School is provided for students who have completed college work leading to a degree and have in addition graduated from a standard seminary with a B.D. degree or its theological equivalent. Applicants for admission must have included in their theological training courses satisfying requirements in Hebrew or Greek, or be prepared to make up these deficiencies without graduate credit.

Candidates for the Degree of Master of Theology

For students presenting regular academic and seminary training leading to the A.B. and B.D. or their respective academic and theological equivalents, a one-year course is provided leading to the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Application procedure is the same as that required of regular students. Application is made to the Registrar upon the proper blank form supplied upon request. Official transcripts of college and seminary work are required as a part of the application.

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Theology

Applicants desiring to enroll for courses of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) should make written application on the proper form for admission to the Graduate School, addressing correspondence to the Registrar. Applicants must have completed work leading to the degree of Master of Theology or equivalent theological degree including four years of seminary studies in addition to the work leading to a standard college degree. Application should be accompanied by transcripts of all previous college and seminary courses if the applicant has not previously been a student of Dallas Seminary. Transcripts, recommendations, and other credentials are reviewed by the Credits Committee which can enroll any applicant as a graduate student.

Before making application for recognition as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Theology, the applicant must complete all resident requirements leading to the degree, must have secured credit in the required courses, and must file a syllabus for his dissertation. After completing these requirements, application can be filed on the proper blank for admission to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Theology. The applicant shall submit to an examination, either oral or written, inquiring into the Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement, and promise of the applicant. The examining committee shall consist of the Credits Committee and the professor of the department in which the degree shall be taken or someone whom he may appoint.

Upon recommendation of the examining committee, the faculty shall consider the application and if the way be clear admit the applicant to candidacy. The requirements include a final oral examination which shall be given only after all other requirements for the Th.D. degree have been met including the filing of the dissertation.

Degree of Master of Theology

Thirty-two semester hours of classroom and thesis work are required for the completion of the one-year course leading to the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Twenty-two semester hours are devoted to the major; ten hours are devoted to the minor. The major shall be selected from one of the following departments: Systematic Theology, Semitic Languages and Old Testament Exegesis; New Testament Literature and Exegesis, or Sacred History. A thesis, for which two hours credit is given, must be in the field of the major and meet the same requirements as the graduation thesis for the four-year course. All candidates are required to complete with credit the course in Systematic Theology II (102), for which full credit is allowed toward the degree. All candidates are required to include at least four semester hours of Greek or Hebrew in their course.

Degree of Doctor of Theology

Twenty-four semester hours of classroom work involving at least a full year of residence study is required for completion of the course leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology (Th.D.). In addition to the year of residence, another year of study, which may be in absentia, is required during which the dissertation may be written and other work brought to completion. Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Theology shall be required to complete all work leading to the degree within a period of five years from the time of matriculation.

Sixteen semester hours shall be devoted to the major, which may be selected from one of the following departments: Systematic Theology, Semitic Languages and Old Testament Exegesis, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and Sacred History. The major shall consist of at least two courses of study in the field of the major. Eight semester hours shall be devoted to the minor, divided between at least two subjects. All candidates are required to complete with credit the course in Systematic Theology II (102) unless previously completed in the Dallas Seminary.

A final exhaustive oral examination is required in the field of the major conducted before a committee of the faculty under the direction of the professor in whose department the work is taken, which examination shall be given only after all other requirements for the

Th.D. degree, including filing a dissertation, have been met. Satisfactory written examinations shall meet the requirements of the minor subjects.

A dissertation of not less than 50,000 words shall be presented on a subject chosen by the applicant in consultation with the major professor. Two copies of the dissertation properly typewritten and bound shall be presented, conforming strictly to the standards outlined in A Form Book for Thesis Writing, by William Giles Campbell, and to the additional instructions authorized by the faculty. A graduation dissertation becomes the property of the Seminary upon presentation even if the dissertation is found unsatisfactory. A syllabus of approximately 2500 words is required to be filed with the Registrar on or before Tuesday of the seventh week of the semester before the final semester of the year preceding graduation, and the completed dissertation shall be filed with the Registrar on Tuesday of the seventh week of the final semester, or before, of the year of graduation. A penalty of one per cent in grade for each day late is subtracted unless graduation is postponed to the following year. Should the applicant desire to publish his dissertation, he may be allowed to do so on the approval of the Administration Committee, but the copyright of the published dissertation shall be the property of the Dallas Theological Seminary.

In addition to the dissertation of 50,000 words, all written work submitted for credit toward the degree of Doctor of Theology and bibliographies of all reading done in fulfillment of requirements in the various courses leading to the Doctor's degree shall be submitted for permanent filing in the Library. Both theses and bibliographies of reading done must conform to the standards contained in the approved form book, but only the original copy of these materials shall be required except in the case of the dissertation. Undergraduate material may be submitted for filing upon recommendation of the teacher.

No candidate for the degree of Doctor of Theology shall be allowed to receive this honor from the Seminary who does not hold the system of truth essentially as set forth in the Doctrinal Statement of the Seminary.

Doctrinal Statement

ARTICLE I

THE SCRIPTURES

We believe that "all scripture is given by inspiration of God," by which we understand the whole Bible, and in the sense that the words of the sacred writings were communicated by the Spirit of God to holy men of old; and that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of these writings—historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetic—as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His Person and work and in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction. (Mark 12:26, 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2, 3; 18:28; 26:22, 23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; I Cor. 2:13; 10:11; II Tim. 3:16; II Pet. 1:21.)

ARTICLE II

THE GODHEAD

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—and that these three are one God; having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience. (Matt. 28:19, 20; Mark 12:29; John 1:1-4; Acts 5:3, 4; II Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 1:4-6.)

ARTICLE III

MAN CREATED AND FALLEN

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad. (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Psa. 14:1-3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:6; 5:40; 6:53; Rom. 3:10-19; 8:6, 7; Eph. 2:1-3; I Tim. 5:6; I John 3:8.)

ARTICLE IV

THE FIRST ADVENT

We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as pre-announced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the Eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature. (John 1:18; 3:16; Luke 1:30-35; Heb. 4:15.)

We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earth-life was sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometimes within the sphere of that which was divine. (Luke 2:40; John 1:1, 2; Phil. 2:5-8.)

We believe that He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all. (John 1:11; Acts 2:22-24; I Tim. 2:6.)

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father's will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world; bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was, therefore, substitutionary in the most absolute sense—the Just for the unjust—and by His death He became the Saviour of the lost. (Heb. 10:5-14; John 1:29; Rom. 3:25, 26; II Cor. 5:14; I Pet. 3:18.)

We believe that He arose from the dead, according to the Scriptures, and in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which, at the return of Christ, will be given to all resurrected believers. (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20.)

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished. (Heb. 1:3.)

We believe that He became Head over all things to the Church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved. (Eph. 1:22, 23; Heb. 7:25; I John 2:1.)

ARTICLE V

SALVATION ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles, can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His Person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity. (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:5, 18; Rom. 5:6-9; II Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4-9; Titus 3:5; Jas. 1:18; I Pet. 1:18, 19, 23.)

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation. (John 1:12; 3:16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22.)

ARTICLE VI

THE EXTENT OF SALVATION

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated in and described as such in the New Testament, he passes forthwith out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father according as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. And though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is, therefore, in no way required by God to seek a so-called "second blessing," or a "second work of grace." (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; I Cor. 3:21; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; I John 4:17; 5:11, 12.)

ARTICLE VII SANCTIFICATION

We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ's position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, likewise, that, while the standing of the Christian is thus perfect in Christ, his present state is as imperfect as his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to "grow in grace," and to "be changed" by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe, also, that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be "like Him." (Heb. 10:10, 14; Eph. 4:24; John 17:17; Eph. 5:25-27; I Thess. 5:23; II Cor. 7:1; 3:18; Heb. 12:10.)

ARTICLE VIII ETERNAL SECURITY

We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love; because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritless on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ; because of the prayer of the Son of God while here on earth; because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life; because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven; because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God; because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved; we, and all true believers everywhere, once saved, shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will, when they persistently sin, chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will, in the end, present them, every one, faultless before the presence of His glory, and conformed to the image of His Son. (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 17:11; 14:16, 17; Rom. 8:29; I Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; I John 2:1, 2; 5:13; Jude 24.)

ARTICLE IX ASSURANCE

We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation from the very day they take Him to be their Saviour; and that this assurance is not founded upon any fancied discovery of their own worthiness or fitness, but wholly upon the testimony of God in His written Word, exciting within His children filial love, gratitude, and obedience. (Luke 10:20; 21:32; II Cor. 5:1, 6-8; Heb. 10:22; II Tim. 1:12; I John 5:13.)

ARTICLE X THE HOLY SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, and that He now dwells in each and all believers thus uniting them to Christ in one body, and that He, as the indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the Church, nor from the feeblest of the saints; but is ever present to testify of Christ, seeking to occupy believers with Him, and not with themselves, nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when the Church is completed and when Christ comes to receive His own. (John 14:16, 17; 16:7-15; I Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; II Thess. 2:7.)

We believe that, in this age, certain well-defined ministries are committed to the Holy Spirit, and that it is the duty of every Christian to understand these and to be adjusted to them in his own life and experience. These ministries are: The restraining of evil in the world to the measure of the divine will; the convicting of the world respecting sin, righteousness, and judgment; the regenerating of all believers; the indwelling of all who are saved; the baptizing into the one body of Christ of all who are saved; the anointing of believers to teach them all truth; the sealing of believers unto the day of redemption; and the continued filling for power and service of those among the saved who are yielded to Him and who are subject to His will. (II Thess. 2:7; John 16:7-11; 3:6; Rom. 8:9; I Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30; 5:18; I John 2:20-27.)

ARTICLE XI THE CHURCH A UNITY OF BELIEVERS

We believe that all who are united to the risen and ascended Son of God are members of the Church which is the Body and Bride of Christ—regardless of membership or non-membership in the organized churches of earth; that by the same Spirit we are baptized into, and thus become, one body that is Christ's, whether we are Jews or Gentiles, and having become members one of another, we, and all Christians, are under solemn duty to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian differences, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently. (Matt. 16:16-18; Acts 2:42-47; Rom. 12:5; I Cor. 12:12-27; Eph. 1:20-23; 4:3-10; Col. 3:14, 15.)

ARTICLE XII THE CHRISTIAN'S WALK

We believe that we are called with an holy calling, to walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in subjection to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord. (Rom. 6:11-13; 8:2, 4, 12, 13; Gal. 5:16-23; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 2:1-10; I Pet. 1:14-16; I John 1:4-7; 3:5-9.)

ARTICLE XIII THE CHRISTIAN'S SERVICE

We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved, and that, while there is a diversity of gifts, they, each and all, are energized by the same Spirit, and that, while each believer is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will, there are certain ministry gifts—Apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers, and that these are appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We therefore believe that some men are especially called of God to this high and holy calling, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God. (Rom. 12:6; I Cor. 12:4-11; Eph. 4:11.)

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the appearing of Christ when He comes to receive His own to Himself. (I Cor. 3:9-13; 9:18-27; II Cor. 5:10.)

ARTICLE XIV THE GREAT COMMISSION

We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by Him into the world even as He was sent forth of his Father into the world, and that, after they are saved, they are divinely reckoned to be related to this world as strangers and pilgrims, ambassadors and witnesses, and that their primary purpose in life should be to make Christ known to the whole world. (Matt. 28:18, 19; Mark 16:15; John 17:18; II Cor. 5:18-20; I Pet. 1:17; 2:11.)

ARTICLE XV ANGELS, FALLEN AND UNFALLEN

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one—"Lucifer, son of the morning"—the highest in rank, sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are "reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day." (Ezek. 28:11-19; Isa. 14:12-17; I Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6.)

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people of God, opposing and exalting himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped; and that he who in the beginning said, "I will be like the most High," in his warfare appears as an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone. (Gen. 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-14; II Cor. 11:13-15; I Tim. 4:1-3; II Cor. 4:3, 4; II Thess. 2:4; Eph. 6:10-12.)

We believe that Satan was judged at the cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the "god of this world"; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then "cast into the lake of fire and brimstone," where he shall be "tormented day and night for ever and ever." (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1-3, 10.)

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation. (Luke 15:10; Rev. 7:12; Heb. 1:14; Eph. 1:21.)

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took, "for a little" (time), this lower place, that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels. (Heb. 2:6-10.)

ARTICLE XVI THE BLESSED HOPE

We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of Christ into the air to receive to Himself both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Gospel, and for this we should be constantly looking. We believe, next, that the taking away of the saved ones will be followed by the Great Tribulation in the earth, which was predicted by our Lord, and that finally He will bring to end that time of judgment for the whole earth by His own glorious appearing. (John 14:1-3; I Cor. 15:51, 52; Phil. 3:20; I Thess. 4:13-18; Titus 2:11-14; II Thess. 2:7-10; Matt. 24:29-31.)

ARTICLE XVII THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

We believe that the world will not be converted previous to the second coming of Christ, but is day by day ripening for judgment, and that this dispensation will end with a fearful apostasy in the professing church, and that, following the period of the Great Tribulation in the earth, the Lord Jesus Christ will return as He went—in Person, on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory—to introduce the millennial age, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God's covenant promises, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God, and to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation. (Matt. 24:15-25:46; Acts 15:16, 17; I Tim. 4:1-3; II Tim. 3:1-5; Deut. 30:1-10; Ezek. 37:21-28; Rom. 11:25-27; Rev. 10:1-3; Isa. 11:9; Rom. 8:19-23.)

ARTICLE XVIII THE ETERNAL STATE

We believe that, at death, the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power. (Luke 16:19-26; 23:42; II Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; II Thess. 1:7-9; Jude 6, 7; Rev. 20:11-15.)

Alumni

Editor's Note: Only degrees and certificates of graduation from the Dallas Theological Seminary are included in the alumni list. A Seminary degree presupposes a degree from college or university; a certificate of graduation presupposes a college degree had not been earned at the time of graduation.

STEARNS HALL, DORMITORY FOR SINGLE MEN

The neglected rural areas of Texas, long deprived of Gospel preaching, are the scenes of effective ministry of the Seminary students shown in the picture. Sunday Schools and churches have sprung up where there had been no Gospel meetings before. One county has been organized by a group of students into a coöperative Gospel fellowship with coöperation of seven communities in union evangelistic and young peoples meetings, and services weekly at key points. The testimony of those ministering: "Serving the Lord in out-of-the-way places has consistently proven challenging, thrilling, fruitful and indeed a precious privilege."

The challenge of the great areas of the world unreached by the Gospel occupies the Foreign Missionary Fellowship composed of those expecting service on the foreign field. A major ministry of the group is a program of daily prayer meetings in which the great missionary areas of the world are systematically made the subject of prayer. The group contributes offerings to missionary work and engages in spreading information about various missionary fields.

The great need of young people of our generation for the Gospel is recognized by student ministry to them along many lines. Eleven students are employed in the work of the Young Life Campaign, sponsoring informal clubs for young people, reaching them with the Gospel, Bible instruction, and inspiration. Thirteen clubs scattered in such places as Houston, Teague, Gainesville, Fort Worth, Texas, and Tulsa and Marietta, Oklahoma, reach an average of 335 young people each week. By conducting Gospel meetings in high school assemblies, 20,000 young people were reached in the fall months alone. Another important ministry of students and their wives is in the Good News Clubs sponsored by the Child Evangelism Fellowship. Students hold important offices in this organization, one being field director and associate editor of the publication, Child Evangelism, another under appointment for Alaska, and others engaged in local ministry including a very fruitful ministry to children in government housing projects. At the Y. M. C. A. five students meet with the underprivileged newsboys who have free membership and conduct Gospel meetings, Bible clubs, as well as recreation.

Many opportunities for evangelism are open in the Dallas area including Gospel missions, street meetings, jail services, and other form of evangelism. Work in the Mexican mission is carried on by several students, including house-to-house visitation, Bible distribution, and services in Spanish.

EVANGELISM

PASTORS

Advanced students in the Seminary often minister to local churches as part-time pastors not only performing a notable service in the ministry of the Word of God but also obtaining valuable experience in preaching and pastoral work.

Bible teaching is a principal activity in student ministry, taking many forms. In addition to ministry to young people's groups, already described, students minister in teaching Sunday School classes, and conduct other regular Bible teaching appointments. A number of students teach in the Dallas Bible Institute and its branches and in the Southern Bible Training School.

BIBLE TEACHING

Student activities are centered in the work of the student organization which meets frequently for consideration of their mutual problems and testimony. Officers of the student organization for 1943-1944 as shown in the picture are as follows: Bottom, left to right: Frank A. Venn, President; Irvin E. Grubbs, Campus Activities Director; top: John L. Mitchell, Christian Service Director; George F. Sheffer, Vice President; Wallace S. Pollock, Secretary-Treasurer.

Containing over 18,000 bound volumes and 2,000 pamphlets, the Seminary library includes the carefully selected personal library of the late W. H. Griffith Thomas, D.D., in addition to the thousands of other books which comprise the total. Approximately 100 religious periodicals are received regularly including most of the substantial Biblical and theological periodicals of the world. For its size, it is one of the best theological libraries in the country.
