PREPARING THE MINISTER

Our bewildered generation demands men who can preach and teach the Word with conviction, understanding and spiritual power. Dallas Theological Seminary was founded to prepare such men. Its Faculty and Board are committed to the historic faith of the church in the infallible inspiration of the Scriptures, the only authoritative rule of faith and life. Its philosophy of education and curriculum are in harmony with its theology; the Bible is its central textbook; the Holy Spirit is the only infallible interpreter of the Word.

The work of the Holy Spirit is indispensable to effective preparation of the minister of the Word. The Seminary, therefore, expects its students to be yielded to the Spirit of God, obedient to His will, and to recognize His divine authority in all areas. The disciplines of study, research and practice, under the supervision of the faculty, must be guided and undergirded by the person and power of the Holy Spirit. Only with such preparation can the demands of a modern world be met effectively by holy living and Spirit-filled preaching of eternal truths.

As President of the Seminary, I invite young men called of God to consider the Biblically oriented education offered at Dallas Seminary. For those who qualify for admission, there is a rich experience of preparation for a lifetime ministry of preaching the Word of God.

WHAT IS A THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY?

It is many things to many people. To some, it is quiet buildings guarded by stately trees. To others, it is lecture halls and offices, libraries and preaching rooms, dormitories and the student lounge. To others, it is touch football after class, and hearty friendships, worshipful chapels, examination booklets, class projects and long informal chats with a professor.

A theological seminary may be all of these things — but it is more.

Above all, a seminary must be a family of men banded together in a magnificent adventure: the adventure of living life under God.

At Dallas Seminary, teachers as well as students consider it their responsibility to have a whole-souled encounter with God. Not only do professors teach; they continually dig into the Scriptures themselves to seek the wisdom of God. Whenever there are great questions to be answered — of life and death, trust and doubt, forgiveness and guilt — they look to God for the answers He has given. So, when they speak to their students in the classroom, they teach from a deep-rooted life. Their roots go underground in the soil of man's struggle and in the subsoil of the inspired Word of God.

At such a Seminary, the student himself has the opportunity of working, praying and searching with them.

The moment a man walks on campus, he senses the difference between seminary life and the university life he has known before.

For one thing, he is encouraged not only to ask questions, but he is encouraged to find answers in the Scriptures. In the past, his education has been broad, moving over the wide expanses of human knowledge. Now, he becomes a specialist. His pursuit of truth goes deep into the pages of an infallible Revelation.

No longer is he merely "taught." He is given a set of tools and encouraged to dig for himself.

He still sits in classes, of course. He reads books by the score (and will do so all his life) and seeks to save the fire from the ashes of the past. He learns to preach, investing hours in not only finding his message, but in saying it so that men will hear and understand. But as he develops his mind and sharpens his skills, he does more than these things.

He cultivates a walk with God himself. He comes to rely on God the Holy Spirit to spell out His truth to him so that he might rightly understand it. He arises from his study to be taken by the hand and to be led by God into deep experience and vital service. He becomes God's man. He is shaped into a Christian leader who is a devoted servant of Jesus Christ.

DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

PURPOSE

The Dallas Theological Seminary was founded to provide the highest standard of theological instruction, teaching and defending the faith of evangelical Protestantism from the viewpoint of the premillennial system of doctrine.

The primary purpose of Dallas Theological Seminary is therefore to educate men for an effective Christian ministry in the exposition of the Scriptures. This is implemented by instruction in biblical literature, exposure to various systems of thought, development of spiritual gifts and cultivation of the spiritual life. Quality instruction at the graduate level is provided, therefore, to prepare Christian leaders to serve throughout the world as pastors, teachers, missionaries, evangelists and administrators.

Recognizing, on the one hand, that man unassisted by God can only achieve tentative conclusions in the theological realm, and convinced, on the other hand, that God has overcome this limitation by revelation, the Seminary gives primary emphasis to instruction in the Scriptures. In order to attain a high level of scholarship in biblical studies, each student is required to gain facility in Hebrew and Greek so that he is able to study the Scriptures in their original languages.

In order to produce Christian workers who are well informed, students are also exposed to major theological and philosophical systems of belief and practice, and they are asked to evaluate these critically in the light of their own theological convictions.

In order to develop spiritual gifts, students are given instruction in preaching, teaching, counseling and administration. Students apply their knowledge through actual experience in churches, schools and other places of Christian service.

Along with academic excellence and practical experience, students are encouraged to develop Christian maturity and to become men of the highest moral and ethical character who will live exemplary lives before their families, their congregations and their fellowmen.

HISTORY

In the fall of 1924 a little band of 12 students met in rented quarters at Dallas, Texas. This was the first student body of the Dallas Theological Seminary. These men had gathered to study under the noted Bible teacher, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. The meeting was the result of a burden and a vision. While conducting an active ministry throughout the western world, Dr. Chafer recognized the need for a ministerial preparation that majored in expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures. Moved by this burden, Dr. Chafer, in the winter of 1921, invited Dr. Alex B. Winchester, pastor extramuros of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, and Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, an outstanding Anglican scholar and Professor of Old Testament Exegesis at Wycliffe College, Toronto, to meet with him in Atlanta, Georgia, to consider the possibility of founding a theological seminary.

Two years later while Dr. Chafer was ministering at the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Texas, he shared his burden with Dr. William M. Anderson, noted pastor of that church. Along with the other Christian scholars contacted by Chafer, Dr. Anderson found that the burden became a vision. He called together a group of interested men to form the first temporary board. In May, 1924, Dr. Rollin T. Chafer organized the school and the Seminary was incorporated by the State of Texas on February 16, 1925, under the name Evangelical Theological College.

God continued to prosper the institution. In 1926 generous friends purchased the first portion of the present site. The following year the first building was erected with funds provided by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davidson in memory of Mr. Davidson's mother. After the erection of the Lidie C. Davidson Hall, the members of the Bible classes of the Reverend Daniel Miner Stearns of Philadelphia erected a dormitory, the D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall. In 1929 Mr. George T. Bisel of Philadelphia purchased a large apartment house which added the full frontage on Swiss Avenue to the campus site.

In a further effort to give men a thorough theological education the Seminary pioneered in offering a standard four year course for graduation, leading to the degree of Master of Theology. Incorporating all of the essential theological courses offered in a three year curriculum, the new program gave additional emphasis to Systematic Theology, Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis, Greek and New Testament Exegesis and English Bible Exposition. Since its institution in 1935, further refinements have been made and additional courses in Practical Theology, Missions, Church History and Christian Education are now available to the Dallas student.

The name of the school was changed from Evangelical Theological College to Dallas Theological Seminary in July, 1936.

Significant contributions to the development of the purposes and program of the Seminary have been made by its two presidents: Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer (1924-1952), and Dr. John F. Walvoord who was inaugurated in 1952.

Throughout these years of development and change, the Seminary has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to the Biblical truths set forth in its doctrinal statement. Each year the faculty and members of the board reaffirm their agreement with this well known statement of the Christian faith.

ACCREDITATION

Dallas Theological Seminary is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the regional accrediting agency of the southern states, with accreditation of programs leading to the Th.M., S.T.M., and Th.D. degrees.

DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

Dallas Theological Seminary is denominationally unrelated. The faculty, governing boards and students are members of various denominational or independent churches. The Seminary seeks to serve those of like Biblical faith in evangelical Protestantism and welcomes to its student body qualified men who are in sympathy with the Seminary's doctrinal position.

LOCATION

Dallas Theological Seminary is located in Dallas, Texas, one of the fastest growing cities in the thriving Southwest. Dallas is a city of over 800,000 people with a metropolitan area population of over a million inhabitants.

Dallas is a pleasant place to live. It is clean and modern. The city boasts beautiful residential areas, parks and playgrounds, fine schools and universities. Students and their families enjoy its two art museums, the aquarium and an outstanding zoo. The city also supports a wide variety of cultural activities as well as all kinds of spectator and participant sports.

Dallas is the business capital of the Southwest. Its banks, offices, hospitals and factories provide ample employment opportunities for students and their wives.

Dallas has an abundance of good housing, and the cost of living is lower than in most other cities.

Coupled with all of its other advantages is Dallas' mild climate. Much of Dallas living is out of doors. Its mean annual temperature is 65 degrees.

THE CAMPUS

The Seminary campus, with its well kept lawns and Spanish-styled buildings, occupies eight acres of land in one of the established residential sections of Dallas. The downtown business district is close by and easily reached by students in a matter of minutes. On this campus the student will find the classrooms, the library, the chapel and the living quarters that will be home to him during his Seminary career. This is where he will live, study and worship.

Lidie C. Davidson Hall, in the center of the campus, is the main building of the Seminary. This three story brick building houses the administration offices as well as some classrooms and faculty offices. The facilities for the Departments of Christian Education and Practical Theology are situated on the third floor.

D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall, on the south side of the campus, is connected to Davidson Hall by an attractive Spanish type cloister. This four story building is the main dormitory for single students. The Deans' offices as well as several faculty offices are also found in this building.

Mosher Library, dedicated in 1960 and located on the north side of the campus, is one of the most modern and efficient library buildings in the Southwest. The present book stacks, large enough for at least 80,000 volumes, are placed so that the students who study in the library may have easy access to the abundant resource materials. Study facilities are provided in a formal reading area, a periodical room, typing carrels, stack carrels, conference rooms and informal reading areas. A microfilm room contains reading and reading-printing machines for using the library's growing microform collection. Similarly, a listening room with eight tape machines serves in the use of the expanding collection of tapes of sermons and lectures. Periodically, exhibits of rare books, missionary curios, and other objects of interest are displayed in the museum room. The basement of the library building is at present used for classrooms and a post office area, but with the growth of the library, it will ultimately provide additional study area and book storage facilities. Approximately three thousand carefully selected volumes are added to the collection each year, and the library building has been planned to house a total of 125,000 volumes.

The library was started in 1925 with 6,000 volumes from the personal library of W. H. Griffith Thomas. Notable additions have been made from the personal collections of Dr. Harry A. Ironside, Dr. Howard A. Kelly, Dr. Perry Wayland Sinks, Prof. M. McQueen Weir, Dr. Judson B. Palmer, and Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, as well as many other smaller collections. An unusually rich collection of devotional classics and middle 19th century evangelical works was acquired in the 2,300 volumes purchased from Ewing College in 1943. Another significant addition was made in 1946 through a collection of 4,000 volumes from an old New England library dating from the early 19th century.

The periodical department, which numbers over 400 titles, provides rich sources of material for research work. It contains most of the important scholarly, religious, Biblical, missionary and theological journals being published throughout the world. Since 1969 Mosher Library has been indexing approximately 200 of the most significant periodicals it receives for its students and making the monthly subject index available to other libraries on a subscription basis. In addition to current periodicals, the library has an impressive collection of the back numbers of nearly 750 periodicals, including complete runs of some of the most important journals published in the 19th century.

A unique feature of Mosher Library is the Griffith Thomas Sermon Text Index. This index contains at least 50,000 references to sermons and sermonic outlines covering almost every text in the Bible.

In addition to this specialized collection of books housed in the Seminary library, the student has access to the resources of libraries throughout the nation through interlibrary loan. Students are also free to consult the library of Southern Methodist University and other theological libraries in the area which make available well over one million volumes.

Student Residence Halls are also located on or near the campus. Stearns Hall and Lincoln Hall, residential type buildings, provide individual rooms for 120 single students. Cafeteria facilities are located in Lincoln Hall.

Lewis Sperry Chafer Chapel, has an auditorium that seats 490 people. The building contains the offices of the Registrar, an Audio Visual Center and a recording studio.

Apartments are available for married students in Seminary-owned apartment buildings situated on or near the campus. All but five of these comfortable apartments are furnished, the rest are semi-furnished units. Rents for these units are much less than for comparable units off the campus. Applications for these apartments are filed by date.

The Seminary Book Room is the student supply store, and is a popular browsing spot on campus. Through the book room, the Dallas student has access to all books in print on Biblical and theological themes. The book room also carries a variety of school supplies and filing equipment.

The Snack Shop, in Davidson Hall, provides a meeting room with a snack service for student and faculty use throughout the day.

Special Teaching Facilities, which include a wide variety of teaching tools, allow the Seminary faculty to impart knowledge as clearly and as thoroughly as possible. The Audio Visual Center provides for the use of the faculty many audio visual aids for their classroom presentations. Student sermons are recorded on a videotape recorder. Practice rooms and a sound studio are also available for work outside of homiletics class. A tape library with recordings of sermons by well-known preachers permits the students to hear, as well as read, noted pulpit presentations. A special room with a one-way glass mirror is available for observing students in actual teaching situations. The radio studio provides complete facilities for the training of students in radio and for the production of the Seminary radio program, Heritage.

THE STUDENT HANDBOOK

The faculty recognizes the freedom of each student to develop under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Since students at the Seminary are already recognized as Christian leaders by men and women in the community, it is essential that they live a God-controlled life both on and off the campus. The Seminary believes that the use of tobacco and intoxicating liquor, and other questionable practices, are not suitable for Christian leaders. Students are expected to share these convictions and abide by them. The Student Handbook, a handy guide to life on the Seminary campus, is distributed by the Registrar to all students enrolled in the Seminary.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

The results of theological study should be reflected in a dynamic Christian outreach. The Dallas-Ft Worth area provides splendid opportunities for student witness. Area churches welcome students to teach Sunday School classes and to lead young people's groups. The missions, jails, local YMCA chapters and hospitals in the city provide choice fields for effective testimony. As the student advances in his studies, he will find other openings in Christian education, church music and church extension. Advanced students are sometimes able to serve as pastors while in Seminary, but new students are advised against seeking pastoral appointments, since such work may severely hamper their academic pursuits.

THE STUDENT LIFE

Dallas Seminary has its share of buildings and lawns on an attractive and well-equipped campus. But brick and mortar, grass and trees do not make a seminary. People do — and the Seminary campus is alive because of the God-called men from all parts of the world who come to teach and study here. The atmosphere of the Seminary develops creative thought and powers of expression. Learning at Dallas is not limited to a classroom. It takes place in the informal gathering of students in the Snack Shop, or in the quiet talks with professors after class. Learning is a result of the outreach to the city with a Christian witness. God is at work preparing men as they bow in prayer for classmates and friends, or as they ask penetrating questions of the Christian leaders who visit the campus. All of this is a vital part of what is known as Dallas Seminary.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The faculty's confidence in the maturity of the student body is seen in the operation of the Student Council, the voice of the student body on campus. The council serves primarily to integrate all phases of the extra-curricular life of the student body. Each of the four classes elects representatives to the Student Council, and those elected are then appointed to various committees by the Council officers. Matters pertaining to student-faculty relationships are channeled through a special committee of faculty members and members of the Council.

STUDENT PUBLICATION

The Kethiv Qere is a weekly news sheet distributed to students without charge throughout the school year. News items of campus activities, places of faculty ministry, articles of interest in specialized areas of theological thought all help to bind the Seminary family together.

WIVES' ACTIVITIES

The Wives' Fellowship provides for an active association of the wives of students and faculty members. Weekly meetings feature addresses and informal discussions designed to prepare the wife for her part in her husband's ministry. Social gatherings throughout the year provide fellowship and create deep friendships.

The Wives' Evening Class also meets weekly and provides an integrated series of courses which reflect the emphasis of the regular Seminary curriculum. Dr. Donald K. Campbell, Academic Dean, serves as Faculty Adviser and all classes are taught by Faculty members.

THE ATHLETIC PROGRAM

Since a healthy body aids a healthy mind, the athletic program at the Seminary provides wholesome recreation in the midst of a busy Seminary life. Class teams compete in an intramural program of touch football, basketball, softball, golf, soccer and table tennis. A Seminary team also competes in the Dallas church basketball league. Gymnasium facilities are available to Seminary students in a nearby church, and in the downtown Y.M.C.A. which is a short drive from the campus.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dallas Seminary alumni cherish a lifelong link with their alma mater. Alumni groups have been organized in localities spanning the United States from New England to Southern California and in the countries of Canada and Guatemala. Alumni cooperate in many ways to insure the growth and development of the Seminary. They interest students in the school, contribute liberally to provide adequate physical and academic facilities and support the W. H. Griffith Thomas lectureship each year. This eager partnership of former students in the work of the school has been a major factor in enabling the Seminary to reach its present stature.

The alumni secretary keeps current address and information files and acts as a coordinating center for alumni activities. Information on graduates is also utilized by the Alumni Placement Service in supplying Dallas-prepared men for churches and schools throughout the world.

LECTURESHIPS

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Memorial Lectureship was created in memory of William Henry Griffith Thomas (1861-1924), who was associated with Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer in the founding of Dallas Seminary. Since 1943 the Alumni Association has sustained the lectures financially and has encouraged their publication in book form and in Bibliotheca Sacra.

THE FACULTY

The greatest asset of a theological seminary is its faculty. These men translate the philosophy of the seminary into meaningful terms in the classroom. The faculty of Dallas Seminary are well-educated, warm-hearted and dedicated to Jesus Christ. They have studied at institutions whose reputations are recognized throughout the world. Although Dallas professors devote much time to teaching, they are also active in their studies. Members of the faculty publish the fruits of their research in an impressive number of books and in articles for theological journals and popular Christian magazines.

BIBLIOTHECA SACRA

The Dallas Seminary faculty under the editorship of President Walvoord publishes Bibliotheca Sacra, the oldest conservative theological journal in America. This scholarly periodical contains articles of theological import, reviews of current religious books and magazine articles and notices of new publications in religious literature. Students at the Seminary are provided a copy of this valuable resource tool.

ADMISSION

The student body of Dallas Theological Seminary is limited to men who show evidence that they are born again, are yielded to the will of God, are endowed with necessary gifts and who are not opposed to the system of doctrine taught in the Seminary. The courses of study are planned specifically for those who have completed, with above average academic records, a course leading to the degree of A.B. or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. Exceptions to the scholastic requirements for entrance are necessarily limited. Students from regionally unaccredited colleges will be placed on probation for one year.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND CREDENTIALS

Applicants for all courses of study must file a formal application with the Registrar. Early application is advisable in all classifications. A fee of $10.00 must accompany the application. In addition, the following credentials must be submitted:

A letter of endorsement from the official board of the church of which the applicant is a member stating that he is in good standing and full fellowship and whether or not he is endorsed by them as a candidate for the ministry. In the case of one who is ordained, a letter from the denomination of fellowship of which he is a member certifying his good standing and acceptability as a minister.

A report of a physical examination by a medical doctor showing that the applicant is physically fit for the demands of student life. This report is to be submitted within six months of matriculation.

An official transcript from a college or university certifying the completion of a regular course and the degree awarded with the status of honorable dismissal.

Satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test. The Graduate Record Examination is available on specified dates at most major colleges and universities in the United States. Information concerning this examination may be obtained

PRESEMINARY PREPARATION

In requiring a college degree of A.B. or its equivalent for entrance to the Dallas Theological Seminary, the faculty emphasizes the importance of a broad education as a foundation for specialized study offered in Seminary courses. Study in college is not an end in itself, but rather a means of providing the student with the discipline and general information which are indispensable to further study and to the work of the ministry. It is generally agreed that the best preparation for theological study is a broad program including work in the major fields of the arts and sciences. In order to avoid needless duplication, courses which are normally taught in Seminary should be avoided, except as indicated below.

In recognition of the need for a standard to guide college students in their selection of courses, the faculty has adopted the following statement of minimum work to be done in eight fields:

English (composition and literature)	At least five semesters
Speech	At least one semester
Philosophy	At least two semesters
History (ancient, medieval and modern)	At least two semesters
Psychology	At least one semester

Foreign Languages (one or more of the following):

Greek, Latin, French, German)	At least four semesters
Natural Sciences (physical or biological)	At least two semesters
Social Sciences (Distributed in at least two of the following: economics, political science, sociology, education)	At least two semesters

Additional courses in the liberal arts and sciences areas should be selected to provide up to 90 semester hours. College courses of study with less than 70 semester hours in liberal arts and sciences will be considered unsatisfactory.

All applicants for admission will be expected to meet the minimum requirements of preseminary studies or must make satisfactory arrangement to make up any deficiency under the direction of the Registrar. The subjects listed in these minimum requirements do not include all the courses which would be profitable, but are rather a statement of minimum standards.

ENTRANCE GREEK EXAMINATION

Students entering the four-year course are expected to have a working knowledge of Greek sufficient to enable them to pass the entrance Greek examination. A special course is provided for those who are unable to pass this examination or who have no previous Greek study. The first semester of the language work necessary to remove the entrance deficiency is not credited toward graduation.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Regular Students. Men who are enrolled for the four-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology are classified as regular students. A college degree of A.B. or its equivalent is considered a prerequisite. Regular students are required to maintain a full course of study leading to degree to remain in this classification. Continuation as a student is dependent upon satisfactory progress toward graduation. Regular students are entitled to full privileges in respect to dormitory and apartment space and student employment.

Certificate Students. Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degrees may apply for admission as certificate students. Students in this classification are enrolled in the same course of study as regular students, except that they do not write the Master's thesis, and are entitled to a certificate without degree upon completion of the four-year course. Only a very limited number of certificate students are enrolled each year in the entering class, and admission is on a strict selective basis. Continuation as a student is dependent upon satisfactory progress toward graduation. Qualifications considered include maturity, education; students must be at least twenty-five years of age, and preference is given those who have the best educational background. Certificate students are given dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular students are accommodated.

Special Students. This classification is intended principally for local pastors who desire to enroll for special courses of study. Missionaries on furlough are encouraged to make application under this classification if not eligible for any other. The Admissions Committee is empowered to enroll other than local pastors and missionaries as special students when, in its judgment, unusual circumstances justify consideration of the applicant as a special case. Students in this classification are limited to a total of two years of Seminary work. Special students are given dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular and certificate students are accommodated. Students in this classification cannot hold office or committee chairmanship in the student body.

For information concerning admission to the S.T.M. program and the Th.D. program see appropriate sections of the catalog.

TRANSFER OF CREDITS

Course credits with a minimum grade of C earned at other standard seminaries are accepted at full value to the extent that they can be articulated into the stated requirements. A transcript from the seminary attended will be required, showing the work completed and honorable dismissal. No credit is given on any undergraduate courses completed in college or other institutions below seminary level. In the event any of these courses are clearly duplicate to prescribed courses of the curriculum permission may be given to substitute other courses to avoid needless duplication. A student may be excused from such a course only upon passing an examination in the course.

THE SUMMER SESSION

The summer session is designed to provide academic work for students already enrolled in Dallas Seminary in the Th.M. or S.T.M. programs. Students enrolled in other seminaries who meet entrance qualifications will also be admitted. The summer session likewise provides an opportunity for the continuing education of alumni and former students. The dates for the summer session are listed in the academic calendar. Inquiries should be addressed to the Registrar.

EXPENSES

Student expenses at Dallas Seminary are moderate. Students pay only a portion of the entire cost of their education. All bills are payable at the beginning of each semester. Partial payment plans are available for tuition and dining room charges for students who are unable to pay these expenses in full at registration provided their application for credit is approved by the Business Manager. It is recommended that all students come with sufficient funds for at least the expenses of one semester. Tuition charges are subject to change up to July 1 prior to the opening of the school year.

Experience has shown that single students can meet all necessary expenses, including personal items, for as low as $2,000.00 per school year. A married student's financial requirements will depend upon the size of his family, his housing expense and his personal expenditures. Normally, small furnished apartments can be rented for approximately $75.00 per month and up, depending on the nature of the accommodations. Rental charges are less for Seminary apartments which are available on a waiting list basis. Every student is required to carry hospitalization insurance. A policy is available through the Seminary. Rates will be quoted upon request. For additional information regarding charges listed above see the Student Handbook.

FINANCIAL AIDS

Although it has been demonstrated that students can earn their way through the Seminary course, the policy of the Seminary is to make an effort to assist deserving students in case of financial hardship. Grants for tuition aid are available in special cases. This service is administered by the Committee on Financial Aid, of which the Business Manager of the Seminary is the chairman and administrative director. Awards of financial aid are made only on application submitted to the Committee through the Business Manager. First year students are normally not eligible for financial aid; however, a limited number of tuition scholarships are available to new students with outstanding qualifications.

The Henry Rhine Todd Student Tuition Scholarship Fund. A fund provided by the late Margret Grier Todd, widow of Henry Rhine Todd, and continued by their daughter, Mrs. Ann Todd Rubey, in loving memory of their husband and father, for the payment of tuition costs of students. Dr. Todd was a member of the Seminary Board from 1925 to 1948 and chairman of the Board of Incorporate Members from 1936 to 1948.

The R. S. Hjelmseth and James P. Hjelmseth Memorial Scholarship Fund. An endowment fund provided by the late Beulah (Mrs. R. S.) Hjelmseth, in honor of and in loving memory of her husband, R. S. Hjelmseth, and her son, James P. Hjelmseth, for the payment of tuition costs of students.

THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Three principal programs of study are offered in the Dallas Seminary: (1) The basic four-year program leading to the degree of Master of Theology or a Certificate of Graduation; (2) the program leading to the degree of Master of Sacred Theology for students previously graduated from a three-year seminary course; (3) the program leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology for those presenting the degree of Master of Theology or its equivalent for entrance.

REGISTRATION

Official registration for courses is required at the beginning of each semester, and students cannot be admitted to classes without formal registration at the Registrar's office. For a period of two weeks, change in registration may be made by proper application to the Registrar. Courses begun later than the beginning of the third week of a semester cannot be credited without favorable action of the faculty. A student may withdraw from a course without penalty up to the fourteenth week of a semester with the permission of the Registrar.

MAJOR FIELDS OF STUDY

A major in the four-year program must be selected by the student in one of the following departments: Systematic Theology, Semitic Languages and Old Testament Exegesis, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Historical Theology, Practical Theology, Bible Exposition, Christian Education, or World Missions.

Note: All students are required to elect one course in Missions.

Requirements for a major are stated in connection with the offerings of each department.

GRADING SYSTEM

- A = Excellent
- B = Good
- C = Acceptable
- NC = No credit (Required course hours must be made up in same department.)
- R = Repeat course (Failure)
- W = Withdrew

The grade symbols A, B and C are qualitative grades indicating the level of the student's acceptable work in a course. The grade symbols NC (No Credit) and R (Repeat) are categorical grades given to students whose work in a course is not acceptable to indicate whether or not the course must be repeated. A minimum grade of C is required in every course credited toward graduation.

NUMBERING OF COURSES

The first digit in the course number indicates the department in which the course is offered, e.g. courses in the 100's are in the Theology department, courses in the 200's are in the Old Testament department, etc. The remaining digits indicate distinctions between required and elective courses and between Master's and Doctor's levels. For example, courses numbered from 101-109 are required theology courses on the Master's level, courses numbered from 110-149 are elective theology courses on the Master's level and those numbered 150 and above are theology courses open only to doctoral students.

Courses with hyphenated numbers (201-202) do not carry credit for a single semester; those with course numbers separated by a comma (101, 102) carry credit for either semester.

COURSE PAPERS

All course papers must be typewritten and in thesis form in conformity to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian, and additional instructions authorized by the faculty.

SPECIAL THESIS

Each student taking the four-year course must submit, at least one month prior to the completion of his second year, a thesis of his own composition showing his ability to write acceptable

English and do research study. The thesis is written as a course requirement and must be in acceptable form according to the same standards as indicated under course papers. It is to be presented to the professor of Theology 104 with a declaration of the student's anticipated major. If the thesis is judged unsatisfactory, the deficiency must be removed before the syllabus for the Master's thesis can be filed.

GRADUATION THESIS OR RESEARCH PROJECT

A thesis of not less than 10,000 words is required for the degree of Master of Theology. As this aspect of the student's work constitutes the crowning achievement of his seminary study, in the office of the Registrar on or before Tuesday of the fourth week of the second semester of the third academic year.

The subject of a thesis must be approved on the proper blank by the professor of the department as indicated by his signature. Blanks are available at the Registrar's office. A thesis adviser is to be chosen in consultation with the chairman of the department in which the thesis is to be written. The form indicating the name of the adviser and the approved subject must be filed in the office of the Registrar on or before Tuesday of the fourth week of the second semester of the third academic year.

The syllabus of the thesis is prepared in consultation with the adviser and must consist of approximately 1,000 words. The syllabus must be filed in the Registrar's Office on or before June 15 following the third academic year. Failure to file a syllabus by the deadline will result in the reduction of one letter from the grade of the thesis. The final deadline for approval of all syllabi including any filed late and/or disapproved is September 15 otherwise graduation will be denied. Permission to postpone graduation for one year can be granted only by the Credits Committee.

The first draft of the thesis is written under the supervision of the adviser and second reader and must be presented to them in proper thesis form, that is, typewritten and requiring only minor revision in form and content, on or before Tuesday of the first class week of the second semester of the year of graduation. Failure to present it at this time will disqualify the student for graduation. It is required that the thesis be presented chapter by chapter to allow for progressive correction. At least two chapters must be submitted to the adviser by November 1 or a grade penalty will be imposed. The first draft will be returned to the student not later than Tuesday of the sixth class week of the second semester. Suggestions of the adviser and second reader should be incorporated in the final copy.

One original copy of the final draft of the thesis must be presented in proper thesis form to the Registrar's office on or before Tuesday of the eleventh class week of the second semester of the academic year of graduation. For each day late beyond this date, a penalty of one percent will be deducted from the grade. Students may not elect to extend their academic program for one additional year for the writing of the Master's thesis without Credits Committee approval. The thesis must conform strictly to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian, and to instructions authorized by the faculty. The thesis must be of acceptable merit, that is, it must receive a grade not lower than C, and must be approved by more than one professor. A graduation thesis becomes the property of the Seminary upon presentation even if found unsatisfactory. A thesis fee of $10.00 must be paid at the business office before presenting the graduation thesis to the Registrar's office.

If permitted in the department of the student's major, he may elect to complete a research project in lieu of the Master's thesis. In such case the form indicating departmental approval of the project must be filed in the Registrar's office on or before April 15. Final deadline for the approval of the research project is June 15. All requirements and subsequent deadlines pertaining to the research project are to be met as established by the departmental research adviser.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

In order to be admitted to candidacy for the Master of Theology degree the following academic requirements must be met: (1) The student must have completed with credit a minimum of 90 semester hours; (2) If in the degree program he must have filed an acceptable thesis syllabus, or a form for the research option; (3) He must have removed all entrance deficiencies.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The prescribed course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.) requires four years or eight semesters of resident work. A minimum grade of C is required in every course credited toward graduation.

A comprehensive examination in theology including Biblical and historical backgrounds is required as a condition of graduation and as a part of Senior Theology 108.

The completion of minimum requirements does not, however, automatically qualify for the degree. The student must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

DIPLOMAS

Regular students completing the four-year course of study receive a diploma carrying the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Certificate students upon satisfactory completion of the four-year course receive a certificate without degree. They are eligible to receive the degree diploma (Th.M.) at a later date within five years upon the presentation of a satisfactory college transcript and degree and upon completion of one semester of resident research and submission of a satisfactory Master's thesis or research project.

Transfer of credits for work done in Seminary toward a college degree is subject to strict regulation. Information regarding the policy of the Seminary is available upon request addressed to the Registrar. A graduation fee of $25.00 is charged, which includes the cost of diploma, rental of cap, gown, hood and incidentals. A fee of $10.00 is charged for exchange of a certificate for a degree diploma.

AWARDS

The Loraine Chafer Award in Systematic Theology. An annual award of $25.00 is given by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lee Feinberg in loving memory of Mrs. Loraine Chafer, beloved wife of Founder and President Lewis Sperry Chafer, to the student in the Seminary who ranks highest for the year in the Department of Systematic Theology.

The C. I. Scofield Award in Missions. An annual award of $25.00 is given by the Central American Mission in loving memory of Dr. Cyrus Ingerson Scofield, editor of the Scofield Reference edition of the Bible, ardent exponent of the cause of world-wide missions and founder of the Central American Mission, to the student in the Seminary who, in the judgment of the faculty, has best advanced the cause of missions on the campus during the school year.

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Scholarship Award. An annual award of $25.00 is given by Winifred G. T. Gillespie in loving memory of her father, Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, one of the founders of the Dallas Theological Seminary, to the student in the Seminary who maintains the highest scholastic record in the four-year program, based on the first three and one-half years of work.

The William M. Anderson Scholarship Award. An annual award of $25.00 is given in loving memory of Dr. William Anderson, Jr., one of the founders of the Dallas Theological Seminary, member of the Seminary Boards and Vice-President of the Seminary, 1924-1935 to the student in the doctoral program who demonstrates outstanding scholarship.

The Lewis Sperry Chafer Award. An annual award of $25.00 is given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Hickman in loving memory of Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, President and Professor of Systematic Theology (1924-1952), editor of Bibliotheca Sacra (1940-1952), in Dallas Theological Seminary, to the student in the graduating class who in the judgment of the faculty because of his well-balanced Christian character, scholarship and spiritual leadership best embodies and portrays the ideals of Dallas Theological Seminary.

With the exception of the William M. Anderson Award, these awards are open only to men who are working for the Certificate of Graduation or for a Master's degree.

THE S.T.M. PROGRAM

The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary course. The program is designed to provide an opportunity for additional and advanced studies in the theological disciplines. Students who desire to pursue studies toward this degree must present on application approved college and seminary degrees or their respective academic and theological equivalents. Transcripts of this work must show above average grade standing.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Thirty semester hours of course work are required for the degree of which eighteen hours must be devoted to the major, including thesis or research project credit. The major shall be selected from one of the following departments: Systematic Theology, Semitics and Old Testament, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Historical Theology, Bible Exposition, Christian Education, or World Missions.

The remaining 12 hours may be elected by the student in fields other than his major in consultation with the Registrar.

In all majors except Old Testament and New Testament, the student must demonstrate exegetical proficiency in Greek or Hebrew. In the case of Old Testament and New Testament majors, proficiency must be demonstrated in both languages.

In all majors students must take 103, 104 and 108 Theology and at least one exegetical course. Majors in Christian Education, Missions or History must take two hours in language or Bible as a part of the twelve hours outside the major.

Every candidate is required to enroll in Senior Preaching 506 unless excused by the Registrar in consultation with the Professor of Practical Theology. Additional work in homiletics may be required at the discretion of the Practical Theology department if the student is judged deficient in preaching ability.

Second and third year courses and any elective course open to second and third year students can be taken for credit only on consent of the Registrar.

Written material in the S.T.M. course must conform to the standards contained in the approved form book and may be submitted for filing in the library upon recommendation of the professor.

Ability to do scholarly research must be demonstrated by the acceptance of a thesis of not less than 10,000 words, or a research project, for which two hours credit is given. The thesis must be written in the field of the major and meet the same standards as the graduation thesis for the four-year course. The same deadlines apply as in the Th.M. course unless the student intends to complete his program in one academic year. In the latter case the syllabus must be filed in the Registrar's Office on or before Tuesday of the seventh week of the first semester. The thesis must be of acceptable merit, with a minimum grade of C, and must be approved by more than one professor. Students electing the research project in lieu of the thesis must meet all requirements and deadlines as established by the departmental research adviser.

All work leading to the degree must be completed within five years from the time of matriculation. Extension or reinstatement to the program requires faculty action and subjects the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student may be admitted to candidacy for the S.T.M. degree by action of the faculty at the beginning of the semester of his anticipated graduation, provided (1) he has a minimum grade point average of 1.5; (2) he has filed the first draft of his thesis; (3) he has removed all entrance deficiencies.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate in the S.T.M. course must have completed all required courses totaling 30 semester hours, with a minimum grade point average of 1.5, and must have completed the requirements pertaining to the thesis or research project along with other requirements that might have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify for the degree. The student must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Systematic Theology

Charles C. Ryrie, Department Chairman, Professor

John F. Walvoord, Professor

H. Phillip Hook, Assistant Professor

Robert P. Lightner, Assistant Professor

F. Duane Lindsey, Assistant Professor

John A. Witmer, Assistant Professor

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

The purpose of this department is to present a comprehensive Systematic Theology from the dispensational premillennial interpretation of Biblical revelation and to acquaint the student with relevant theological literature. This is designed to give a basic framework of thought to which all other studies may be related.

The lecture and discussion methods are used based on Systematic Theology (eight volumes) by Lewis Sperry Chafer as the required or collateral text for all prescribed courses. In addition, other reading in the standard works of theology is assigned. The department includes the divisions of Systematic Theology, of Biblical Theology, and of Apologetics and Philosophy and offers elective studies in these fields.

The requirements for a major in Systematic Theology are, in addition to the prescribed work, at least eight but not more than twelve semester hours of elective credit and a graduation thesis in the field.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Prescribed Courses

101, 102 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY Professors Hook, Lightner.

Prolegomena, an introductory consideration of the nature and source of theology; Bibliology, which considers the essential facts concerning the Bible; Spiritual Life, which considers the principles that govern true Christian character and service.

Prescribed, fall semester, first year. 3 hours. Professors Hook, Lightner.

Theology Proper, the doctrine of the Person of God considered in its two aspects: Theism and Trinitarianism. Angelology, an extensive investigation into the revelation concerning the angels, including a study of the unfallen angels, the fallen angels, and Satan; Anthropology, covered in five divisions: the Biblical doctrine of the creation of man; the immaterial aspect of man; the fall of man; sin, and the doctrine of imputation. An apologetic emphasis in relation to the speculative theories of science, philosophy and liberalism is a major part of this course.

Prescribed, spring semester, first year. 3 hours. Professors Hook, Lightner.

103, 104 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Professors Ryrie, Hook, Walvoord, Lightner

Soteriology, treated under seven major divisions: the Savior, divine election, for whom did Christ die?, the saving work of the triune God, the eternal security of the believer, deliverance from the reigning power of sin and human limitations, the terms of salvation; Ecclesiology, including the doctrine of the universal church, the local church and the rule of life for the believer. The organization, ordinances and government of the local church are investigated from the Scriptures and church history. Required of all candidates for graduation.

Prescribed, fall semester, second year. 3 hours. Professors Ryrie, Hook.

Eschatology, contemplating all the Scriptures which were predictive at the time of their utterance, including a brief history of chiliasm, the progressive revelation of God in the dispensations and covenants, the major highways of prophecy in Scripture, the order of predicted events, the judgments and the eternal state. Required of all candidates for graduation.

*Prescribed, spring semester, second year. 3 hours.
Professors Walvoord, Lightner.*

105, 106 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Professors Walvoord, Lightner, Ryrie, Hook

Christology, the doctrine of Christ including consideration of both His Person and His work and its consummation.

Prescribed, fall semester, third year. 2 hours. Professors Walvoord, Lightner.

Pneumatology, the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, including His person and His work in all ages. Special attention is given to the work of the Spirit in the Old Testament, His ministry in salvation and His work in the believer in the present age.

Prescribed, spring semester, third year. 2 hours. Professors Ryrie, Hook.

108 SENIOR THEOLOGY Professor Ryrie

General review of the major areas of Systematic Theology. Survey of other systems of theology including those of contemporary thinkers. Oral drill and class discussion used chiefly.

Prescribed, fall semester, fourth year. 2 hours.

Elective Courses

In addition to the courses listed below, the following courses offered in other departments are credited in this department: 225 Contemporary Old Testament Theology; 417 History of Doctrine. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

110 PROBLEMS IN ECCLESIOLOGY Professor Lightner

A study of selected problems in the field of ecclesiology with special attention to those related to the importance, purpose, organization, officials, and polity of the local church. Method of study includes research, reports and class discussion. Prerequisite: two years of Seminary study.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

111 ADVANCED BIBLIOLOGY Professor Witmer

A study of the whole field of Bibliology designed to augment the prescribed course in this field. Special attention is given to the fields of revelation, inspiration and authority in the light of contemporary discussion. The method of study includes lectures, assigned problems and reports. Available also as a seminar for doctoral students with credit proportional to work. Prerequisite: Theology 101.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

112 CURRENT AMERICAN THEISM Professor Lindsey

A detailed investigation of the doctrine of God as currently debated by American theologians, including representatives of existentialist, linguistic, process and radical theologies. Method of study includes lectures, reports on assigned problems and class discussions. Prerequisite: one year of Systematic Theology.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

113 TRINITARIANISM Professor Witmer

A detailed study of the Christian doctrine of the Trinity designed to augment the prescribed course in this field. After an introductory study of the being and nature of God, the doctrine is constructed and stated on the basis of an investigation of the Biblical evidence. Then the individual Persons of the Trinity are studied. Method of study includes lectures, class discussion, directed personal study and student reports.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

114 HAMARTIOLOGY Professor Ryrie

The doctrine of sin studied from the viewpoints of etymology, Biblical theology, and systematic theology. Lectures supplemented by research reports.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

115 DOCTRINE OF GRACE Professor Ryrie

A comprehensive study of the doctrine of divine grace from the etymology of the words, the revelation of grace in the Old Testament, the revelation of grace in the New Testament and the riches of grace for the believer and his walk. Lectures and research reports.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

116 JUDAISM Professor Witmer

A study of the theology of Judaism in classical and contemporary forms. After an introductory section of definitions and orientation, the subject is considered in three divisions: the Biblical expression of the theology of Judaism in the Old Testament, the classical expression in the rabbinic theology of the Talmudic writings and orthodox Judaism and the contemporary expression in the theology of reform Judaism.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

118 ESCHATOLOGICAL PROBLEMS Professor Lindsey

A topical study of problems of interpretation in the field of Eschatology. Method of study includes lectures, reports on assigned problems and class discussions. Prerequisite: Theology 104.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

119 DISPENSATIONALISM Professor Ryrie

A comprehensive study of dispensationalism including its history, its hermeneutics, its teachings in relation to soteriology, ecclesiology and eschatology, and its comparison with ultradispensationalism and covenant theology.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

120 THEOLOGICAL SYSTEMS Professor Lightner

The study of thirty important works on Systematic Theology including all fields of doctrine. Particular attention is given to those theologies which represent the development of Reformed Protestant doctrine. Works on Roman Catholic theology, Jewish theology, modern liberalism and other systems influencing theology are studied including the most recent contributions. Each student is expected to make a special study of at least two theological systems and report is given to the class. Seventy-five sets of theology are available for study in the Library. Prerequisite: one year of Systematic Theology.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

121 CONTEMPORARY THEOLOGY Professor Witmer

Present-day trends in theology and its application to society are studied and evaluated. These trends are approached on the basis of the specific schools of theological thought, such as neo-orthodoxy, neo-liberalism, etc. The historical backgrounds are presented which set the stage for the present scene. Leading theologians are studied as well. The method of study includes lectures, examinations and reading reports based upon current theological journals. May be credited in either the department of Systematic Theology or the department of Historical Theology.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

122 THEOLOGY OF CRISIS Professor Lightner

The theological and philosophical positions of Barth, Brunner and Niebuhr are studied and compared to Reformed theology. The pertinent literature is examined and conclusions reached regarding the essential theological position of Crisis Theology. Method of study includes lectures, examinations and reports. Prerequisite: at least one year of seminary study.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1971-72.

123 THEOLOGY OF JOHN CALVIN Professor Witmer

A study of the theology of John Calvin as revealed in his work. Institutes of the Christian Religion, 1960, American edition of the translation by Ford Lewis Battles, as well as the extensive collection of Biblical commentaries by John Calvin, available in the Library, are used as source material. Of principal importance is the study of the influence of John Calvin upon Protestant theology. Method of study includes lectures, oral reports, class discussions and a paper on some aspect of the subject. May be credited in either the department of Systematic Theology or the department of Historical Theology.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1971-72.

124 AMILLENIALISM Professor Ryrice

A study of the amillennial system of interpretation in comparison to premillennialism with special consideration of posttribulationism and problems related to dispensationalism. The leading texts advocating amillennialism and posttribulationism are considered objectively and critically. Prerequisite: Theology 104.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

125 PREMILLENNIALISM Professor Lightner

A survey of the system of doctrine and Biblical interpretation involved in premillennialism. The key problems of premillennial interpretation of Scripture are analyzed, including the determining hermeneutical principles, interpretation of key passages of Scripture and the relation of premillennialism to aspects of doctrine. Amillennialism and other opposing systems are carefully considered. Prerequisite: Theology 104.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

126 ECUMENISM Professor Lightner

A study of the history and theology of the ecumenical movement as found in official councils and writings of its leaders and opponents.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

127 ROMAN CATHOLIC THEOLOGY Professor Hook

A study of the theology of the twentieth-century Roman Catholic Church, using a representative Roman Catholic Systematic Theology as a basis for consideration. Variations from the Biblical position are examined. Method of study includes lectures, class discussions, directed personal reading and a paper on some aspects of the subject.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

133 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN THEOLOGY Professors Walvoord, Ryrice, Hook, Lightner, or Witmer

A general course planned for those who desire to study intensively some aspect of theology considered more generally in other courses. Students enrolled in this course are expected to develop some doctrine exhaustively. Plan of study includes intensive reading, conferences with professor and thesis work. Credit is allowed proportionate to amount of work but not to exceed four semester hours in any one subject of study. Enrollment is limited to advanced students in Systematic Theology subject to consent of professor.

Offered in any semester upon request.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

SEMITIC LANGUAGES AND OLD TESTAMENT EXEGESIS

Bruce K. Waltke, Department Chairman, Professor

Kenneth L. Barker, Associate Professor

Donald R. Glenn, Assistant Professor

Allen P. Ross, Instructor

The purpose of this department is to equip the student to expound the Old Testament revelation directly from the original text in the light of Hebrew grammar and lexicography in the context of history, archaeology and literary criticism. The work is necessarily directive rather than exhaustive, aiming to stimulate the student to continue independent study from the original language.

The requirements for a major in Semitics and Old Testament are, in addition to the prescribed work, at least eight but not more than twelve semester hours of elective credit and a graduation thesis in the field.

Prescribed Courses

201-202 ELEMENTS OF HEBREW

Professors Barker, Glenn, Mr. Ross

A study of the basic principles of phonology, morphology and syntax. Selected portions of the Hebrew Old Testament are translated and analyzed.

203 INTRODUCTION TO EXEGESIS

Professors Barker, Glenn

An introduction to the basic tools for exegetical work, including the method for studying a word and the syntax of Hebrew grammar. Application of these tools is made to the readings in the Hebrew Old Testament, including Genesis 1:1-2:7.

Prescribed, fall semester, second or third year. 3 hours.

204 PRINCIPLES OF EXEGESIS

Professor Waltke

An introduction to the critical apparatus in Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia, edited by K. Elliger and W. Rudolph, and to the method of applying the tools of exegesis to selected portions of the Psalms.

Prescribed, spring semester, second or third year. 3 hours.

205 HEBREW EXEGESIS

Professor Waltke

Exegesis of Isaiah 40-55. Class assignments are designed to give the student practice in exegeting the Old Testament.

Prescribed, fall semester, third year, or elective. 2 hours.

207 INTRODUCTION TO THE OLD TESTAMENT

Professor Waltke

General introduction including canon, text and versions, and higher criticism. Books are studied within the context of the history of Israel. Lectures and collateral readings.

Prescribed, fall semester, first year. 3 hours.

Elective Courses

For those who desire a more comprehensive knowledge of Hebrew, or who wish to specialize in the Semitic field, various elective courses are offered from year to year. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

210 OLD TESTAMENT TEXTUAL CRITICISM Professor Waltke

A study of the Hebrew text and versions of the Old Testament. One hour in lecture, and one hour in reading and comparing texts.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

Advanced study in Hebrew grammar correlated with Semitic grammar in general and related to the exegesis of the Hebrew Bible.
Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.
- 213 OLD TESTAMENT MANNERS AND CUSTOMS Professor Glenn
A study of the practices of everyday life in the ancient Near Eastern world that illuminate and explain the Bible. May be credited in either the Department of Semitics and Old Testament or the Department of Bible Exposition.
Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.
- 214 BIBLICAL ARCHAEOLOGY Professor Waltke
A study of the principles of archaeological method and a survey of the chief discoveries bearing upon Bible history and the illumination and interpretation of the Old Testament. May be credited in either the Department of Semitics and Old Testament or the Department of Bible Exposition.
Elective spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1971-72.
- 215 EXEGESIS IN THE PENTATEUCH Professor Barker
An exegetical study of selected portions of the Pentateuch.
Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.
- 216 EXEGESIS IN LEGAL LITERATURE Professor Glenn
An exegesis of the Mosaic Law Code including comparison of the Biblical corpus with the extra-Biblical corpus of law codes.
Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1971-72.
- 217 EXEGESIS IN WISDOM LITERATURE Professor Glenn
An analysis of the principles involved in the exegesis of the wisdom literature with an application of these principles to selected portions of the Proverbs.
Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours
Offered 1970-71.

- 218 EXEGESIS IN HYMNIC LITERATURE Professor Barker
An analysis of the principles involved in the exegesis of the hymnic literature with an application of these principles to selected portions.

NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE AND EXEGESIS

S. Lewis Johnson, Jr., Department Chairman, Professor
 Edwin A. Blum, Assistant Professor
 Zane C. Hodges, Assistant Professor
 Philip R. Williams, Assistant Professor
 Harold W. Hoehner

The aim of the New Testament Department is to provide a course of study which will enable the student to do careful, accurate exegetical work in the Greek Testament. To this end instruction is provided in the background of the New Testament, in grammar and syntax, and in the principles and practices of sound exegetical methodology.

An entrance examination is provided for all new students who have had some Greek (see Academic Calendar). Matriculants deficient in Greek are enrolled in the special course of study provided for such cases (see Basic Curriculum Greek Deficiency Course).

The requirements for a major in New Testament Literature and Exegesis are, in addition to the prescribed work, at least eight but not more than twelve semester hours of elective credit, including 310 Advanced Greek Grammar and a graduation thesis in the field. In addition, all candidates for the degree of Master of Theology with a major in New Testament Literature and Exegesis in the four-year course are required to translate the entire Greek New Testament either in class or in private study before graduation with the use of a lexicon only.

Prescribed Courses

300A-300B ELEMENTS OF GREEK Professor Hodges

An introductory course intended for the student who has had no Greek or who needs an extensive review in the elements of the language. Prescribed first year, four hours each semester. The second semester credited with four hours toward degree.

300C GREEK REVIEW Professor Williams

Special course required of all students who fail to pass the Greek entrance examination, but who show sufficient proficiency to make it unnecessary to enroll in Greek 300A, 300B. Students who enroll in this course also enroll in Greek 301 and the grade achieved in 300C is averaged with the grade for 301.

Prescribed first year, 1 hour, fall semester, not credited toward degree.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

J. Ellwood Evans, Department Chairman, Professor

John W. Reed, Associate Professor

Haddon W. Robinson, Associate Professor

Thomas L. Constable, Instructor

John A. Witmer

The purpose of the department of Practical Theology is to prepare the student to communicate Biblical truth. It includes the divisions of Homiletics, Pastoral Theology and Evangelism.

The aim of the Homiletics division is to provide instruction in the principles and practices of expository preaching. In addition to classroom sessions in theory, practice in sermon preparation and delivery is provided by preaching sessions in regular class periods. Preaching sessions convene in Davidson Chapel which with its pews and pulpit simulate closely a normal preaching situation. An Ampex Videotape Recorder is used which permits the student to evaluate himself as he actually appears and sounds while preaching. Stop action and instant replay features are added helps which enable the professor to offer the student-preacher suggestions for improvement.

The aim of the Pastoral Theology division is to prepare men for an effective pastoral ministry. The student who majors in this department not only studies the theoretical aspects of this type of ministry; he also observes the ministry of two pastors at close range and participates in the ministry of at least two local churches during his last two and one half years in seminary. Specifically he spends at least one summer in a pastoral internship where he serves in a departmentally approved church under the supervision of a teaching pastor. During the school years in which he is a major in this department, he also becomes involved in the ministry of a Dallas area church under the supervision of his major professor and a qualified field supervisor in the church.

The aim of the Evangelism division is to produce men who can do the work of an evangelist. This involves instruction in the biblical basis and methodology of evangelism, study of the problems faced in evangelism, and training in effectively presenting the gospel to the unsaved. The student is not only taught how to present the gospel himself, but he is also trained to teach others how to share their faith.

The requirements for a major in Practical Theology are, in addition to the prescribed work, ten but not more than twelve semester hours of elective credit and a graduation thesis or research project in the field. A student is allowed to take up to four of his major elective hours in the departments of Christian Education and World Missions with the approval of his major professor. Each student is required to take as one of his required electives 549 Independent Study in Practical Theology. A student who is approved by the faculty of the department to major in Practical Theology has the option of taking a balanced major (involving a fairly even distribution of his elective hours among the three divisions) or a concentrated major (in which he takes most of his elective hours in one of the three divisions). The student's major professor helps him work out his elective program on the basis of the student's individual interests and needs. The Director of Field Work guides the student in planning his Field Work program so that he can integrate his classroom work with experience in off campus ministry.

HOMILETICS

Prescribed Courses

501 INTRODUCTION TO HOMILETICS Professor Robinson

An examination of the nature of the preaching task in the New Testament and in the current situation. Principles of structuring the expository sermon. Opportunity is afforded each student to speak in small groups. Critical analyses are given by the professor and students.

Prescribed, spring semester, first year. 2 hours.

502 BIBLICAL PREACHING Professor Reed

A study of style and means of achieving variety in expository sermons. Sermons are prepared both by outline and manuscript. Students are required to preach three times during the semester before fellow students and the professor. Evaluation is given in individual interviews. The student is also required to listen and evaluate selected tape sermons by noted preachers. Prerequisite: 501.

Prescribed, fall or spring semester, second year. 2 hours.

503 ADVANCED BIBLICAL PREACHING Professor Evans

Instruction in the method of the comprehensive exposition of a passage of Scripture. Suggestions are made covering the best means of presenting Biblical truth to the listener. Lectures, visual aids and actual practice in preaching are combined to develop in the student his most effective preaching style.

Prescribed, fall semester, third year. 2 hours.

504 SENIOR PREACHING Professor Evans

Each student is required to preach once in regular class session before his fellow students and the professor in Davidson Chapel. The four highest ranking men will preach in Chapel during Senior Preachers' Week. The recipient of the H. A. Ironside Award in Expository Preaching will be selected from this class. Satisfactory completion required for graduation. Taught by Professor Robinson, 1971.

Two semesters required to complete the course with credit. Students who complete one term serve as demonstrators the second term.

Elective, both semesters, beginning either semester. 1 hour each term.

549 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY
The Department

This course is designed for students desiring to study intensively some phase of homiletics, pastoral theology or evangelism. Limited to majors.

Elective. 2 hours.

FIELD WORK

Field Work is ministry that the student performs off campus. There are two kinds of Field Work: supervised and unsupervised. The emphasis at Dallas Seminary is now upon supervised rather than unsupervised ministry. The objective is to make a man's ministry a learning experience for him rather than just a serving experience.

In order to be graduated Th.M. students must earn seven points of Field Work credit and S.T.M. students must earn two points. Th.D. students are exempt from this requirement. Points are to Field Work courses what hours are to regular academic courses. When a student has satisfactorily completed the requirements of a Field Work course, one or two points (depending on the course) will be credited toward his graduation requirement.

In order to earn points the student must enroll in and satisfactorily complete the requirements of Field Work courses. As indicated below some courses may be repeated and some may be taken during the summer as well as during the fall and spring semesters. All Field Work courses are graded on a pass or fail basis.

Field Work Manuals are available in the Office of Field Work and contain the syllabi of the various courses and sample copies of the report forms used in each course.

525 PRACTICAL WORK

The student can receive Field Work credit for several types of unsupervised ministry in this course, namely person-to-person ministries, Bible teaching and preaching.

*Any semester. Repeatable
(maximum six semesters). One point.*

526A SURVEY OF MINISTRIES

In this course the student is exposed to people of varying social, economic and spiritual backgrounds; a cross-section of churches in the Dallas area; and some extra-church agencies that specialize in one or more forms of ministry.

Spring semester. First year. One point.

526B LOCAL CHURCH MINISTRY

The student is engaged in supervised ministry in one local church in this course. Placement is accomplished by mutual agreement between the student, his Field Supervisor, the pastor (who may be the Field Supervisor), and the Director of Field Work.

526C EXTRA-CHURCH MINISTRY

In this course the student is involved in supervised ministry with a Christian organization or agency other than a local church. Placement is accomplished by mutual agreement between the student, his Field Supervisor, the head of the agency (who may be the Field Supervisor), and the Director of Field Work.

Any semester or summer. Repeatable. One point.

526D PULPIT SUPPLY PREACHING

The course offers the student opportunities to preach in local churches and in other selected settings with supervision.

Summer before or either semester of the year before graduation. Not repeatable. One point.

526E STUDENT PASTORATE

The student receives supervision on the field and on campus while he serves as the pastor of a local church. In order to enroll in this course the student must be pastoring a church.

Any semester or summer. Repeatable. Two points.

526F INTERNSHIP

The student is involved in full-time ministry in a local church, mission field, or other approved context under the supervision of a qualified Field Supervisor in this course. (Students planning to spend a summer under the Pastoral Summer Internship, Missionary Summer Internship, or Practical Missionary Training programs may obtain Field Work credit for these internships by prior enrollment in this course).

*Any semester or

Elective Courses

In addition to the courses listed below, the following courses offered in other departments are credited in this department: 213 Old Testament Manners and Customs, 214 Biblical Archaeology and 329 Historical Backgrounds of the Gospels. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

610 HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY OF THE BIBLE

Professor Hoehner

A survey of the topography, climate, sites and historical events associated with the Biblical lands designed to provide a background for Bible study. Student participation along with class lectures are designed to acquaint one with this field of study.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

611 BIBLE CHRONOLOGY

Professor Hoehner

The major problems of Bible chronology in both testaments are covered. An attempt is made to establish dates for Bible events that fit in the chronological setting of secular history. Along with lectures, student participation in the form of papers and discussions are designed to acquaint one with the problems and the plausible solutions in Biblical chronology.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

612 METHODS OF BIBLE ANALYSIS Professor Hendricks

In this course each student is required to do independent work in an analysis of selected books, to present his work orally in class and defend it in free discussion. He also presents in thesis form the analysis and exposition of one book. Prerequisite: two years of Seminary study.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

613 ADVANCED BIBLE STUDY METHODS Professor Hendricks

A study of advanced principles of Bible study with special emphasis on the following methods: synthetic, historical, analytic, topical, theological, biographical and devotional. Prerequisite: two years of Seminary study.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

614 THE BIBLE IN ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS Professor Ryrie

A study of the ancestry, language and literary forms and characteristics of the English versions of the Scriptures. The historic background of modern versions, the archaic words, forms, grammar, figures of speech and literary masterpieces are presented, that the student may be prepared to explain the peculiarities of the text. Lectures, class discussion and assigned reading and thesis characterize the course.

Elective. 2 hours.

615 BIBLICAL COMMENTARIES AND EXPOSITORY WORKS Professor Campbell

In this course a critical study is made of standard sets and single volumes of an expository character, in order to evaluate them as to their doctrinal, literary, critical and devotional viewpoints, and to determine their general contribution to the student of the Scriptures. Each student is expected to make a special study of certain works and to give a report to the class.

Elective. 2 hours.

616 BIBLICAL TYPOLOGY Professor Campbell

An extended and comprehensive study of the types of Scripture and the justification of this subject as an area of Biblical studies. Particular attention is paid to the history of typological interpretation and to the hermeneutical principles that should govern the identification and interpretation of types.

Elective. 2 hours.

617 MIRACLES Professor Campbell

An analytical and expository study of the miracles of Christ as recorded in the Gospels. Introductory lectures deal with the problem of the possibility of miracles as well as the place and purpose of miracles in the Divine economy. The practical and homiletical values of the miracles are stressed. Taught by Professor Hoehner, 1971.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

618 PARABLES Professor Pentecost

In the course an investigation is first made of parabolic teaching in general. Then a particular and extended study of the parables of the Old and New Testaments is undertaken. Special attention is given to the often neglected prophetic aspect of the parables of our Lord.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

619 THE PENTATEUCH Professor Pentecost

This study considers the Pentateuch as a unit of divine revelation. Its character as introductory to the Scriptures as a whole and to the Old Testament in particular is considered. Its purpose, basic source for general doctrine, structure, unfolding and method are carefully studied. The course includes lectures by the professor, and research reports and theses by the students. Students enrolling in this course may not take 134.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

Professor Pentecost

These books are studied in their historical setting and special attention is given to problem passages.

Elective. 2 hours.

621 THE MINOR PROPHETS Professor Pentecost

This course gives the student an opportunity to do an original study of the Minor Prophets. The prophecies relating to the person, work, mission and purpose of the Messiah in His first and second advents are emphasized. The promises pertaining to the future exaltation of Israel as a nation are collated and the events connected with the realization of those divine promises are noted and defined. The course includes lectures by the professor and research reports and thesis by the students. Prerequisite: two years of Seminary study. Taught by Professor Ryrie, 1971.

Elective, spring semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

622 INTERTESTAMENTAL HISTORY AND LITERATURE

Professor Hoehner

A survey of the intertestamental period from the rise of the Persian empire until the time of the Roman control of Palestine. The contents and contributions of the apocrypha, pseudepigrapha, and the Dead Sea Scrolls are studied.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

623 THE LIFE OF CHRIST ON EARTH Professor Pentecost

This course is a thematic study of the earthly life of Christ, in which the movements of presentation, authentication, opposition and rejection are traced in detail. It is designed to familiarize the student thoroughly with the course of the Lord's ministry in order that any portion of the Gospel records may be related to the place, time and circumstances of Christ's life on earth.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

624 DISPENSATIONAL PROBLEMS IN THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW Professor Pentecost

This course presents a study of the Gospel of Matthew from the dispensational and kingdom aspects, with special consideration being given to the problems involved. The course will include guided study, free class discussion and lectures by the professor. Students enrolling in this course may not take 135.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.
Offered 1970-71.

625 THE GOSPEL OF LUKE Professor Pentecost

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Howard G. Hendricks, Department Chairman, Professor
Gene A. Getz, Associate Professor
James E. Westgate, Instructor

The work of this department is designed to offer professional preparation for teachers of Christian education, educational directors and supervisors, pastors, missionaries and those engaged in specialized forms of Christian educational work. By encouraging students in the methods and techniques of educational research and creative study, it seeks to contribute to the production of textbooks, curricular and other instructional materials with which to promote a Scriptural and total program of Christian education.

The laboratory method is employed throughout in order that the students may be given an opportunity to correlate distinctive content and workable methodology as the two are merged in concrete educational situations. Where two professors are named as teachers for a particular subject, the courses will involve team teaching.

The requirements for a major are, in addition to 601 Bible and 701 The Educational Program of the Church, sixteen hours of elective credit including 710 History and Philosophy of Christian Education, one area study (712, 713, or 714), 715 Pedagogy, and 716 Counseling or 720 Psychological Foundations for Christian Counseling. Six hours must be taken in minor areas including two hours in Missions. Supervised practical experience and a graduation thesis or research project in the field are also required. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

As an active member of the Evangelical Teacher Training Association the Seminary is authorized to grant the teacher's diploma of the Association to students meeting certain course requirements. Information regarding these requirements is available from this department or the Registrar.

Prescribed Course

701 THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM OF THE CHURCH

Professor Getz and Mr. Westgate

This course is structured to orient the student in the field of Christian education. Offered upon request.

Elective. 2 hours.

WORLD MISSIONS

George W. Peters, Department Chairman, Professor
Byang H. Kato, Instructor

The purpose of this department is to present world missions in the proper Biblical perspective and in its relation to the local church so that graduates of the Seminary serving as pastors will seek to build vigorous missionary churches. The department offers sufficient courses in area studies, Biblical Theology of Missions, and missiology to qualify the student for mission service in the various geographical areas of the world as well as the various ministries required by modern missions. It seeks also to prepare men for mission teaching positions in churches and schools realizing that our times require theoretical as well as practical preparation for such ministries.

The requirements for a major are, in addition to 508 Evangelism and 801 Philosophy of Missions, sixteen hours of elective credit. These elective hours must be distributed as follows: twelve hours of Missions including 816, 820 and 821; two hours of Evangelism, 545 Advanced Evangelism. It is also recommended that two hours of Christian Education be taken as a part of the major elective hours. In addition a graduation thesis or research project must be written in the field of missions.

Prescribed Course

801 PHILOSOPHY OF MISSIONS Professor Peters

This course establishes the Biblical and logical foundations of missions and studies the forces that brought about the modern missionary movement. It surveys the expansion of Christianity throughout the world, noting its strength and weaknesses. It interprets the impact of Christianity upon *the world, evaluates the spiritual needs of mankind and notes the various approaches that are being made to meet that need and the agencies and personnel concerned. Prescribed, spring semester, first year. 2 hours.

Elective Courses

In addition to the courses listed below, the following courses offered in other departments are credited in this department: 415 History of the Younger Churches; 545 Advanced Evangelism; 710 History and Philosophy of Christian Education; 715 Pedagogy; 716 Counseling; 717 The Christian Home; 720 Psychological Foundations for Christian Counseling. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

*810 CHRISTIANITY IN AFRICA Mr. Kato

A study of the geographical, historical and cultural backgrounds of Africa. The planting of the Christian Church by various mission agencies; the present condition due to cultural breakup and political independence are considered. The challenge and needs of Africa are carefully evaluated.

Elective, fall semester, odd-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

*811 CHRISTIANITY IN ASIA Professor Peters

The course introduces the student to the cultures of Asia and studies the history of Christianity and the development of the Christian Church in the East. The present-day confrontation with Nationalism, Communism and Cultural Religions is carefully noted and possible approaches are outlined.

Elective, fall semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

The course includes a field trip for observation and study of missions.

Elective, fall semester. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

820 PRINCIPLES OF CHURCH GROWTH Professor Peters

The course surveys the field of church growth and studies carefully the various methods and principles advanced by men of note, several indigenous movements and the modern institutions studying church growth. In addition to the lectures, discussion and reports the student will be required to present an evaluative paper on the various plans and principles or make an independent study of a movement casting critical light on the principles.

Elective, spring semester. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71; 1971-72.

821 A BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS Professor Peters

A study of the Biblical foundations and purpose of missions. The nature of the missionary vocation, authority and scope of the New Testament in relation to missions are carefully noted. The missionary assignment and the Biblical agency of missions are carefully defined.

Elective, spring semester, even-numbered years. 2 hours.

Offered 1971-72.

822 PRACTICAL THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS Professor Peters

The course defines the Biblical goal of missions. It analyzes the four basic missionary laws as made known in the Great Commission. It studies the various patterns of present-day Saturation Evangelism and church planting and practical methods for the indoctrination of new believers and the making of disciples.

Elective, fall semester. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71; 1971-72.

823 THE CHURCH IN MISSIONS

Professor Peters

The course carefully studies the place of the local church in missions, present methods of building missionary churches and recognizes the responsibility of the pastor in the program. It seeks to establish the place of the missionary society and its relationship to the local church.

Elective, fall semester. 2 hours.

Offered 1970-71.

825 THE YOUNGER CHURCHES AND CHRISTIAN
EDUCATION Professors Peters and Hendricks

The course studies the present agencies and programs of Christian education such as Sunday schools, vacation Bible schools, youth training programs, Bible institutes and seminaries. It surveys the printed materials available for such ministries in the various languages of the world. It considers the various teacher development programs, the preparation of adults for family and church life and the new approach through Extension Leadership Training program for the preparation of the ministry. Special attention is given to principles of cross-cultural communication and translation and adaptation of materials.

Students who elect, with departmental approval, to complete a research project in the area of World Missions in lieu of a Master's thesis, are required to enroll in this course. In order to receive credit the student shall develop, submit and defend his chosen research topic or project. Limited to senior majors in this department. Fall semester. 2 hours.

840 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN MISSIONS

Professor Peters

This course is designed to afford opportunity to the student to investigate some aspect of missionary activity or do research on a particular field. The work may be done either in residence or in direct field studies.

Elective. 2-4 hours.

THE DOCTORAL PROGRAM

PURPOSE

The program leading to the Doctor of Theology degree is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level with a view to developing genuine scholars and educational leaders to serve in fields related to the Christian ministry.

Its purposes include the development of the student's ability to do competent research, to think critically and to communicate effectively in his area of specialization. Course studies, seminar work and research projects are part of the student's carefully supervised program which culminates in the preparation of his doctoral dissertation. In addition, the student's spiritual maturity and leadership development are closely observed by the faculty during the course of his study. At various stages in the program, the faculty as a whole or through one or more of its committees evaluates the progress of the student and his fitness to continue his studies.

The program is offered to those holding the degree of Master of Theology or its equivalent and includes three years of study, two years of which, as a minimum, must be spent in residence.

The doctoral program is offered in two areas: Theological Studies (with majors in Systematic Theology, Historical Theology or World Missions) and Biblical Studies (with majors in Old Testament, New Testament or Bible Exposition).

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. An applicant having taken the four-year course in Dallas Theological Seminary with the degree of Master of Theology must meet the following requirements:

He must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies.

He must present satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test.

He must have commended himself to the administration and the faculty throughout the four-year course as being mature and stable in his judgments and satisfactory in his ability to work with others.

He must pass satisfactorily a comprehensive written examination in the field of his intended major and an oral examination on his fitness for doctoral studies. The oral examination inquires into the applicant's Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement and promise.

2. An applicant entering from another institution must meet the following requirements:

He must present official transcripts of his college and seminary work certifying the attainment of the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Theology or their academic equivalents. The applicant must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies.

He must also present satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test.

He must have included in his theological studies courses satisfying requirements in Hebrew and Greek or make up these deficiencies without credit.

He must pass satisfactorily a comprehensive written examination in the field of his intended major and an oral examination on his fitness for advanced study. The oral examination, which must be passed before matriculation, inquires into the applicant's Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement and promise.

3. At the time of matriculation the Dean of Doctoral Studies shall appoint a committee whose responsibility it will be to give guidance and supervision to the student's course of study. This committee normally consists of the department chairman, Registrar and Dean.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. An applicant for the degree must have included in his theological study courses satisfying requirements in Hebrew and Greek or make up any deficiencies without credit.
2. An applicant for the degree shall be required to demonstrate ability to read scholarly French and German. Under certain circumstances other languages may be substituted upon recommendation of the adviser and approval of the Doctoral Studies Committee. This requirement must be met by the time of the completion of classroom work.
3. An applicant for the degree in the area of Biblical Studies with a major in Semitics and Old Testament must be able to think critically in the areas of higher and lower criticism, demonstrate his proficiency in reading the Hebrew Bible, have an advanced knowledge of Hebrew grammar, be able to demonstrate ability in exegesis, have a satisfactory knowledge of ancient Near Eastern history including the archaeological discoveries related to this field, and have a satisfactory knowledge of at least two other Semitic languages. The student will not be invited to take his comprehensive written examinations with this major until he has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department his competency in the Hebrew language.
4. An applicant for the degree in the area of Biblical Studies with a major in New Testament Literature and Exegesis is required to study the entire New Testament in Greek, as far as possible in class, and must translate the entire Greek New Testament with the use of a lexicon only, either in class or in private study and must include in his program 310 Advanced Greek Grammar unless previously completed.
5. An applicant for the degree in the area of Biblical Studies with a major in Bible Exposition is required to achieve a thorough knowledge, both analytical and synthetic, of each book of the Bible. At least four semester hours of Greek or Hebrew must be included in the program. If the applicant does not have the Th.M. degree from this Seminary he is required to take an additional four hours in Bible Exposition, increasing the minimum number of hours in the major from twenty to twenty-four and the minimum number of hours for graduation from thirty to thirty-four.

6. An applicant for the degree in the area of Theological Studies with a major in Systematic Theology who does not have the degree of Master of Theology from this Seminary may be required to take an additional six hours in Systematic Theology, increasing the minimum number of hours in the major from twenty to twenty-six and the minimum number of hours for graduation from thirty to thirty-six.
7. An applicant for the degree majoring in World Missions may submit field projects and seminars for up to six hours of credit in his major.
8. Only courses taken after receiving the degree of Master of Theology can be credited toward the degree of Doctor of Theology. No work done in other institutions will be credited toward this degree.
9. Any course offered toward the degree of Master of Theology taken for credit on the degree of Doctor of Theology will be subject to increased requirements that will place it on a higher level than work done for the Th.M.
10. The applicant must receive a minimum of B in every course credited toward graduation and also on the doctor's dissertation.
11. Thirty semester hours of classroom work involving at least three semesters of study are required as a minimum for the course leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology. After the completion of classroom work and admission to candidacy, the residence requirement for dissertation research must be met. See Graduation Requirements, 2. All work leading to the degree must be completed within five years from the time of matriculation. Special consideration is given foreign missionaries upon request if a longer period is needed. Reinstatement as a doctoral student after five years have elapsed must be upon the recommendation of the Dean of Doctoral Studies and approval of the faculty. Reinstated students will be subject to the requirements of the current catalog and any additional requirements the faculty might impose.
12. The doctoral program is offered in two areas: Theological Studies (with majors in Systematic Theology, Historical Theology or World Missions) and Biblical Studies (with majors in Old Testament, New Testament or Bible Exposition). Each doctoral student shall take twelve hours of doctoral level

- courses in his chosen area which must include at least one course in each major within that area. In addition, he shall take ten hours of courses in his major and eight hours of courses in any department of the curriculum except those of his chosen area.
13. An applicant for the degree may be required to complete with credit Theology 103 and 104 unless previously completed.
 14. An applicant's status will be reviewed by the Doctoral Studies Committee at the close of the first year of his study and at such subsequent times as may be deemed necessary.
 15. A dissertation of not less than 50,000 words must be presented on a subject chosen by the applicant in consultation with the advisers. The subject of the dissertation must be approved by the department chairman and the Doctoral Studies Committee. Regulations regarding the dissertation are given on the subject approval form. The dissertation must conform strictly to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian, and to additional instructions authorized by the faculty. An abstract of the dissertation not exceeding 600 words must be presented with the dissertation. The dissertation is written under the same regulations and procedure as that required for the Th.M. thesis. Should publication of the dissertation be desired, the applicant may be allowed to do so on the approval of the Administration, but the copyright of the published dissertation becomes the property of the Dallas Theological Seminary.
 16. In addition to the dissertation, written work submitted for credit toward the degree of Doctor of Theology and bibliographies of reading done in fulfillment of requirements in the various courses leading to the Doctor's degree will be submitted at the discretion of the professor for permanent filing in the library. Both theses and bibliographies of reading done must conform to the standards contained in the approved form book, but only the original copy of these materials will be required.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Admission to Candidacy:

Before making application for recognition as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Theology, the applicant must complete all resident requirements leading to the degree, and must pass comprehensive written examinations over the fields within the area of his major. The examinations must be taken within the two week period immediately following the completion of all resident requirements. In the event that the examinations are unsatisfactory further work will be prescribed. The comprehensive written examinations will then be re-scheduled when the adviser is satisfied as to the readiness of the student.

Approximately two weeks after the satisfactory completion of the written examinations, a comprehensive oral examination shall be given by a committee of the faculty under the direction of the Dean of Doctoral Studies.

Admission to candidacy will also be based upon evidence of solidarity of Christian character, commitment to the purpose of the Seminary, and promise of effectiveness in Christian ministry.

Upon recommendation of the department chairman and Dean, the faculty will consider the application and if the way be clear admit the applicant to candidacy.

While preliminary dissertation research may be undertaken during the period of classroom work, in no case may the dissertation be submitted, in first draft or final copy, before completion of classroom work and admission to candidacy.

2. After Admission to Candidacy:

The candidate shall remain in residence during research on his dissertation so as to be in contact with his advisers until such a time as the advisers are satisfied that he no longer needs their personal supervision.

The syllabus of the dissertation must be filed in the Registrar's Office on or before June 1 of the year preceding graduation. The first draft of the dissertation must be presented to the advisers on or before November 15 of the academic year in which the candidate intends to graduate. The final copy of the dissertation must be filed in the Registrar's Office on or before February 15 of that year.

An oral defense of the dissertation shall be held before a committee of the faculty. Normally the committee shall consist of no less than three members including the two dissertation advisers and a professor outside of the student's major. The examination will be held after the submission of the final copy but no later than 10 days before Commencement.

A graduation fee is charged which at present is twenty-five dollars. It includes the cost of diploma, rental of cap, gown, hood, and other incidentals. All financial obligations must be met before the degree is conferred.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

Article I THE SCRIPTURES

We believe that "all scripture is given by inspiration of God," by which we understand the whole Bible is inspired in the sense that holy men of God "were moved by the Holy Spirit" to write the very words of Scripture. We believe that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the writings — historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetic — as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His person and work in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion, even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction. (Mark 12:26, 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2-3; 18:28; 26:22-23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 2:13; 10:11; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Peter 1:21.)

Article II THE GODHEAD

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons — the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit — and that these three are one God; having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience. (Matt. 28:18-19; Mark 12:29; John 1:14; Acts 5:3-4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 1:4-6.)

Article III ANGELS, FALLEN AND UNFALLEN

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, "Lucifer, son of the morning" — the highest in rank — sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are "reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day." (Isa. 14:12-17; Ezek. 28:11-19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 1:6.)

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people of God, opposing and exalting himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped; and that he who in the beginning said, "I will be like the most High," in his warfare appears as an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone. (Gen. 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-14; 2 Cor. 4:3-4; 11:13-15; Eph. 6:10-12; 2 Thess. 2:4; 1 Tim. 4:1-3.)

We believe that Satan was judged at the cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the "god of this world"; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then "cast into the lake of fire and brimstone," where he "shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1-3, 10.)

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation. (Luke 15:10; Eph. 1:21; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 7:12.)

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took for a little time this lower place that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels. (Heb. 2:6-10.)

Article IV MAN CREATED AND FALLEN

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad apart from divine grace. (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Ps. 14:1-3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:6; 5:40; 6:53; Rom. 3:10-19; 8:6-7; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Tim. 5:6; 1 John 3:8.)

Article V

THE DISPENSATIONS

We believe that the dispensations are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on the earth through man under varying responsibilities. We believe that the changes in the dispensational dealings of God with man depend upon changed conditions or situations in which man is successively found with relation to God, and that these changes are the result of the failures of man and the judgments of God. We believe that different administrative responsibilities of this character are manifest in the Biblical record, that they span the entire history of mankind, and that each ends in the failure of man under the respective test and in an ensuing judgment from God. We believe that three of these dispensations or rules of life are the subject of extended revelation in the Scripture, viz.: the dispensation of the Mosaic Law, the present dispensation of grace, and the future dispensation of the millennial kingdom. We believe that these are distinct and are not to be intermingled or confused, as they are chronologically successive.

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation nor different methods of administering the so-called Covenant of Grace. They are not in themselves dependent on covenant relationships but are ways of life and responsibility to God which test the submission of man to His revealed will during a particular time. We believe that, if man does trust in his own efforts to gain the favor of God or salvation under any dispensational test, because of inherent sin his failure to satisfy fully the just requirements of God is inevitable and his condemnation sure.

We believe that according to the "eternal purpose" of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always "by grace, through faith," and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the ruling dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation. (1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2, 3:9, A.S.V.; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4, A.S.V.)

* We believe that it has always been true that "without faith it is impossible to please" God (Heb. 11:6), and that the principle of faith was prevalent in the lives of all the Old Testament saints. However, we believe that it was historically impossible that they should have had as the conscious object of their faith the incarnate, crucified Son, the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and that it is evident that they did not comprehend as we do that the sacrifices depicted the person and work of Christ. We believe also that they did not understand the redemptive significance of the prophecies or types concerning the sufferings of Christ (1 Peter 1:10-12); therefore, we believe that their faith toward God was manifested in other ways as is shown by the long record in Hebrews 11:1-40. We believe further that their faith thus manifested was counted unto them for righteousness (cf. Rom. 4:3 with Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:5-8; Heb. 11:7).

Article VI

THE FIRST ADVENT

We believe that, as provided and proposed by God and as pre-announced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature. (Luke 1:30-35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15.)

We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earth-life sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometime within the sphere of that which was divine. (Luke 2:40; John 1:1-2; Phil. 2:5-8.)

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all. (John 1:11; Acts 2:22-24; 1 Tim. 2:6.)

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father's will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world; bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was, therefore, substitutionary in the most absolute sense — the just for the unjust — and by His death He became the Savior of the lost. (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25-26; 2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 10:5-14; 1 Peter 3:18.)

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers. (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20.)

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished. (Heb. 1:3.)

We believe that He became Head over all things to the church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved. (Eph. 1:22-23; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1.)

Article VII SALVATION ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity. (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:7-18; Rom. 5:6-9; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4-9; Titus 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Peter 1:18-19, 23.)

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only

* through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation. (John 1:12; 3:16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16-17; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22.)

Article VIII THE EXTENT OF SALVATION

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated and described as such in the New Testament, he passes immediately out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father according as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is, therefore, in no way required by God to seek a so-called "second blessing," or a "second work of grace." (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 3:21-23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11-12.)

Article IX SANCTIFICATION

We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ's position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, however, that he retains his sin nature, which cannot be eradicated in this life. Therefore, while the standing of the Christian in Christ is perfect, his present state is no more perfect than his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to "grow in grace," and to "be changed" by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe, also, that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be "like Him." (John 17:17; 2 Cor. 3:18; 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 5:25-27; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 10:10, 14; 12:10.)

Article X

ETERNAL SECURITY

We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love, because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritless on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ, because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life, because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven, because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God, because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved, we and all true believers everywhere, once saved shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will when they persistently sin chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one of them faultless before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son. (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 14:16-17; 17:11; Rom. 8:29; 1 Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1-2; 5:13; Jude 1:24.)

Article XI

ASSURANCE

We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation from the very day they take Him to be their Savior and that this assurance is not founded upon any fancied discovery of their own worthiness or fitness, but wholly upon the testimony of God in His written Word, exciting within His children filial love, gratitude, and obedience. (Luke 10:20; 22:32; 2 Cor. 5:1, 6-8; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 10:22; 1 John 5:13.)

Article XII

THE HOLY SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, dwells in every believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body, and that He, as the Indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the church, nor from the feeblest of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion of the church. (John 14:16-17; 16:7-15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7.)

We believe that, in this age, certain well-defined ministries are committed to the Holy Spirit, and that it is the duty of every Christian to understand them and to be adjusted to them in his own life and experience. These ministries are: The restraining of evil in the world to the measure of the divine will; the convicting of the world respecting sin, righteousness, and judgment; the regenerating of all believers; the indwelling and anointing of all who are saved; thereby sealing them unto the day of redemption; the baptizing into the one body of Christ of all who are saved; and the continued filling for power, teaching, and service of those among the saved who are yielded to Him and who are subject to His will. (John 3:6; 16:7-11; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30; 5:18; 2 Thess. 2:7; 1 John 2:20-27.)

We believe that some gifts of the Holy Spirit such as speaking in tongues and miraculous healings were temporary. We believe that speaking in tongues was never the common or necessary sign of the baptism nor of the filling of the Spirit, and that the deliverance of the body from sickness or death awaits the consummation of our salvation in the resurrection. (Acts 4:8, 31; Rom. 8:23; 1 Cor. 13:8.)

Article XIII

THE CHURCH A UNITY OF BELIEVERS

We believe that all who are united to the risen and ascended Son of God are members of the church which is the body and bride of Christ, which began at Pentecost and is completely distinct from Israel. Its members are constituted as such regardless of membership or nonmembership in the organized churches of earth. We believe that by the same Spirit all believers in this age are baptized into, and thus become, one body that is Christ's, whether Jews or Gentiles, and having become members one of another, are under solemn duty to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian differences, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently. (Matt. 16:16-18; Acts 2:42-47; Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 12:12-27; Eph. 1:20-23; 4:3-10; Col. 3:14-15.)

Article XIV THE SACRAMENTS OR ORDINANCES

We believe that water baptism and the Lord's Supper are the only sacraments and ordinances of the church and that they are a Scriptural means of testimony for the church in this age. (Matt. 28:19; Luke 22:19-20; Acts 10:47-48; 16:32-33; 18:7-8; 1 Cor. 11:26.)

Article XV THE CHRISTIAN'S WALK

We believe that we are called with an holy calling, to walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in subjection to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord. (Rom. 6:11-13; 8:2, 4, 12-13; Gal. 5:16-23; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 2:1-10; 1 Peter 1:14-16; 1 John 1:4-7; 3:5-9.)

Article XVI THE CHRISTIAN'S SERVICE

We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved. While there is a diversity of gifts, each believer is energized by the same Spirit, and each is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will. In the apostolic church there were certain gifted men — apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers — who were appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We believe also that today some men are especially called of God to be evangelists, pastors and teachers, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God. (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:4-11; Eph. 4:11.)

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself. (1 Cor. 3:9-15; 9:18-27; 2 Cor. 5:10.)

Article XVII THE GREAT COMMISSION

We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by

*Him into the world even as He was sent forth of His father into the world. We believe that, after they are saved, they are divinely reckoned to be related to this world as strangers and pilgrims, ambassadors and witnesses, and that their primary purpose in life should be to make Christ known to the whole world. (Matt. 28:18-19; Mark 16:15; John 17:18; Acts 1:8; 2 Cor. 5:18-20; 1 Peter 1:17; 2:11.)

Article XVIII THE BLESSED HOPE

We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture, and for this we should be constantly looking. (John 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:51-52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Titus 2:11-14.)

Article XIX THE TRIBULATION

We believe that the translation of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel's seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1 — 19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel's seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which the times of the Gentiles will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob's trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Matt. 24:15-21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

Article XX THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went, in person on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory to introduce the millennial age, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God's covenant promises, and to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God. (Deut. 30:1-10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek.

37:21-28; Matt. 24:15 — 25:46; Acts 15:16-17; Rom. 8:19-23; 11:25-27; 1 Tim. 4:1-3; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; Rev. 20:1-3.)

Article XXI

THE ETERNAL STATE

We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power. (Luke 16:19-26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7-9; Jude 1:6-7; Rev. 20:11-15.)
