PURPOSE

The primary purpose of Dallas Theological Seminary is to prepare eligible students for various aspects of Christian service through graduate-level biblical, theological, and ministerial instruction. That instruction is given from the perspective of evangelical, premillennial, dispensational theology grounded in the inerrant Scriptures, as set forth in the Doctrinal Statement of the Seminary.

To accomplish this purpose Dallas Seminary offers five degree programs. The Master of Theology and Master of Sacred Theology degree programs are designed to prepare men for a ministry of Bible exposition. The Master of Arts in Biblical Studies degree program, which is coeducational, is designed to give a biblical and theological education to students who do not anticipate further education for a professional Bible-exposition ministry such as the pastorate. The Doctor of Ministry program is designed to equip those actively involved in a vocational ministry for a higher level of competence. The Doctor of Theology program is designed to equip scholars and educational leaders for service in fields related to the Christian ministry.

The Seminary seeks to maintain the highest standards of theological instruction leading to standard seminary degrees. Quality instruction is provided to prepare mature Christian leaders for various Christian ministries throughout the world. Each degree program seeks to implement its goal through instruction in biblical literature, evaluation of various systems of theological thought, development of spiritual gifts, and the cultivation of the spiritual life.

DISTINCTIVES

For many years God has honored Dallas Theological Seminary with an enviable place of distinction among theological institutions. What is it that makes Dallas Seminary different? The following are several factors that distinguish this school from many other seminaries.

A distinctive theology. Dallas Seminary stands staunchly for and unequivocally committed to the Scriptures, God's inerrant, infallible, authoritative written revelation. The Seminary's Doctrinal Statement is distinctively complete and detailed, thus helping to safeguard its unswerving theological stance since the school's founding more than half a century ago. The purpose of the Seminary could not be attained unless its boards and faculty heartily and without reservation subscribed to the Doctrinal Statement

The Seminary's commitment to the Scriptures leads it to a system of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial theology, which is derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible. Those truths include such essentials as the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible, the virgin birth and deity of Jesus Christ, His bodily resurrection, the sinful depraved nature of man, salvation by faith alone in the efficacious, substitutionary death of Christ, the imminency of the pretribulational rapture of the church, and the premillennial return of Christ.

A distinctive curriculum. Long before Dallas Seminary was founded in 1924, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, the Seminary's first president, had the dream of a theological seminary that would equip biblical expositors by means of a curriculum that was uniquely Bible-centered. The study of the entire Bible, not just portions of it, is a central characteristic of the Dallas curriculum.

Every student studies the 66 books of the Scriptures in expositional and exegetical courses in the Division of Biblical Studies. In addition, the study of the original languages enables students in the four-year Master of Theology program to gain exegetical skill basic to their own independent, inductive examination of the written Word. Each student in that program must take three years of Greek and two years of Hebrew. Few seminaries require such an extensive amount of study in the biblical languages.

Numerous semester hours are also given in the curriculum to courses in the Division of Theological Studies. Students study the structured arrangement of scriptural truths in systematic theology and biblical theology. This additional focus on God's Word, along with the perspective added by historical theology, creates a distinct theological sensitivity among Dallas students.

A Dallas education, however, extends beyond the academic pursuit of biblical and theological disciplines. A knowledge of the Scriptures is the basis for developing skills in communicating biblical content. The curriculum includes extensive work in the disciplines of pastoral ministries, Christian education, world missions, and field education. These curriculum areas develop the students' skills in and commitment to homiletics, pastoral work, counseling, evangelism, pedagogy, church education, and the missionary enterprise.

A sensitivity to spiritual needs, a zeal for world missions, a fervor in evangelism, and a Spirit-filled enthusiasm for preaching and teaching the Word of God — all these are cultivated by the Division of Ministries and Communication. Required field education (including prescribed pastoral and evangelistic internships and elective internships in missionary work and teaching) contributes immensely to the unusual blend of biblical/practical training at Dallas.

Soon after the founding of the Seminary, it became evident to the school's leaders that it would be impossible to include all these emphases in a normal three-year course. Therefore in 1935 a four-year plan was put into operation and has been a unique characteristic of the Seminary ever since.

A distinctive faculty. Dallas Seminary faculty are known not only for their competence as biblical scholars, teachers, and communicators, but also as Spirit-led men of God. Concerned for their students, the professors and instructors are available to counsel, ready to talk and pray, anxious to help and serve.

As the student body has increased numerically, the faculty has also been steadily increased in order to maintain an acceptable faculty-student ratio. Though Dallas is one of the largest independent seminaries in the world, faculty members sustain a close personal interest in and relationship with their students.

The Dallas faculty is a closely knit team, enthusiastically united in their commitment to the theological convictions of the school. This gives the students a singular theological orientation, which is confirmative rather than confusing. Yet there is no wooden conformity; instead there is diversity of interpretive viewpoints but all within a consistent theological framework.

In addition to the education that most of the faculty have received at Dallas, many have graduate degrees from other institutions as well. A collective total of more than 125 graduate degrees have been earned by the resident and adjunct faculty from outstanding colleges, universities, and seminaries in the United States and abroad. Many of the faculty are active members of professional societies related to their teaching roles.

A distinctive dynamic. From its beginning the Seminary has admitted only students who give evidence of being born again, as only a child of God is able to study the Word of God with any real understanding. However, something more than regeneration is needed. To be properly qualified for seminary instruction, a student must be walking in fellowship with God so that he can be taught by the Holy Spirit.

While recognizing the importance of high standards of research and technical skill implicit in all true biblical scholarship, the fact remains that scholarship is not enough. In addition, the teaching ministry of the Holy Spirit is necessary, for it adds a unique spiritual dynamic to the teaching-learning process. The cultivation of the spiritual life is inseparably fused with the scholarly study of biblical and related subjects, thus providing an unusual classroom climate and a distinct theological education. All this is designed to prepare students to communicate the Word of God in the power of the Spirit of God.

HISTORY

In the fall of 1924 a small group of 13 students met at rented quarters in Dallas, Texas. This was the first student body of the Dallas Theological Seminary. These men had gathered to study under the noted Bible teacher, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. The meeting was the result of a burden and a vision. While conducting an active ministry throughout the Western world, Dr. Chafer recognized the need for a ministerial preparation that majored in expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures.

Moved by this burden, Dr. Chafer, in the winter of 1921, invited Dr. Alex B. Winchester, pastor extramuros of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Canada, and Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas, an outstanding Anglican scholar and professor of Old Testament exegesis at Wycliffe College, Toronto, to meet with him in Atlanta, Georgia to consider the possibility of founding a theological seminary.

Two years later, while Dr. Chafer was ministering at the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Texas, he shared his burden with Dr. William M. Anderson, noted pastor of that church. Along with the other Christian scholars contacted by Chafer, Dr. Anderson found that the burden became a vision. He called together a group of interested men to form the first temporary board. In May, 1924, Dr. Rollin T. Chafer organized the school and the Seminary was subsequently incorporated by the State of Texas under the name Evangelical Theological College.

God continued to prosper the institution. In 1926 generous friends purchased the first portion of the present site. The following year the first building was erected with funds provided by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davidson in memory of Mr. Davidson's mother. After the erection of the Lidie C. Davidson Hall, the members of the Bible classes of the Reverend Daniel Miner Stearns of Philadelphia erected a dormitory, the D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall. In 1929 Mr. George T. Bisel of Philadelphia purchased a large apartment house which added the full frontage on Swiss Avenue to the campus site.

In a further effort to give students a thorough theological education the Seminary pioneered in offering a standard four-year course for graduation, leading to the degree of Master of Theology. Incorporating all of the essential theological courses offered in a three-year curriculum, the new program gave additional emphasis to systematic theology, Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis, Greek and New Testament exegesis, and Bible exposition. Since the institution of the four-year program in 1935, further refinements have been made and additional courses in pastoral ministries, missions, historical theology, and Christian education are now available to the Dallas student.

The name of the school was changed from Evangelical Theological College to Dallas Theological Seminary in July, 1936.

Significant contributions to the development of the purposes and program of the Seminary have been made by its two presidents: Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer (1924-1952), and Dr. John F. Walvoord, who was inaugurated in 1952.

Throughout these years of development and change, the Seminary has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to the biblical truths set forth in its Doctrinal Statement. Each year the faculty and members of the board reaffirm their agreement with this well-known statement of the Christian faith (see pp. 172-80).

ACCREDITATION AND AFFILIATION

Dallas Theological Seminary is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the regional accrediting agency of the Southern states, with accreditation of programs leading to the Th.M., S.T.M., M.A.B.S., D.Min., and Th.D. degrees.

Dallas Theological Seminary is denominationally unrelated. The faculty, governing boards, and students are members of various denominational or independent churches. The Seminary seeks to serve those of like biblical faith in evangelical Protestantism and welcomes to its student body qualified persons who are in sympathy with the Seminary's doctrinal position.

LOCATION

Dallas Theological Seminary is located in Dallas, Texas, one of the fastest growing cities in the thriving Southwest. Dallas is a city of almost one million people with a metropolitan area population of more than two and one-half million inhabitants.

Dallas is a pleasant place in which to live. It is clean and modern. The city boasts beautiful residential areas, parks and playgrounds, fine schools and universities. Students and their families enjoy its two art museums, the aquarium, and an outstanding zoo. The city also supports a wide variety of cultural activities as well as all kinds of spectator and participant sports.

Dallas is the business capital of the Southwest. Its banks, offices, hospitals, and industries provide ample employment opportunities for students and their wives.

Located approximately 25 miles from the Seminary is the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport, one of the world's largest airports, covering a land area of almost 18,000 acres.

Dallas has an abundance of good housing, and the cost of living is lower than in many other cities.

Coupled with all of its other advantages is Dallas's mild climate. The city's mean annual temperature is 65 degrees.

CAMPUS FACILITIES

The Seminary campus, with well-kept lawns and Spanish-styled buildings, occupies approximately 13 acres of land within minutes of downtown Dallas.

A major building expansion and renovation program was begun in 1972. The program included the construction of two new educational buildings (known as Academic Center, Building I, and Academic Center, Building II), the construction of a Student Center, renovations in the four already-existing educational facilities, and changes in landscaping and parking facilities.

Academic Center, Building I, is a four-story building, and is the main structure of the Academic Center. This building, along with the second unit, gathers together in one center the many classrooms and faculty offices of the campus. The basement floor houses the fully equipped Audiovisual Center permitting the utilization of the latest in educational technology throughout the entire Academic Center. The first floor houses three classrooms, the offices of the Academic Dean, and faculty offices.

The second floor provides additional faculty offices, several classrooms, a faculty lounge, a Language Research Library, and a faculty secretarial office.

On the third floor are faculty offices, classrooms, four preaching-teaching chapels, as well as other technical helps such as listening booths for taped sermons, closed-circuit television equipment for homiletical instruction, and conference rooms.

Academic Center, Building II, is located at the corner of Saint Joseph and Live Oak. Included on the first floor of this building is a classroom, a snack area, and Lamb Auditorium with a seating capacity of approximately 250. A kitchen adjoining this multifunctional room provides for the serving of refreshments for special functions.

The second floor of this building includes several large classrooms and a number of smaller classroom facilities.

Student Center, located at the corner of Apple and Live Oak, was completed in December 1981. This building provides student lounge and snack facilities, the Seminary Book Room, a student information center, student meeting rooms, a prayer room, and a visitors' center. It also includes offices for the Dean of Students, Director of Counseling Services, Seminary Chaplain; offices for the Admissions Director, Registrar, Lay Institute Director; and offices for the departments of Alumni and Church Relations, Field Education, and World Missions.

Lidie C. Davidson Hall, in the center of the campus, is a three-story brick building, which was constructed in 1926-27, and renovated in 1965. It houses the offices of the President, Director of Development, Treasurer, Budget Director, Personnel Director, and other administrative offices. A snack room in the basement of Davidson Hall is for staff use.

D. M. Stearns Memorial Hall, built in 1928-29 and remodeled in 1968, is connected to Davidson Hall by an attractive Spanish-type cloister. The third and fourth stories of Stearns Hall provide dormitory rooms for single men. The first two floors include faculty offices, a lounge area, guest rooms, and other service offices.

Lewis Sperry Chafer Chapel, located on the main campus, was built in 1952-53 and was one of the last undertakings of Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, the founder and first president of the Seminary. It has an attractive auditorium in which faculty and students meet for weekday chapel services. Chafer Chapel also houses offices for electronic communications and the Seminary's radio studio.

Lincoln Hall, another dormitory for single students, is located one block from the main campus. Cafeteria facilities are located in Lincoln Hall.

Mosher Library, dedicated in 1960, was remodeled and enlarged in 1976 for total use as a research library. The ground floor, formerly used for classrooms, now houses the current periodical holdings of more than 1,100 publications, the periodical reading room, the bound and unbound periodical collection, the student audiovisual laboratory, the microform reading room with equipment, the magnetic tape listening room, and the audiovisual collection and equipment. The main floor and the second floor contain the book collection of approximately 100,000 volumes, the bibliographic center, study area, carrels, conference rooms, a museum and rare book room, and the boardroom used for board and faculty meetings. Approximately 3,000 carefully selected volumes are added to the collection each year, and the library building as remodeled and enlarged is designed to house 125,000 volumes.

In addition to this specialized collection of books housed in the Seminary library, the student has access to the resources of libraries throughout the nation through interlibrary loan. Students are also free to consult other theological libraries in the area which make available well over one million volumes.

Apartments (a total of approximately 88 units) are owned by the Seminary and rented to married students. Information on non-Seminary-owned apartments and houses is available on request from the Seminary's Director of Housing.

Admissions Procedures

Application Procedure and Credentials	16
Preseminary Preparation	17
Entrance Greek and English Examinations	18
Classification of Students	19
Transfer of Credits	20
Validation of Courses	20
International Students	21

The student body of Dallas Theological Seminary is limited to persons who show evidence that they are born again, are yielded to the will of God, are endowed with necessary spiritual gifts, and are in general agreement with the Doctrinal Statement of the Seminary. Admission to the Th.M., S.T.M., and Th.D. programs is limited to men who anticipate the Christian ministry as their vocation. Admission to the D.Min. program is limited to men presently involved in an ongoing ministry. Admission to the M.A.B.S. program is open to men and women who do not anticipate a professional Bible-exposition ministry such as the pastorate.

The courses of study are planned specifically for those who have completed, with above-average academic records, a course leading to the A.B. degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. Exceptions to these scholastic requirements for entrance are necessarily limited. Students from unaccredited colleges will be placed on probation for one year.

The Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin in the administration of its admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and other school-administered programs. Dallas Seminary is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND CREDENTIALS

Applicants for all courses of study must file a formal application with the Admissions Office. It is advisable that interested persons apply no earlier than fifteen months and no later than five months before their anticipated enrollment date. First-year men enrolling in the Th.M. degree program are normally not permitted to begin their seminary studies in the spring semester.

A fee of $35 (nonrefundable) must accompany the application. In addition, the following credentials must be submitted:

A letter of endorsement from the official board of the church of which the applicant is a member, stating that he is in good standing and full fellowship and (except for M.A.B.S. applicants) whether or not he is endorsed by them as a candidate for the ministry. In the case of one who is ordained, a letter from the denomination or fellowship of which he is a member certifying his good standing and acceptability as a minister should be submitted.

A report of a physical examination by a medical doctor showing that the applicant is physically and emotionally fit for the demands of student life. This report is to be submitted within six months of matriculation. (This report is not necessary for summer-only M.A.B.S. students.) An unfavorable medical report may result in withdrawal of an applicant's acceptance.

An official transcript from a college or university certifying the completion of a regular course and the degree awarded with the status of honorable dismissal.

Satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test. The Graduate Record Examination is available on specified dates at most major colleges and universities in the United States. Information concerning this examination may be obtained by requesting the GRE Information Bulletin: Graduate Record Examinations Program from the Educational Testing Service, Box 955, Princeton, New Jersey 08540, or Box 1502, Berkeley, California 94701.

The GRE Aptitude Test may or may not be required of M.A.B.S. applicants, at the discretion of the Admissions Committee, after the applicant's file has been reviewed.

Satisfactory scores on the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI). (This is not required of M.A.B.S. students but may be requested at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.) The MMPI is a standard psychological instrument used routinely in the admissions procedures of graduate and professional schools.

Applicants are evaluated on the basis of their college academic record, the extent and quality of their involvement in Christian service, their apparent gift and promise for Christian ministry, and the evaluations of their references.

PRESEMINARY PREPARATION

In requiring the A.B. college degree or its equivalent for admission, Dallas Seminary emphasizes the importance of a broad education as a foundation for specialized study offered in seminary courses. Study in college is not an end in itself, but rather a means of providing the student with the discipline and general information which are indispensable to further study and to the work of the ministry. It is generally agreed that the best preparation for theological study is a broad program including work in the major fields of the humanities and sciences.

In recognition of the need for a standard to guide college students in their selection of courses, it is recommended that one's undergraduate program include courses in the following areas:

English: At least five semesters

Speech: At least one semester

Philosophy (introduction or history of): At least two semesters

History (ancient, medieval, and modern): At least two semesters

Psychology: At least one semester

Foreign languages (at least one year of Greek; additional study is recommended in French, German, or Latin): At least four semesters

Natural sciences (physical or biological): At least two semesters

Social sciences (distributed in at least two of the following: economics, political science, sociology, education): At least two semesters

Applicants for all degree programs at the Seminary must include in their undergraduate program at least 60 semester hours in the liberal arts and sciences. Two years of Greek and one year of Hebrew are generally allowed in the liberal arts category.

If an applicant to the Th.M., S.T.M., D.Min., or Th.D. degree programs, on acceptance, is deficient in significant areas of his preseminary studies, he may be required to make them up while in residence studies at the Seminary, as directed by the Registrar.

All applicants accepted as students are encouraged to consider enrolling in a speed reading course prior to their seminary matriculation, if they have not already done so at some time in their college career.

ENTRANCE GREEK AND ENGLISH EXAMINATIONS

Students entering the Th.M. program who have had previous study in Greek are required to take an entrance Greek examination. If they are unable to pass this examination, they are required in their first year to enroll in 201-202 Elements of Greek, and are required to follow Curriculum "A." An option which is strongly recommended is that entering students enroll in 201-202 Elements of Greek in Dallas's Summer School immediately before their first fall semester of studies. Students entering with Greek who pass the entrance examination are to enroll in 203 Greek Grammar and Syntax in their first semester, and are required to follow Curriculum "B" (designed for those entering with Greek).

In addition to the entrance Greek examination, a test on English expression is given to students entering the Th.M. program. Students who do not achieve a satisfactory score after two tries must take a self-study remedial course. Both the Greek and English tests are given during orientation.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Regular Students. Men who are enrolled in the four-year course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology are classified as regular students. A college degree of A.B. or its equivalent is considered a prerequisite. Regular students are required to maintain a full course of study leading to a degree in order to remain in this classification. Continuation as a student is dependent on satisfactory progress toward graduation. Regular students are entitled to full privileges in respect to dormitory and apartment space and student employment.

Certificate Students. Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degrees may apply for admission as certificate students in the two-year M.A.B.S. program or the four-year Th.M. program. Students in this classification are enrolled in the same course of study as regular students (except that those in the four-year program do not write the master's thesis), and are entitled to a certificate without degree on completion of the two-year or four-year course. Only a very limited number of certificate students are enrolled, and admission is on a strict selective basis. Continuation as a student depends on satisfactory progress toward graduation. Qualifications considered include maturity, educational background, experience, and promise. Normally, certificate students must be at least 30 years of age, and preference is given to those who have the best educational background. Certificate students are expected to have high scores on the GRE Aptitude Test to compensate for their lack of college academic credentials. Certificate students are given opportunity for obtaining dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular students are accommodated.

Special Students. This classification is intended principally for local pastors who desire to enroll for special courses of study. Missionaries on furlough are encouraged to make application under this classification if not eligible for any other. The Admissions Committee may enroll other than local pastors and missionaries as special students when, in its judgment, unusual circumstances justify consideration of the applicant as a special case. Students in this classification are limited to a total of one calendar year of Seminary work. Special students are given opportunity for obtaining dormitory or apartment space and student employment only after regular and certificate students are accommodated. Students in this classification cannot hold office or committee chairmanship in the student body.

Nondegree Students. Qualified men and women may be admitted for Summer School studies as nondegree students.

Academic and spiritual qualifications necessary for admission are the same as for all degree students.

A maximum of 15 hours may be taken by Summer School nondegree students.

Nondegree students are not to be confused with audit students. (See Audit Students below.)

Course work requirements for nondegree students are the same as for degree students. Nondegree and degree students are expected to do the course work, are graded, and on satisfactory completion of the work, receive credit for the course (which is normally transferable later to a degree program at Dallas Seminary or at other institutions).

Audit Students. Students who desire to audit a course must be admitted through the regular admissions procedures. These may be degree or nondegree students who enroll in a course but who elect not to do the course work, and are therefore not given examinations, are not graded, and do not receive academic credit. The number of audit students is limited, and regularly admitted students are allowed to audit certain courses only on consent of the professor.

For information concerning admission to the S.T.M., M.A.B.S., D.Min., and Th.D. programs see the section of the catalog entitled Academic Programs.

TRANSFER OF CREDITS

Course credits with a minimum grade of C earned at other standard seminaries and graduate theological schools are accepted at full value to the extent that the courses are comparable to the Seminary's stated requirements. A transcript from the seminary attended will be required, showing the work completed and honorable dismissal. No credit is given for undergraduate courses completed in college or other institutions below seminary level.

VALIDATION OF COURSES

A student can request validation for a prescribed course if he feels that it will duplicate an undergraduate course for which he has credit. However, validation of a course does not reduce the student's total credit hour requirement, but does allow him to substitute elective hours in the same department unless approved otherwise by that department chairman. A student may be excused from such a course only on passing an examination in the course. Further details are given in the Student Handbook.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Dallas Theological Seminary is blessed and enriched by the presence of international students on its campus. It considers that its purpose for existence is expanded as it is able to offer educational opportunities to those of other countries. International students interested in applying to Dallas Seminary should write the Director of Admissions for the brochure "Special Bulletin for Students from Abroad," which includes information on admission requirements, tuition scholarships, work scholarships, government regulations, and the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language).

Unless specified otherwise by the professors in individual courses, all course papers must be typewritten and in thesis form in conformity to the standards outlined in the latest edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian and additional instructions authorized by the faculty.

MASTER'S THESIS OR RESEARCH PROJECT

A thesis of at least 10,000 words, or a research project, demonstrating competence in research and writing, is required for the degrees of Master of Theology and Master of Sacred Theology and for students entering the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies program before the summer of 1980. Deadlines and procedures for submitting the subject, syllabus, and first and second drafts of the thesis or project are given in the Student Handbook. Theses must conform to the standards in Turabian as stated above under Course Papers. Research projects should be typed according to the proper thesis form unless allowable exceptions are granted by the faculty thesis adviser.

INSTITUTE OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Seminary is a member of the Institute of Theological Studies. This is a cooperative program involving several evangelical seminaries that offer courses based on lectures on cassette tapes by biblical scholars. Course credit in independent study may be earned by students in the Seminary who enroll in the courses, listen to the tapes, and complete other requirements stipulated in the course syllabi. At the present time the following eight courses are available:

- OT501 The Pentateuch, Dr. R. Laird Harris
- OT502 Conquest and Settlement, Dr. John J. Davis
- OT503 The United Monarchy, Dr. John J. Davis
- OT504 The Divided Monarchy, Dr. John C. Whitcomb, Jr.
- OT505 The Book of Psalms, Dr. Bruce K. Waltke
- OT506 Understanding the Old Testament, Dr. Bruce K. Waltke
- NT501 The Pastoral Epistles, Dr. John R. W. Stott
- ST501 Neo-Orthodoxy, Dr. Lubbertus Oostendorp

All are two-hour courses except OT506 and NT501, which are three-hour courses. For further details on the courses and costs, consult the Registrar.

DIPLOMAS

Regular students completing the four-year course of study receive a diploma carrying the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Certificate students on satisfactory completion of the four-year course receive a certificate without degree. They are eligible to receive the degree diploma (Th.M.) at a later date within five years on the presentation of a satisfactory college degree. Certificate students may elect to postpone the writing of the master's thesis until the completion of college studies. On the presentation of a satisfactory college degree and the completion of a satisfactory master's thesis, the Th.M. degree will be granted.

Transfer of credits for work done in Seminary toward a college degree is subject to strict regulation. Information regarding the policy of the Seminary is available from the Registrar.

FEES AND EXPENSES FOR 1982-83

Every effort is made to maintain student expenses at Dallas Theological Seminary at a moderate figure. Students pay only a portion of the entire cost of their education. All bills are payable at the beginning of each semester, Winter Intersession, or Summer School session. It is recommended that all students come with sufficient funds for the expenses of at least one semester (or other session).

New students who plan to write a check for expenses at the time of registration will need to have funds in a bank at home to cover the check or make sure that funds have been transferred to a Dallas area bank sufficiently in advance (10 days) so that checks can be drawn on the account. If these options are not possible, funds can be brought to Dallas by a student closing out a home bank account with a cashier's check payable to himself.

In view of rising costs it is anticipated that tuition, fees, and other expenses may need to be increased annually.

SEMINARY-COORDINATED BANK FINANCING

Low-interest financing is available through a local bank at the time of registration for tuition, room, board, and books, for students who are unable to pay these expenses in full. Loans may be taken out for a 12-month period; however, the Seminary requests that students arrange for only one loan per academic year. Thus students should estimate expenses for the complete year when calculating the loan amount needed. Loans will be written in multiples of $50 and interest is computed at an annual rate of 16.5 percent. Monthly payments may be calculated as follows.

$3,600.00	Approximate amount needed for academic year (excluding room and board)
$ 329.76	Interest
$3,929.76	Amount needed for academic year (Total loan amount ÷ 12 = $327.48 monthly payment for 12-month period)

Eight-month loans are available to students who have not borrowed during the fall semester. Coupon books may be purchased and included in the Loan Program. The coupons are in denominations of $100. These may be used to purchase books or to pay for Summer School and Winter Intersession tuition. The coupon method is the only method of deferred payment for these sessions. Questions regarding the bank financing program may be directed to the Student Finance Officer at the Seminary.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Many varied employment opportunities are readily available in the greater Dallas area for students and their wives. To assist students in finding employment, the Seminary posts job opportunities in the Student Center on the campus. Assistance can also be received from the Office of the Dean of Students.

FUNDS FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Seminary does not participate in federal, state, or local finance programs. The Seminary does have limited funds for financial assistance to students, and normally first-year students are not eligible. Exceptions are sometimes made for racial minorities and foreign students to the extent that designated funds are available for this purpose. When a student has a financial need or requires information about scholarships, grants, loans, or budgeting, he can contact the Student Aid Office.

Listed below are the names of funds that are distributed by the Student Aid Committee. These funds are normally distributed not through application of students, but by the recommendation of faculty, staff, and interested friends of the Seminary.

GI BILL

Eligible veterans may receive GI Bill benefits for education at Dallas Theological Seminary. Veterans who have served a minimum of 181 days of continuous active duty, but less than 18 months, are eligible for one and one-half months of benefits for each month or fraction of a month of service. Veterans who have served 18 months or more active duty may receive up to 45 months of educational benefits. Monthly benefits for full-time students are $342 for single students, $407 for married students, $464 for married students with one child, and an additional $29 for each dependent child after the first.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The Seminary requires each student to carry health insurance for himself and his immediate family during his years of study at the Seminary. At matriculation each new student is given opportunity to purchase health insurance at group rates if he is not already carrying such insurance.

HOUSING

A limited number of apartments are available for married students (see p. 13). Dormitory space is also available for single men. All first-year single men are required to live on campus so long as dormitory space is available. Dormitory rooms cannot be rented without also purchasing meals in the dining room. Rooms are reserved by the academic year and not by the semester. Further information is available from the Seminary's Director of Housing.

Student Life

Spiritual Life 38
 Student Activities 40

Spiritual Life

Recognizing that the effectiveness of the Lord's servant is directly related to his spiritual maturity, the promotion of the student's spirituality is uppermost in the concern of the faculty. The academic pursuit of biblical and theological studies must be accompanied by a growing spiritual life sensitive to God's will and ways. In numerous ways the Seminary seeks to encourage the student not only to have an academic comprehension of biblical truth, but also to acquire an intimate daily walk with God, being filled, led, and empowered by His Spirit. In their classes the faculty have an ideal means for encouraging spiritual growth. In addition, the following are some of the means used to promote the spiritual life of the student body.

CHAPEL

Chapel is held each morning Tuesday through Friday during the fall and spring semesters, and each Wednesday morning during Summer School. Chapel sessions include worship services, prayer meetings, and messages by members of the faculty and other outstanding Christian leaders such as pastors, missionaries, teachers, laymen, and others. The worshipful atmosphere of the chapel sessions gives the students experience in worship and an awareness of ways to lead others in worship. Attendance is required of each student. The Seminary Chaplain is responsible for the chapel schedule.

DAY OF PRAYER

Once each semester the students and faculty join in a day of prayer. This is a spiritual highlight of the year, in which Seminary and individual needs are brought to the Lord in intercessory prayer. The day is climaxed with a worshipful communion service in commemoration of the Lord's death, resurrection, and return.

ADVISEES MEETINGS

Each student is assigned to a faculty member, thus giving each faculty member about 22 advisees. These students meet periodically as a group with their faculty adviser for prayer, Bible study, and fellowship. Each student is thus given an opportunity to know and fellowship with other students and a faculty member they might not otherwise come to know so intimately.

COUNSELING

Counseling is available to the students through several means: the Dean of Students, the Director of Counseling, the Seminary Chaplain, faculty advisers, and in fact the entire faculty, two of whom are psychiatrists. Students are encouraged to feel free to contact any of these persons for counseling in personal, marital, or spiritual matters. This personal one-to-one contact helps meet needs and foster spiritual growth.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The faculty recognizes the freedom of each student to develop under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Since students at the Seminary are already recognized as Christian leaders by men and women in the community, it is essential that they exemplify a God-controlled life both on and off the campus. The Seminary believes that the use of tobacco and intoxicating beverages, and other questionable practices, are not suitable for Christian leaders. Students are expected to share these convictions and abide by them.

Infractions of the standards of conduct will be investigated by the Dean of Students. The Student Affairs Committee shall handle all cases referred to it by the Dean and shall be the appellate body for decisions made by the Dean that are appealed by the student. Any case which would involve the dismissal of the student must be handled by the committee. The student shall receive a written statement of the charges against him. He may bring witnesses on his own behalf and may choose not to answer any of the questions placed to him. The committee may decide to give the student a disciplinary warning, a disciplinary probation, a required leave of absence, a suspension, or an expulsion (definitions of these terms, along with additional information, is contained in the Student Handbook under the heading, Responsibility for Student Conduct and Discipline). Appeal of any action of the Student Affairs Committee may be made to the faculty in writing. Further appeal may be made after the faculty's decision to the President of the Seminary. Such an appeal must be in writing and a personal interview will be granted to deal with the appeal.

Student Activities

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

The results of theological study should be reflected in a dynamic Christian outreach. The Dallas-Fort Worth area provides splendid opportunities for student witness. Area churches welcome students to teach Sunday school classes and lead young people's groups. The missions, jails, Christian youth organizations, and hospitals in the city provide choice fields for effective testimony. As the student advances in his studies, he will find other openings in Christian education, church music, and church extension. Advanced students are sometimes able to serve as pastors while in Seminary, but new students are advised against seeking pastoral appointments, since such work may severely hamper their academic pursuits.

The Department of Field Education directs the student's practical application of his academic studies to real-life situations through a flexible program of Field Education courses involving a variety of ministries. Student internships in pastoral, missionary, evangelistic, and teaching ministries, are open to Th.M. and S.T.M. students. Details are given in the Field Education section of the catalog. These internships and other forms of student ministry are invaluable contributions to the student's seminary training and spiritual development.

STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Student Handbook, a handy guide to life on the Seminary campus, is distributed by the Registrar to all students enrolled in the Seminary. The Handbook includes academic, library, and financial regulations and procedures, and miscellaneous instructions and policies regarding student life.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The faculty's confidence in the maturity of the student body is seen in the operation of the Student Council, the voice of the student body on campus. The Council serves primarily to integrate all phases of extracurricular life of the student body. Each of the four classes elects representatives to the Student Council, and those elected are then appointed to various committees by the Council officers. Matters pertaining to student-faculty relationships are channeled through a special committee of faculty members and members of the Council. The Constitution and Bylaws of the Student Council are included in the Student Handbook.

STUDENT MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

The Student Missions Fellowship seeks to help the student body become aware of the spiritual needs of other cultures and to become involved in missionary service. To accomplish these aims the SMF hosts numerous prayer meetings, focus sessions (discussion groups with mission leaders), and chapels for the student body. Particular encouragement is given to men participating in a Missionary Summer Internship (for which Field Education credit is available).

STUDENT PUBLICATION

The Kethiv Qere is a weekly paper distributed to students without charge throughout the fall and spring semesters. News items of campus activities and articles of interest in specialized areas of theological thought all help bind the Seminary family together.

THE ATHLETIC PROGRAM

Since a healthy body aids a healthy mind, the athletic program at the Seminary provides wholesome recreation in the midst of a busy Seminary life. Teams compete in intramural programs of flag football and basketball. Nautilus exercise equipment is owned by the Seminary and is available for use by all students. Gymnasiums are available to Seminary students in nearby churches and in city recreational facilities.

WIVES' ACTIVITIES

The Wives Fellowship provides for an active association of the wives of students and faculty members. Weekly meetings feature addresses and informal discussions designed to prepare the wife for her part in her husband's ministry. Social gatherings throughout the year provide fellowship and create deep friendships. Mrs. John F. Walvoord serves as adviser to the Wives Fellowship.

The Wives Evening Class also meets weekly and provides a program of biblical and practical studies covering eight semesters and taught by members of the faculty.

The Lay Institute provides quality instruction in the Bible and related subjects for adults in the Metroplex, many of whom are Seminary wives. Scores of wives enroll in these courses which meet on Monday evenings on campus each semester. A special discount is offered to Seminary wives, thus making these classes within the budgets of seminarians. (See page 147 for more information.)

Five principal programs of study are offered by Dallas Seminary: (1) the basic four-year program leading to the degree of Master of Theology or a Certificate of Graduation; (2) the program leading to the degree of Master of Sacred Theology for students previously graduated from a three-year seminary course; (3) the summer program leading to the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies; (4) the professional degree program leading to the Doctor of Ministry for those presently in the ministry and holding the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent; and (5) the program leading to the degree of Doctor of Theology for those presenting the degree of Master of Theology or its equivalent for entrance.

The material in this section describes each of these programs, including course requirements, admission to candidacy, graduation requirements, etc.

The Master of Theology (Th.M.) Program

PURPOSE

The four-year Master of Theology degree program is designed to prepare men for a ministry of Bible exposition as pastors, teachers, missionaries, and leaders in other areas of ministry requiring ability in expounding the Scriptures. The Th.M. program is the main curriculum program of the Seminary.

MAJOR FIELDS OF STUDY

A major in the Master of Theology program must be selected by the student in one of the following departments: Semitics and Old Testament Studies, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Bible Exposition, Systematic Theology, Historical Theology, Pastoral Ministries, Christian Education, or World Missions.

Requirements for a major are stated in connection with the course offerings of each department.

CURRICULUM

Two basic curricula are provided in the Master of Theology degree program. Curriculum "A" is for those who enter without Greek, and Curriculum "B" is for those entering with Greek. Pages 46 and 47 list the courses in these two curricula by semester.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

In order to be admitted to candidacy for the Master of Theology degree the following requirements must be met: (1) the student must have completed with credit a minimum of 90 semester hours with a minimum grade point average of 2.00; (2) he must have filed an acceptable thesis syllabus or project syllabus; (3) he must have removed all entrance deficiencies; (4) he must be making satisfactory progress toward meeting Field Education requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; and (5) he must have evidenced commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The prescribed course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology normally requires four years or eight semesters of resident work, including six hours of Field Education. A minimum grade point average of 2.00 is required for graduation.

A comprehensive examination in theology including biblical and historical backgrounds is required as a condition for graduation and is related to 408 Senior Theology.

The completion of minimum requirements does not, however, automatically qualify the student for the degree. He must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

The Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.) Program

PURPOSE

The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary course. The program is designed to provide an opportunity for additional and advanced studies in the theological disciplines in preparation for Christian service. Students who desire to pursue studies toward this degree must present on application approved college and seminary degrees or their respective academic and theological equivalents. Transcripts of this work must show above-average grade standing.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Thirty-two semester hours of course work are required for the degree of which 18 hours must be devoted to the major, including two hours for the thesis or research project. The major must be selected from one of the following departments: Semitics and Old Testament Studies, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Bible Exposition, Systematic Theology, Historical Theology, Pastoral Ministries, Christian Education, or World Missions.

Two of the 32 hours are required in Field Education. (FE10 Pastoral Internship is required unless validated.) The remaining 12 hours may be elected by the student in fields other than his major in consultation with the Registrar.

In all majors except Old Testament and New Testament, the student must demonstrate exegetical proficiency in Greek or Hebrew. In the case of Old Testament and New Testament majors, proficiency must be demonstrated in both languages.

Two courses, 903 Soteriology and Evangelism and 406 Eschatology, must be taken by S.T.M. students if they do not already have credit in them or their equivalents. These hours may be credited toward the degree. In all majors, students must take 408 Senior Theology, 905 Greek Exegesis and Sermonic Development, and at least one exegetical course. Every candidate is also required to enroll in 608 Senior Preaching unless excused by the Registrar in consultation with the chairman of the Pastoral Ministries department. Additional work in homiletics may be required at the discretion of the Pastoral Ministries department if the student is judged deficient in preaching ability.

Second- and third-year courses and any elective course open to second- and third-year students can be taken for credit only on consent of the Registrar.

Ability to do scholarly research and writing must be demonstrated by the acceptance of a thesis of at least 10,000 words, or a research project, for which two hours credit is given. The thesis must be written in the field of the major and meet the same standards as the graduation thesis for the Th.M. degree.

In most cases it is necessary for S.T.M. students to be enrolled in a minimum of three semesters of study, one of which may include the Summer School.

All work leading to the S.T.M. degree must be completed within three years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Registrar and/or Academic Dean. Reinstatement in the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student may be admitted to candidacy for the S.T.M. degree by action of the faculty at the beginning of the semester of his anticipated graduation, provided (1) he has a minimum grade point average of 2.50; (2) he has filed an acceptable thesis syllabus or project syllabus; (3) he has removed all entrance deficiencies; and (4) he has evidenced commitment to the purpose of the Seminary. In addition, the student must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty ability and acceptability in Christian ministry based on an evaluation of his Field Education work.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate in the S.T.M. program must have completed all required courses totaling 32 semester hours, with a minimum grade point average of 2.50, and must have completed the requirements pertaining to the thesis or research project along with other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the degree. He must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

The Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (M.A.B.S.) Program

PURPOSE

The program leading to the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies degree is designed for persons desiring a graduate-level biblical and theological education but who do not plan on a professional Bible-exposition ministry such as the pastorate.

The persons for whom the M.A.B.S. program is designed include (1) individuals serving with Christian organizations in youth work, campus ministry, missionary activity, literature work, etc., (2) teachers at the primary, secondary, or university level, administrators, and persons in other professions desiring biblical training; (3) lay persons carrying responsibility in the ministry of a local church who desire biblical study on a graduate level; and (4) wives of Dallas Seminary students.

Women may be admitted to the Seminary as M.A.B.S. (or nondegree) students.

Dallas Seminary considers the M.A.B.S. degree a terminal degree which is not designed to prepare the student for doctoral studies at the Seminary. Graduates holding the M.A.B.S. degree are normally recommended by the Placement Committee only for the types of ministries for which the M.A.B.S. degree program is designed.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements and application procedures for the M.A.B.S. program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see Admissions Procedures) with two exceptions: (1) students in this degree program need not possess a call to vocational Christian service, and (2) the Graduate Record Examination Aptitude Test may or may not be required at the discretion of the Admissions Committee, after the applicant's file has been reviewed. Preference is given to applicants who have had some previous involvement in Christian service.

Each applicant is asked to submit in writing a description of his vocational objective and how he conceives the M.A.B.S. program to relate to his particular purpose.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Sixty semester hours of course work are required as a minimum for graduation (for students entering in the summer of 1980 or thereafter). The courses of study in this degree program are offered in the summers in order to accommodate persons who are engaged in ministries and employment during the normal school year. Thus by taking the maximum load of 12 or 13 hours of course work in summer studies, a student may complete the program in four summers provided he takes several elective hours in independent study courses from the Seminary between his summers of resident study. These hours in independent study courses for M.A.B.S. students may not exceed 15.

Twenty-three of the 60 hours are prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 17 are prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and 1 hour is prescribed in the Pastoral Ministries department. The remaining 19 are elective hours, which can be chosen by the student in areas of his interest and need in consultation with the Registrar. In his elective hours each M.A.B.S. student must take at least one course each in Historical Theology, Pastoral Ministries, Christian Education, and World Missions.

No thesis or research project is required of M.A.B.S. students entering the program in the summer of 1980 or thereafter.

The M.A.B.S. program is a nonmajor program, thus giving students flexibility in choosing elective hours that meet their objectives. Most elective courses open to Th.M. and S.T.M. students are also open to M.A.B.S. students. Other elective courses are designed exclusively for M.A.B.S. students. Details are given in each year's Summer School catalog.

A limited number of furloughing missionaries and international students with background in biblical studies will be admitted to the M.A.B.S. program for studies on a year-round basis.

TRANSFER OF CREDITS

Transfer of some credits is allowed toward the M.A.B.S. degree from graduate theological schools and is normally limited to elective credit. In some cases credit may be transferred for prescribed Bible Exposition or Systematic Theology courses on the condition that at least an identical number of elective hours be selected in the Bible Exposition or Systematic Theology departments at Dallas Seminary. No more than a total of 15 hours of credit may be transferred. Consult the Registrar for further information.

A student must normally have a minimum grade point average of 2.00 in order to be eligible to transfer from one master's program to another at the Seminary. Courses with a grade of D+ or lower will not be transferred without the approval of the Credits Committee.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

Of the 60 semester hours of course work required for graduation, a minimum of 45 must be taken in resident study at the Seminary.

A student should not consider the M.A.B.S. program a step toward earning the Th.M. degree because the purposes of the two programs differ. If a student plans to earn the Th.M. degree, it is not to his advantage to pursue the M.A.B.S. first. Instead he should enroll directly in the Th.M. program.

All work leading to the degree must normally be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Registrar and/or the Director of the Summer School. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

VALIDATION OF COURSES

A student in the M.A.B.S. program can validate a prescribed course provided he has college credit for a similar course. Validation of a course does not give credit for nor reduce the student's curricular requirements, but does allow him to substitute elective hours in the same area (Bible Exposition or Systematic Theology) of the course he validated. A student in the M.A.B.S. program desiring to validate such prescribed courses should consult the Registrar.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student may be admitted to candidacy for the M.A.B.S. degree by action of the faculty only after the following requirements have been met: (1) he has completed with credit a minimum of 45 semester hours in course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.00; and (2) he has evidenced commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate for the M.A.B.S. degree must have completed 60 semester hours of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.00.

The M.A.B.S. degree is conferred on the student at the next commencement following the completion of all his resident work, assuming all graduation requirements are met.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the degree. He must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) Program

PURPOSE

The program leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree is designed to equip those actively involved in a vocational ministry with a higher level of competence in the practice of a biblically and theologically oriented ministry.

This program concentrates on developing expertise in the theory and practice of ministry. The D.Min. is the highest professional degree for those engaged in local church ministries, world missions, and other similar or related ministries. (The Th.D. degree, by comparison, is designed primarily to equip students to engage in theological research and teaching.)

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The D.Min. applicant must hold the Master of Divinity or Master of Theology degree or an equivalent degree, must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies, and must have passed satisfactorily at least two years of Greek and one year of Hebrew in seminary. In addition, he must have had at least three years of full-time involvement in a significant professional Christian ministry after having received his seminary degree, must give evidence of growth and competence in ministerial skills and leadership, and must presently be involved in an ongoing ministry.

The applicant must take a written entrance examination designed to determine his level of knowledge of Bible and theology, must present satisfactory scores on the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory, and must normally have a personal interview with an interviewing committee.

Prospective D.Min. students should apply for admission at least six months before the anticipated entrance date in July or January.

Further details on admission requirements and procedures are given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, available from the Director of Admissions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The D.Min. program requires 30 semester hours of course work (which include 26 hours of credit for 13 weeks of resident study in Dallas in July and January, and 4 hours of independent study courses), plus a dissertation project related to the student's ministry. The program normally requires three or four years of study.

The student must take courses in both the biblical/theological area and the ministerial area.

Two four-hour prescribed courses must be taken by all D.Min. students. "The Theology and Practice of Ministry" is offered every other July and "Current Biblical and Theological Issues" is offered every other January. Either course may be taken first. Each course requires two weeks of concentrated full-time study on campus in Dallas. Course descriptions for these two prescribed courses and for elective courses are given on pages 133-37.

Representative electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook.

All work leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree must normally be completed within six years from the time of matriculation.

A minimum grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the dissertation project.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student may be admitted to candidacy for the D.Min. degree by action of the faculty only after the following requirements have been met: (1) he has completed all resident requirements leading to the degree; (2) he has completed all of his independent study courses; and (3) he has evidenced solidarity of Christian character, effectiveness in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

DISSERTATION PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

The dissertation project will be the student's major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry as well as to the student's personal life. The project should normally deal with some aspect of communication, administration, or nurture. The length of the dissertation project should normally be a minimum of 50,000 words. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the subject approval, prospectus, first and final drafts, and oral defense of the dissertation project are given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate in the D.Min. program must have completed 30 semester hours of course work and must have completed the dissertation project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the degree. He must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, effectiveness in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

The Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) Program

PURPOSE

The program leading to the Doctor of Theology degree is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level with a view to their becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The Th.D. applicant must hold the Master of Theology degree or its equivalent, must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability, and must pass satisfactorily a written examination in the field of his intended major and an oral examination on his Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement, and purpose.

Applications for the doctoral program should be received by the Admissions Office by January 1. The completed applications are then sent to the Director of Th.D. Studies, who presents the applications to the Th.D. Committee for preliminary acceptance.

Further details on admission requirements and procedures are given in the Doctor of Theology Handbook, available from the Director of Admissions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The program includes three years of study, two years of which, as a minimum, must be spent in residence.

The doctoral program is offered in two areas: Biblical Studies (with majors in Old Testament, New Testament, or Bible Exposition) and Theological Studies (with majors in Systematic Theology or Historical Theology). Course requirements for various majors are given in the Doctor of Theology Handbook.

Doctoral students are required to demonstrate ability to read scholarly French and German. Information on the dates when the examinations must be taken is given in the Doctor of Theology Handbook.

Only courses taken after receiving the degree of Master of Theology can be credited toward the degree of Doctor of Theology. No work done in other institutions can be credited toward this degree.

A minimum grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the dissertation.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student may be admitted to candidacy for the Th.D. degree by action of the faculty only after the following requirements have been met: (1) he has completed all resident requirements leading to the degree; (2) he has passed the written and oral examinations over the fields within the area of his major; (3) he has satisfied the foreign language requirements; and (4) he has evidenced solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

DISSERTATION REQUIREMENTS

A dissertation totaling between 50,000 and 75,000 words must be written on an approved subject. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the dissertation subject proposal, syllabus, first and final drafts, and oral defense are given in the Doctor of Theology Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate in the Th.D. program must have completed 30 semester hours of course work (40 for Old Testament majors), and must have completed the dissertation along with any other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the degree. He must have evidenced to the satisfaction of the faculty solidarity of Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and commitment to the purpose of the Seminary.

The degree will not be conferred unless all financial obligations to the Seminary have been met.

Special Sessions

LECTURESHIPS AND CONFERENCES

The Bible Conference Weeks (one each semester) bring to the Seminary campus outstanding Bible expositors with rich backgrounds of experience in the Christian ministry. The schedule for these conferences is shown on the Academic Calendar.

The Annual Missions Conference, usually held in the spring semester, gives the students opportunity to hear and interact with outstanding missionaries and missions executives representing numerous mission boards and foreign countries. The purposes of the conferences are to introduce students to the spiritual needs of the world, to confront them with the challenge of missionary service, and to enlarge their missionary concern as future Christian leaders.

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Memorial Lectureship was created in memory of William Henry Griffith Thomas (1861-1924), who was associated with Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer in the founding of Dallas Seminary. The lectures are usually published in Bibliotheca Sacra.

SUMMER SCHOOL

In addition to the two-semester academic year, the Seminary conducts summer sessions which offer a diversified curriculum of theological education for both degree and nondegree students.

The Summer School is designed for several kinds of students: (1) those working toward the M.A.B.S. degree, which is primarily a summer program; (2) new Th.M. students admitted for the fall semester who are deficient in Greek and who are therefore encouraged to enroll in the ten-week 201-202 Elements of Greek course offered each summer; (3) students already enrolled in Dallas Seminary in the Th.M., S.T.M., or Th.D. programs who want to augment their studies; (4) students enrolled in other seminaries who meet entrance qualifications; and (5) alumni and other Christian workers who desire continuing theological education on a graduate level. Enrollment in the Summer School program is open to qualifying individuals holding an A.B. degree or its equivalent.

Women may be admitted to the Summer School program as M.A.B.S. or nondegree students.

Students may achieve up to 13 semester hours of work in one summer program. Normally a student may enroll in only one course in any given two-week or three-week session and in only two courses in any five-week session.

The dates for the Summer School are listed in the Academic Calendar. A Summer School catalog is published each January. Inquiries regarding application should be addressed to the Director of Admissions.

Each year the Summer School also offers several Continuing Education courses for Dallas Seminary alumni.

WINTER INTERSESSION

The Seminary offers several courses each year in the recess period between the fall and spring semesters. The Winter Intersession courses are held in the two-week period immediately before the spring semester begins.

Course Descriptions

Division of Biblical Studies	65
Division of Theological Studies	91
Division of Ministries and Communication	109
Doctor of Ministry Courses	133

NUMBERING OF COURSES

The first digit in the course numbers indicates the department in which the course is offered, e.g., courses in the 100s are in the Department of Semitics and Old Testament Studies, courses in the 200s are in the Department of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, etc. The remaining digits indicate distinctions between required and elective courses and between Th.M. (and S.T.M.) and Th.D. programs. For example, courses numbered from 101-109 are required Old Testament courses in the Th.M. (and S.T.M.) program, courses numbered from 110 to 169 are elective Old Testament courses in the Th.M. (and S.T.M.) program, and those numbered 170 and above are Old Testament courses open only to doctoral students. Courses in the 900s are interdepartmental courses.

Courses with hyphenated numbers (e.g., 101-102) do not carry credit for a single semester; those with course numbers separated by a comma (e.g., 173, 174) carry credit for either semester.

Two-digit course numbers followed by a letter designate courses designed exclusively for the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies program. For example, 61E indicates an elective Pastoral Ministries course. Most electives in the Th.M. program are also open to M.A.B.S. students.

Two-digit course numbers preceded by a letter designate courses designed exclusively for the Doctor of Ministry degree program. For example, C12 indicates an elective D.Min. course in the area of Communication.

Division of Biblical Studies

The purpose of the Division of Biblical Studies is to equip students with a foundational knowledge and skill in the interpretation and application of the Bible.

Field Education

Thomas L. Constable, Director
 Richard D. Rood, Assistant Director
 Kenneth L. Sarles, Assistant Director
 Michael P. Green, Assistant to the Director

The purpose of this department is to help students develop skills necessary for effectiveness in various types of ministry, interact with issues of pastoral ministry in an in-service context, and integrate their seminary course work in a biblical fashion with their spheres of ministry.

REQUIREMENTS

Field Education credit is required of all Th.M. and S.T.M. students and is also available to M.A.B.S. and Th.D. students. Graduation requirements for Th.M. students include six hours of Field Education credit, two of which must be earned in FE10 Pastoral Internship, two in FE11 Evangelism Internship, and two in elective Field Education courses. Before entering his third year each Th.M. student must have completed two hours of Field Education credit. It is recommended that FE10 and FE11 be completed by Th.M. students before they enter their final semester. Though only six Field Education hours are credited toward graduation, students who desire to do so may take additional Field Education courses.

S.T.M. students must earn two hours of Field Education credit. Every S.T.M. student is required to enroll in FE10 for two hours unless the course is validated. If it is validated, he will be expected to earn his required two hours in another Field Education course or courses. It is recommended that FE10 credit be earned by S.T.M. students before they enter their final semester.

Field Education courses are graded on the credit/no credit system.

The emphasis in Field Education is on learning rather than serving. Field Education is not just another name for Christian service and should not be confused with it. While service is involved, the primary purpose is the education of the student; service is only one of several components in field education. Consequently, only service which is part of a supervised and evaluated training program qualifies for Field Education credit.

Field Education courses may be taken concurrently (while the student is in other courses) or intensively (full-time). One hour of credit is normally given if a course is taken concurrently, and two hours of credit are given if a course is taken intensively. Students should plan to take as much of their Field Education as they can intensively. When this is not possible, however, some courses may be taken concurrently.

Most internships (FE10, FE11, FE26, FE28, FE29) may be (1) concurrent (part-time) fall and spring local, (2) intensive (full-time) summer local or distant, or (3) intensive year-round local or distant. FE10 may also be taken as a student pastorate. All internship placements must be approved by the Field Education department before the student can enroll in the appropriate Field Education internship course (FE10, FE11, FE26, FE27, or FE29).

Most of the Field Education courses may be taken two times (except FE21 and FE23, each of which may be taken only one time), and most of the courses may be taken during the summer months. Normally only one Field Education course may be taken at a time.

For information on the validation of prescribed Field Education courses see the Student Handbook. For information on the transfer of Field Education credit from other institutions see the section Transfer of Credits in this catalog.

FACULTY MINISTRIES

Dallas Seminary faculty members are in constant demand as speakers and leaders in Bible, missionary, and prophecy conferences, Christian education conventions, campus and youth conferences, and professional association conferences in the United States and numerous foreign countries. Faculty members also frequently preach and teach in many churches in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and elsewhere.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

All former students who received credit for at least 15 semester hours are automatically members of the Alumni Association. Dallas Seminary alumni cherish a lifelong link with their alma mater. Seventy-nine alumni serve as area representatives, who coordinate Seminary-related activities in their geographic areas. Alumni cooperate in many ways to insure the growth and development of the Seminary. They interest prospective students in the school and contribute liberally to help meet the Seminary's financial needs. This eager partnership of former students in the work of the school has been a major factor in enabling the Seminary to reach its present stature.

The Director of Alumni and Church Relations coordinates alumni activities such as local alumni meetings and seminars for alumni. He also assists Dallas graduates in placing them in churches and schools for Christian service.

The Alumni Association elects officers at its Annual Luncheon and Business Meeting, held each May in conjunction with commencement activities.

Each year an Alumni Directory is published and sent to all members. In addition, alumni receive a 12-page supplement containing items of special interest to alumni in each issue of the Seminary magazine, Kindred Spirit.

Dallas alumni, of whom there are approximately 4,500 in number, are serving as pastors; missionaries; professors, presidents, and deans of Bible institutes, colleges, and seminaries; ministers of education; youth directors; chaplains; administrators of Christian organizations; authors; editors; campus leaders; directors of mission boards; etc. The alumni serve in all 50 states and 55 foreign countries.

Continuing education courses exclusively for alumni are offered each year in the Summer School program. Alumni are also encouraged to enroll in other courses in Summer School.

BIBLE CONFERENCES

Each year the Seminary sponsors a week-long Bible conference at the Mt. Hermon (California) Bible Conference, Camp-of-the-Woods (Speculator, New York), and occasionally at other conference grounds. In these conferences, friends have opportunity to sit under the Bible-teaching ministry of Dallas faculty members.

"BIBLIOTHECA SACRA"

Dallas Seminary publishes Bibliotheca Sacra, the oldest conservative theological journal in America. It has been in continuous publication since 1843 and has been published by Dallas Seminary since 1934. This 96-page, scholarly periodical contains articles of theological import and reviews of current religious books and magazine articles. Each resident student at the Seminary is given a copy of this valuable resource tool.

CHURCH RELATIONS AND PLACEMENT SERVICE

On request, the Department of Alumni and Church Relations recommends, in its placement ministry, Dallas alumni to churches seeking pastors, ministers of education, youth directors, etc., and to schools seeking teachers. This department also sponsors an annual Dallas Seminary Sunday, for the purpose of promoting interest in and giving information on the Seminary. Free copies of church bulletin inserts are offered to churches pastored by alumni and others.

"DALLAS TODAY" RADIO PROGRAM

"Dallas Today" is a 10-minute, daily radio program produced by Dallas Seminary and broadcast weekdays on more than 25 stations in the United States and in foreign countries. The program, hosted by Dr. Stanley Toussaint, features conversations with faculty members about topics of critical importance to the Christian from a biblical perspective. Listeners can write the Seminary for a station log to determine if "Dallas Today" can be heard in their area.

FOUNDERS BANQUETS

Each spring the Seminary sponsors a Founders Banquet in several locations in honor of Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, founder and first president of the Seminary. Each banquet program usually features an outstanding Christian leader as speaker.

"KINDRED SPIRIT" MAGAZINE

The Seminary publishes Kindred Spirit, a quarterly magazine which is designed to minister to friends of the school. Each issue of this 24-page, full-color magazine features several articles, a book feature, Seminary news, and faculty itineraries. Subscriptions are available free on request.

LAY INSTITUTE

The Dallas Seminary Lay Institute is an adult education program offering courses in Bible and related subjects to interested individuals in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Courses are offered for 12 consecutive Monday evenings in each of the fall and spring semesters with classes being held in the Seminary classrooms. The teachers are fourth-year Th.M., S.T.M., and Th.D. students.

The Lay Institute is also a laboratory for the students who are selected to teach. Each teacher has the benefit of supervision by regular Dallas Seminary faculty members who sit in on the classes. Classes are videotaped so that the teacher can see and evaluate himself.

SEMINARY SUPPORT

The Seminary is grateful for the great host of friends who support the school with prayer and finances. The policy of the school is to inform friends of the needs of the school and to solicit prayer support. Full dependence is placed on the Lord to direct His people by His Spirit to support the school by their finances.

In addition to giving current cash gifts to the General Operating Fund donors may be interested in giving through their wills, designating the Seminary as the primary or secondary beneficiary of an insurance policy, purchasing an annuity program with the school, or designating the Seminary as the recipient of a trust agreement. Annuities and trusts give the donor the added benefit of lifetime income and in many cases substantial tax savings.

Information on giving to the Lord's work at the Seminary through these means, as well as guidance on estate planning, is available from the Director of Development.

Every person or church sharing financially in the Seminary is investing in the preparation of students who will faithfully communicate the full teaching of the Word of God in today's world.

The Faculty

The greatest asset of a theological seminary is its faculty. These men translate the philosophy of the Seminary into meaningful terms in the classroom. The faculty of Dallas Seminary are well educated, warmhearted, and dedicated to Jesus Christ. They have studied at institutions whose reputations are recognized throughout the world. Although Dallas professors devote much time to teaching, they are also active in their studies. Members of the faculty publish the fruits of their research in an impressive number of books and in articles for theological journals and popular Christian magazines.

Doctrinal Statement

Article I

THE SCRIPTURES

We believe that "all scripture is given by inspiration of God," by which we understand the whole Bible is inspired in the sense that holy men of God "were moved by the Holy Spirit" to write the very words of Scripture. We believe that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the writings — historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetic — as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that the whole Bible in the originals is therefore without error. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His person and work in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion, even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction. (Mark 12:26, 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2-3; 18:28; 26:22-23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 2:13; 10:11; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21.)

Article II

THE GODHEAD

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons — the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit — and that these three are one God, having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience. (Matt. 28:18-19; Mark 12:29; John 1:14; Acts 5:3-4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 1:4-6.)

Article III

ANGELS, FALLEN AND UNFALLEN

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, "Lucifer, son of the morning" — the highest in rank — sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are "reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day." (Isa. 14:12-17; Ezek. 28:11-19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6.)

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people of God, opposing and exalting himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped; and that he who in the beginning said, "I will be like the most High," in his warfare appears as an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone. (Gen. 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-14; 2 Cor. 4:3-4; 11:13-15; Eph. 6:10-12; 2 Thess. 2:4; 1 Tim. 4:1-3.)

We believe that Satan was judged at the Cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the "god of this world"; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then "cast into the lake of fire and brimstone," where he "shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1-3, 10.)

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation. (Luke 15:10; Eph. 1:21; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 7:12.)

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took for a little time this lower place that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels. (Heb. 2:6-10.)

Article IV

MAN CREATED AND FALLEN

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad apart from divine grace. (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Pss. 14:1-3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:6; 5:40; 6:35; Rom. 3:10-19; 8:6-7; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Tim. 5:6; 1 John 3:8.)

Article V

THE DISPENSATIONS

We believe that the dispensations are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on the earth through man under varying responsibilities. We believe that the changes in the dispensational dealings of God with man depend on changed conditions or situations in which man is successively found with relation to God, and that these changes are the result of the failures of man and the judgments of God. We believe that different administrative responsibilities of this character are manifest in the biblical record, that they span the entire history of mankind, and that each ends in the failure of man under the respective test and in an ensuing judgment from God. We believe that three of these dispensations or rules of life are the subject of extended revelation in the Scriptures, viz., the dispensation of the Mosaic law, the present dispensation of grace, and the future dispensation of the millennial kingdom. We believe that these are distinct and are not to be intermingled or confused, as they are chronologically successive.

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation nor different methods of administering the so-called Covenant of Grace. They are not in themselves dependent on covenant relationships but are ways of life and responsibility to God which test the submission of man to His revealed will during a particular time. We believe that if man does trust in his own efforts to gain the favor of God or salvation under any dispensational test, because of inherent sin his failure to satisfy fully the just requirements of God is inevitable and his condemnation sure.

We believe that according to the "eternal purpose" of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always "by grace through faith," and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the ruling dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation. (1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2; 3:9, ASV; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4, ASV.)

We believe that it has always been true that "without faith it is impossible to please" God (Heb. 11:6), and that the principle of faith was prevalent in the lives of all the Old Testament saints. However, we believe that it was historically impossible that they should have had as the conscious object of their faith the incarnate, crucified Son, the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and that it is evident that they did not comprehend as we do that the sacrifices depicted the person and work of Christ. We believe also that they did not understand the redemptive significance of the prophecies or types concerning the sufferings of Christ (1 Pet. 1:10-12); therefore, we believe that their faith toward God was manifested in other ways as is shown by the long record in Hebrews 11:1-40. We believe further that their faith thus manifested was counted unto them for righteousness (cf. Rom. 4:3 with Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:5-8; Heb. 11:7).

Article VI

THE FIRST ADVENT

We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as preannounced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature. (Luke 1:30-35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15.)

We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earth-life sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometimes within the sphere of that which was divine. (Luke 2:40; John 1:1-2; Phil. 2:5-8.)

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all. (John 1:11; Acts 2:22-24; 1 Tim. 2:6.)

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father's will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world, bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was therefore substitutionary in the most absolute sense — the just for the unjust — and by His death He became the Savior of the lost. (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25-26; 2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 10:5-14; 1 Pet. 3:18.)

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers. (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20-21.)

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished. (Heb. 1:3.)

We believe that He became Head over all things to the church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved. (Eph. 1:22-23; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1.)

Article VII

SALVATION ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity. (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:7-18; Rom. 5:6-9; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4-9; Titus 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:18-19, 23.)

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation. (John 1:12; 3:16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16-17; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22.)

Article VIII

THE EXTENT OF SALVATION

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated and described as such in the New Testament, he passes immediately out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father according as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is therefore in no way required by God to seek a so-called "second blessing," or a "second work of grace." (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 3:21-23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11-12.)

Article IX

SANCTIFICATION

We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ's position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, however, that he retains his sin nature, which cannot be eradicated in this life. Therefore, while the standing of the Christian in Christ is perfect, his present state is no more perfect than his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to "grow in grace," and to "be changed" by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe, also, that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be "like Him." (John 17:17; 2 Cor. 3:18; 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 5:25-27; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 10:10, 14; 12:10.)

Article X

ETERNAL SECURITY

We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love, because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritless on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ, because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life, because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven, because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God, because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved, we and all true believers everywhere, once saved shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will when they persistently sin chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one of them faultless before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son. (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 14:16-17; 17:11; Rom. 8:29; 1 Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1-2; 5:13; Jude 24.)

Article XI

ASSURANCE

We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation from the very day they take Him to be their Savior and that this assurance is not founded upon any fancied discovery of their own worthiness or fitness, but wholly upon the testimony of God in His written Word, exciting within His children filial love, gratitude, and obedience. (Luke 10:20; 22:32; 2 Cor. 5:1, 6-8; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 10:22; 1 John 5:13.)

Article XII

THE HOLY SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, dwells in every believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body, and that He, as the Indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the church, nor from the feeblest of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion of the church. (John 14:16-17; 16:7-15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7.)

We believe that, in this age, certain well-defined ministries are committed to the Holy Spirit, and that it is the duty of every Christian to understand them and to be adjusted to them in his own life and experience. These ministries are the restraining of evil in the world to the measure of the divine will; the convicting of the world respecting sin, righteousness, and judgment; the regenerating of all believers; the indwelling and anointing of all who are saved, thereby sealing them unto the day of redemption; the baptizing into the one body of Christ of all who are saved; and the continued filling for power, teaching, and service of those among the saved who are yielded to Him and who are subject to His will. (John 3:6; 16:7-11; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30; 5:18; 2 Thess. 2:7; 1 John 2:20-27.)

We believe that some gifts of the Holy Spirit such as speaking in tongues and miraculous healings were temporary. We believe that speaking in tongues was never the common or necessary sign of the baptism nor of the filling of the Spirit, and that the deliverance of the body from sickness or death awaits the consummation of our salvation in the resurrection. (Acts 4:8, 31; Rom. 8:23; 1 Cor. 13:8.)

Article XIII THE CHURCH, A UNITY OF BELIEVERS

We believe that all who are united to the risen and ascended Son of God are members of the church which is the body and bride of Christ, which began at Pentecost and is completely distinct from Israel. Its members are constituted as such regardless of membership or nonmembership in the organized churches of earth. We believe that by the same Spirit all believers in this age are baptized into, and thus become, one body that is Christ's, whether Jews or Gentiles, and having become members one of another, are under solemn duty to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian differences, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently. (Matt. 16:16-18; Acts 2:42-47; Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 12:12-27; Eph. 1:20-23; 4:3-10; Col. 3:14-15.)

Article XIV THE SACRAMENTS OR ORDINANCES

We believe that water baptism and the Lord's Supper are the only sacraments and ordinances of the church and that they are a scriptural means of testimony for the church in this age. (Matt. 28:19; Luke 22:19-20; Acts 10:47-48; 16:32-33; 18:7-8; 1 Cor. 11:26.)

Article XV THE CHRISTIAN'S WALK

We believe that we are called with a holy calling, to walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in subjection to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord. (Rom. 6:11-13; 8:2, 4, 12-13; Gal. 5:16-23; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 2:1-10; 1 Pet. 1:14-16; 1 John 1:4-7; 3:5-9.)

Article XVI

THE CHRISTIAN'S SERVICE

We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved. While there is a diversity of gifts, each believer is energized by the same Spirit, and each is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will. In the apostolic church there were certain gifted men — apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers — who were appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We believe also that today some men are especially called of God to be evangelists, pastors and teachers, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God. (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:4-11; Eph. 4:11.)

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself. (1 Cor. 3:9-15; 9:18-27; 2 Cor. 5:10.)

Article XVII

THE GREAT COMMISSION

We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by Him into the world even as He was sent forth of His Father into the world. We believe that, after they are saved, they are divinely reckoned to be related to this world as strangers and pilgrims, ambassadors and witnesses, and that their primary purpose in life should be to make Christ known to the whole world. (Matt. 28:18-19; Mark 16:15; John 17:18; Acts 1:8; 2 Cor. 5:18-20; 1 Pet. 1:17; 2:11.)

Article XVIII

THE BLESSED HOPE

We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture, and for this we should be constantly looking. (John 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:51-52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Titus 2:11-14.)

Article XIX

THE TRIBULATION

We believe that the translation of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel's seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1-19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel's seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which the times of the Gentiles will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob's trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Matt. 24:15-21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

Article XX

THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went, in person on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory to introduce the millennial age, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God's covenant promises, and to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God. (Deut. 30:1-10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek. 37:21-28; Matt. 24:15-25:46; Acts 15:16-17; Rom. 8:19-23; 11:25-27; 1 Tim. 4:1-3; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; Rev. 20:1-3.)

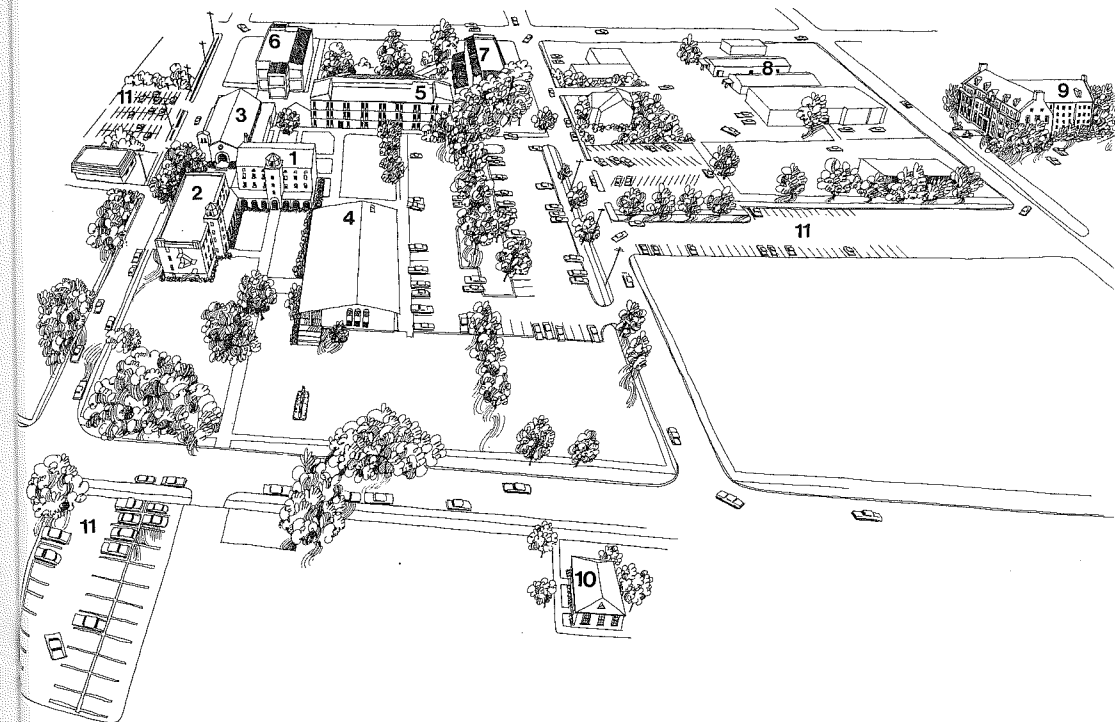

Article XXI

THE ETERNAL STATE

We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power. (Luke 16:19-26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7-9; Jude 6-7; Rev. 20:11-15.)
